

POLICE BEAT

Hallowe'en hooligans

Pumpkins and Hallowe'en decorations valued at $200 were smashed outside a Mill Street West rest home overnight Saturday/Sunday.

Police have no witnesses or suspects.

Stolen plates

A routine traffic stop in Acton last week resulted in a 35-year-old Main St., South man being charged with possession of stolen property, driving without insurance and driving while suspended.

Police pulled over a 1985 Buick Riviera at Queen and Young Streets at 5:50 p.m. last Wednesday and a check found that the licence plate on the car had been stolen from a wrecking yard.

Trailer taken

A trailer valued at $2,600 was stolen from the work lot at Acton Auto Tech overnight last Wednesday. Police report the 18-foot, 2001 black Misk/HLR trailer, plate number V45955, has dual axles.

Free ride

An unlocked silver BMX bike was stolen from McKenzie-Smith Bennett School sometime last Wednesday. Police report the BMX GT Grind, with 21 inch-wheels belonging to a male student, is valued at $530.

Graffiti gone

Custodians at McKenzie-Smith Bennett School had to scrub obscene graffiti off a brick wall last Tuesday morning.

They arrived at the school to find the east wall of the gym had been defaced with black paint. No damage estimate was offered.

Worker hurt

Acton firefighters helped ambulance staff prepare an Acton worker for transport to hospital after an industrial accident at 9:59 a.m. on Monday.

The unidentified worker was cleaning the inside of a concrete drum at the Ready Mix Concrete plant on Commerce Crescent when he was struck in the chest with a piece of concrete. No other details are available.

Gas leak?

A faulty oil-fired furnace is believed to be responsible for a reported gas leak at a Peel Street home at 8:02 p.m. on Sunday.

Firefighters advised the homeowner to have the furnace inspected, and repaired, if necessary.

Fireplace call

Rural Acton firefighters raced to a Nassagaweya-Esquesing Town Line home at 7:28 p.m. on Friday after the homeowner's security company called the fire department when an alarm in the house activated.

The alarm was set off after the homeowner lit a fire in the fireplace.

Oops

A child mistakenly pulled a fire alarm at the Acton arena at 8:05 p.m. last Thursday, prompting the security company to call the fire department. Arena staff reset the alarm.

Artists!: need skate park logo

The Acton Sports Action Park (ASAP) committee is looking to get tagged. The skateboard park in-the-planning needs a logo for easy identification and hopes some local talent will try their hand at branding the proposed facility.

Logo submissions can be left at Godfather Pizza, which will supply pizza prizes to the winner.

Be a Part of Halton Region's Official Plan Review

This fall, Halton Region is seeking input from the public on its Official Plan. We will be hosting a series of open houses and workshops throughout the Region, and we look forward to hearing your ideas on the future of Halton.

Halton Region
2002
Official Plan Review

What is the Official Plan?

Every municipality in Ontario is required to develop an Official Plan which outlines a community's vision for its future and guides decisions on development, transportation, environmental protection, and more.

Halton Region's Official Plan is now under review. This is an opportunity for residents and businesses to play an important part in ensuring Halton Region continues to be a great place to live, work and play.

What is important to you about Halton Region? How should we address the challenges our Region is facing?

Your participation is vital. Please register for a workshop or visit our website to learn more about the Official Plan Review.
