

The old Acton Fire Truck was filled with waving children as the parade wound its way from McKenzie-Smith Bennet School to the Fair Grounds.

The Pet Show was a popular part of this year's Fair as always. - Jim Pink photo

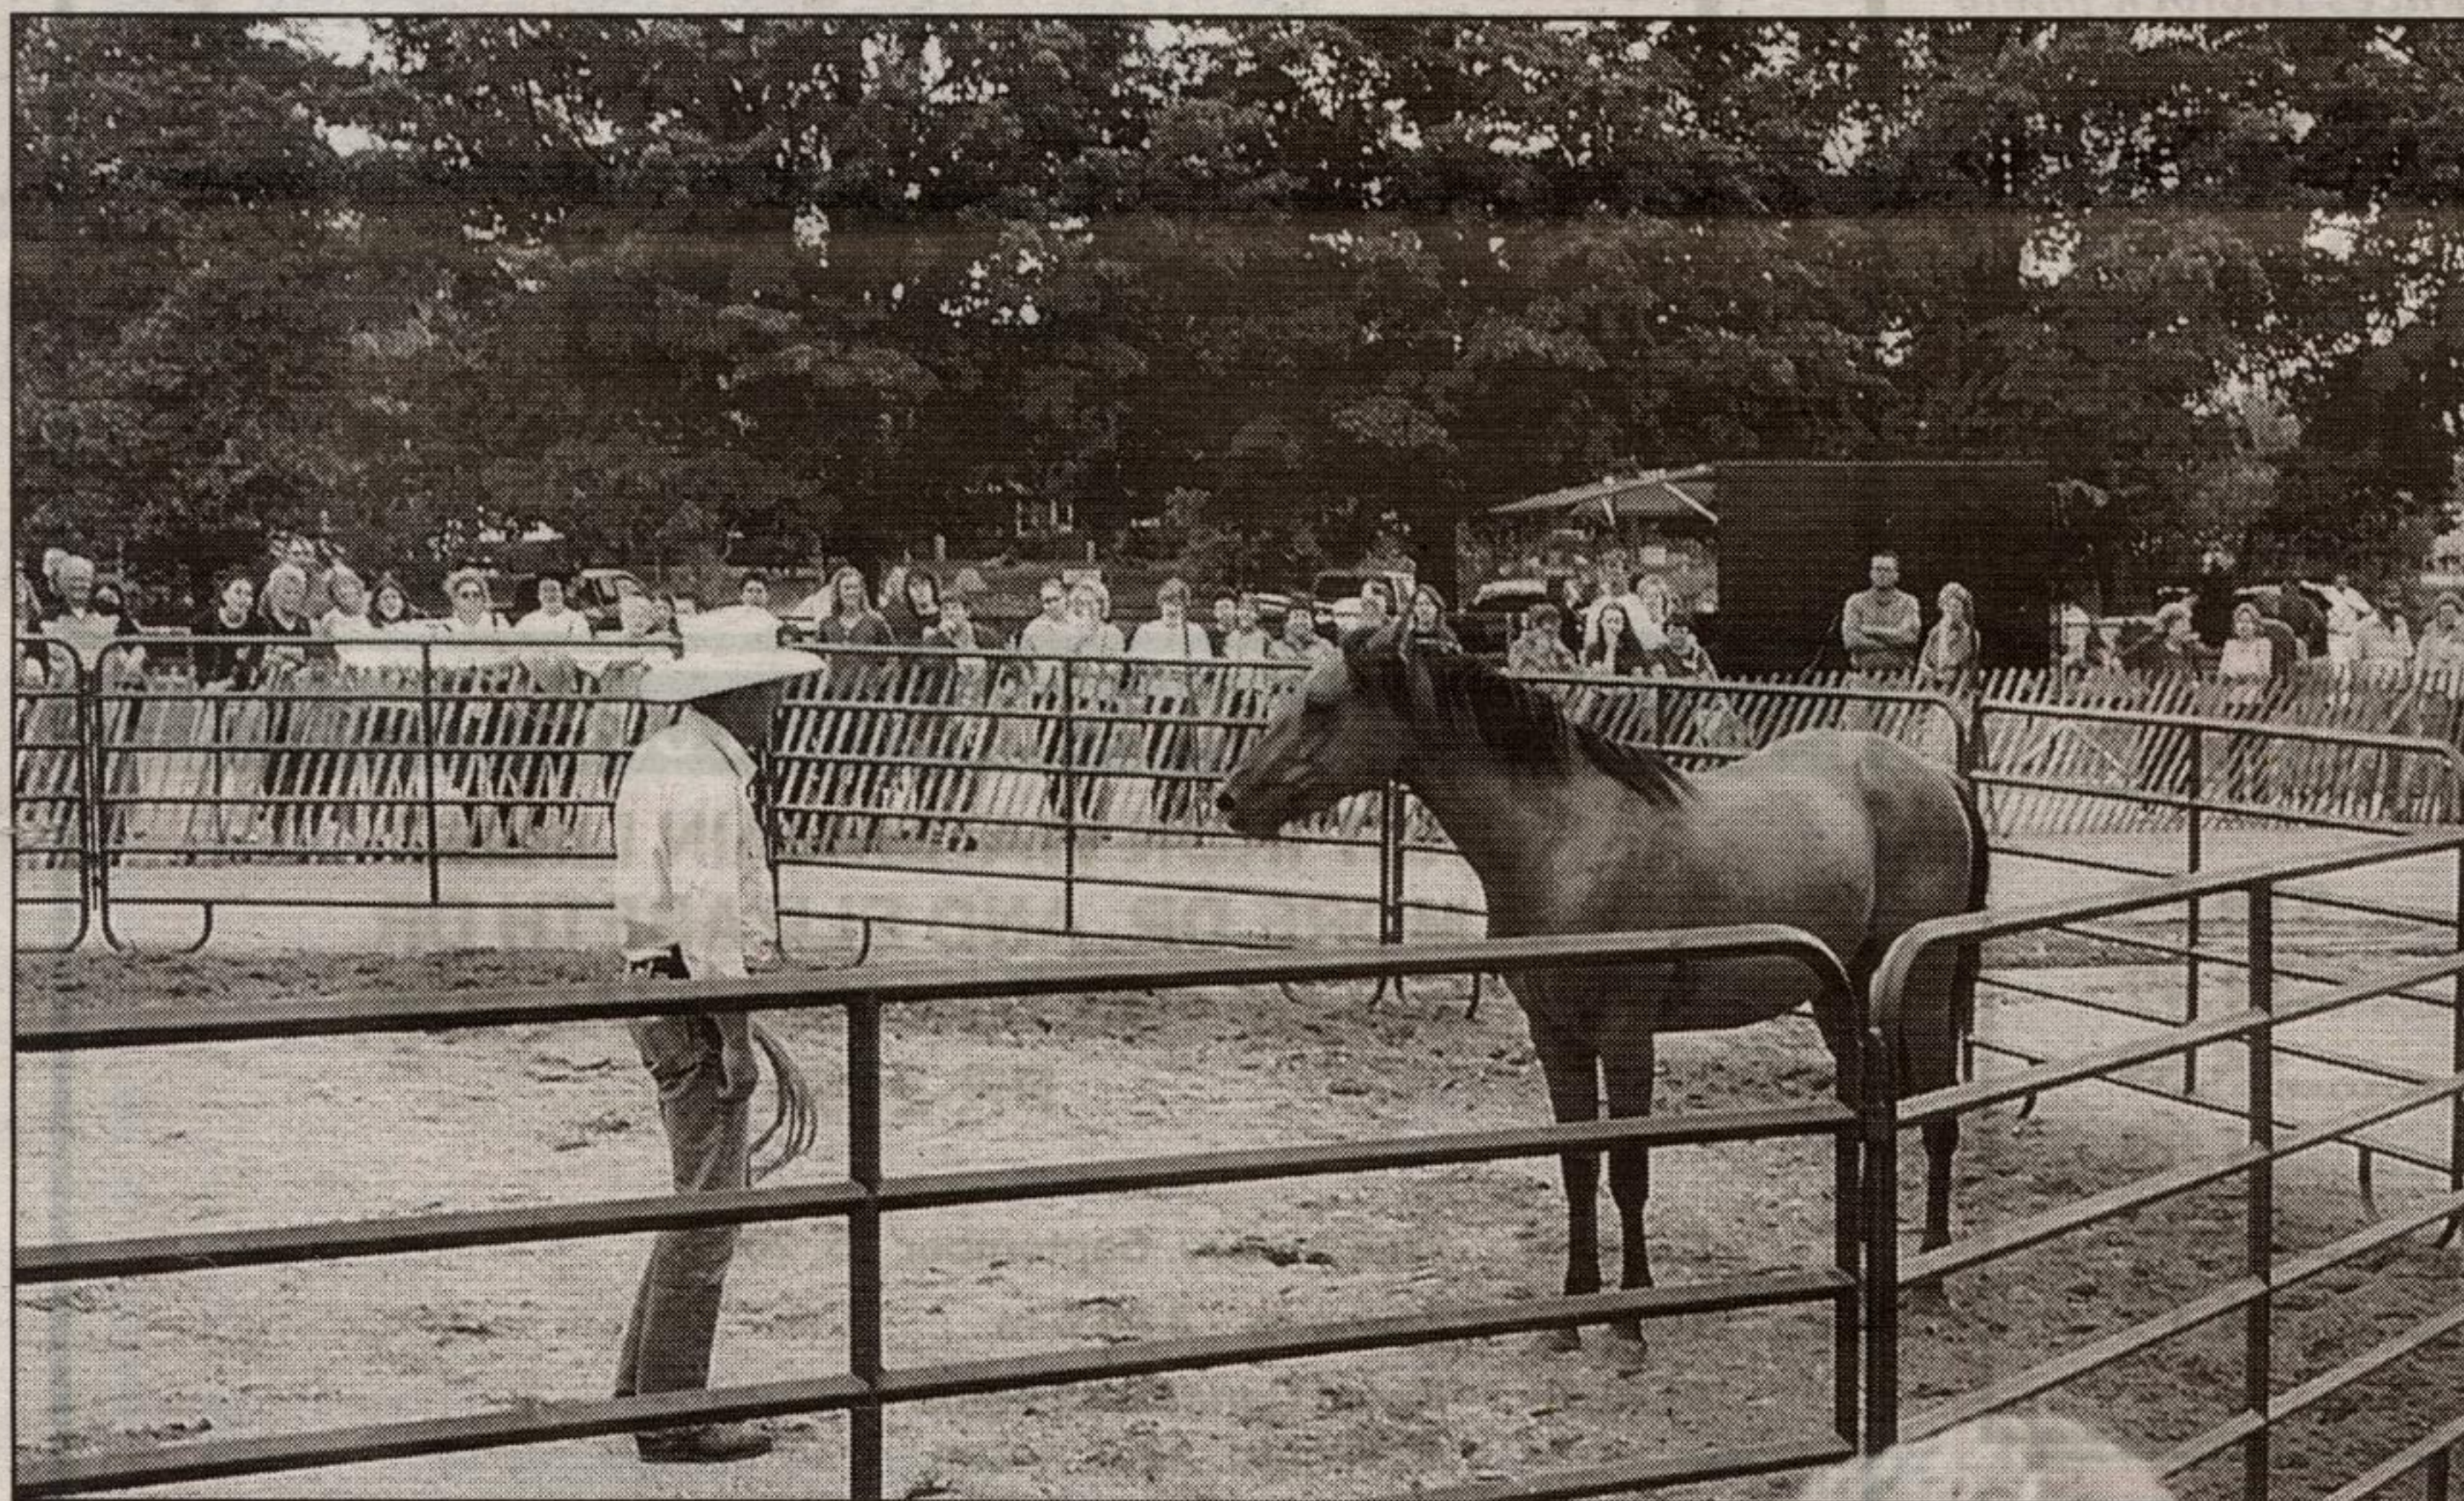

Georgetown Pipe Band delighted the crowds lining the Acton Fall Fair Parade route.

Photos by Ted and Angela Tyler, Danielle McIsaac, and Jim Pink.

The always popular Acton Citizens' Band was another highlight of the Acton Fall Fair Parade.

Greg Barrington performs his 'Horse Whispering' Act

FIRST PRIZE: Kerry van Bholen, 12, of st. thomas who depicted Paul bunyan was a competitor in the Miniature Horse costume events at Acton Fall Fair. His father assists him.

ROAD HORSE: A judge inspects one of the road horse entries in a Fall Fair class on Saturday.

LUCKY DUCKY: Tiffany Snow, 10, from Robert Little School was ecstatic to be able to hold this little duck in the Ken Jen Petting Zoo at the Acton Fall Fair Education Day.

School children's work in the display tent is always appreciated.