ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

BY ENA GIBSON

The two mooners at Bid Euchre last Thursday were Mary Papillon and Ruth Burke.

A "Wild Bird" presentation is being held at the Centre on Tues., Oct. 21st at 1:30pm. It sure sounds interesting.

Don't forget the Free Flu Clinic at the Community Hall on Wed., Oct. 22 from 1pm to 7pm. Get your shot and stay healthy this winter. If you can help at the clinic for a few hours, please sign up. You're really needed.

Our New Members' Tea is at 1:30 on Tues., Oct. 28. Come enjoy the refreshments and find out what our Centre is all about.

The next Rama trip is on Wed. Oct. 29 so call Ruth at 853-5124 if you wish to go.

November is looking to be another busy month. Call the Centre at 853-5951 or watch for more information about the following:

Nov. 4,5,6 Trip to Casino du Lac Leamy in Gatineau

Nov. 6 Roast Beef Dinner at 6pm.

Nov. 7 John Elliott Theatre, "Cooking With Gus" by GLT

Nov. 10 at 1:30pm - "Heads Up" with Bill

Rowley
Nov. 22 Seniors' Christmas Bazaar

Nov. 23 John Elliott Theatre "Cabaret" by Globe

In spite of what you might have heard, the draw for Maria Salay's water colour print will take place at our Christmas Dinner on Dec. 12. Get your tickets and don't be disappointed.

To all customers of Royal Jug City & Royal Fishing Tackle.

Thank You for your patronage and friendly smiles during the last six years. You always made my days enjoyable.

I wish Bernice, Steve and staff continued success in the future.
Gone fishing.

eracy North Halton would like to hear from you.

Low literacy can affect a person's health, safety, employment opportunities, and ultimately self esteem. Parents who cannot read or write can pass the problem onto their children.

Literacy North Halton has been serving Acton, Georgetown and Milton for more than 17 years. Throughout that time, tutors have spoken often about the tremendous value in teaching another how to cope with everyday
