

$25,000 reward for information on murder

Halton Regional Police homicide investigators announced a $25,000 reward for information that leads to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the murder of Paavo (Paul) Henttonen in his Georgetown residence on May 17, 2002.

Mr. Henttonen was last seen when he was dropped off by a taxicab on Rosetta Street, Georgetown, just after midnight on Friday, May 17, 2002. His vehicle, a green, 1997 Chevrolet 1500 extended cab pickup truck, licence plate 371 5KW, was later located in the area of Dominion Garden Drive and Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown.

A Crime Stoppers re-enactment of the crime was shown on August 26, 2002, with details of Mr Henttonen's activities on that Thursday evening. This tape is available to be reviewed upon request.

"Our investigators are making steady progress in the investigation, and this reward process will undoubtedly help them in that regard," says Chief Ean Algar.

Police are asking anyone with information about the murder to contact them by calling the Halton Regional Police Tip Line at 1-866-HALTTIP (1-866-425-8847). A new email mailbox has also been created and police can be contacted at henttonenhomicide@hrps.on.ca

QUEEN'S JUBILEE MEDALS: 20 Halton people received Queen's Jubilee Medals at a ceremony in Milton Council Chambers, Wednesday October 30. MP Julian Reed bestowed the medals on the recipients who came from all walks of life.

Jubilee medals presented at ceremony in Milton

MP Julian Reed presented the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal to 20 Halton riding recipients last Wednesday evening in Milton Council Chambers.

Mae Hoare and George Henderson were Acton Recipients of the medal. "I was very proud to present these medals and humbled to play a small role in paying tribute to the achievements and contributions of these residents of Halton," Mr. Reed said. "They have given back to Canada and our community to the benefit of us all. What a marvellous way to honour 50 years of Her Majesty's reign."

This was an opportunity to recognize citizens for an outstanding and exemplary achievement or service to the community or to Canada as a whole; or those who have made a sustained contribution over and above what might reasonably be expected of paid employment or voluntary action, Mr Reed said.

In keeping with the Golden Jubilee spirit endorsed by the Queen, awarding of the medal will be inclusive and wide-ranging. It will be presented to approximately 46,000 Canadians.

The Chancellery of Honours, Government House, administers the Medal Program and asked Members of Parliament to assist them on a riding basis, as one of the medal partners. The Acton duo honoured with a medal had these descriptions read:

Mr George Henderson - Mr Henderson has been an active volunteer in the Town of Acton for over 25 years, as a Scout leader and District leader, raising funds for cancer research through the Terry Fox run, at the Acton Fair and through his church. He is a well-respected member of our community, always ready to contribute.

Mrs Mae Hoare - Honoured as the 1997 Citizen of the Year for Acton, Mrs Hoare is a long-time volunteer for the Red Cross and Terry Fox run. She is a member of Legion Branch 197 and St. Alban's church and choir - a tireless supporter of the community.

Nine people from Georgetown received medals as well as Erin Rowe, daughter of Mark and Kelly Rowe of Glen Williams, former Actonians. Mark Rowe accepted on behalf of his daughter who's attending university.
