

Local bands led Santa down Mill St.

Acton Citizens' Band

Georgetown Pipe Band

Air Cadets keep pace

Little Drummer Boy

Parade float winners

St. Joseph's school won first overall prize in Saturday's Acton Santa Claus parade.

McKenzie-Smith Bennett delighted the crowd with its float, picking up first place in the school category.

The Neighbours got together and showed off their Christmas Spirit.

Taking the commercial prize, Metro Pavement Marking was happy to take the prize all the way home.

Acton Kinsmen was favoured by the judges for the service club category.

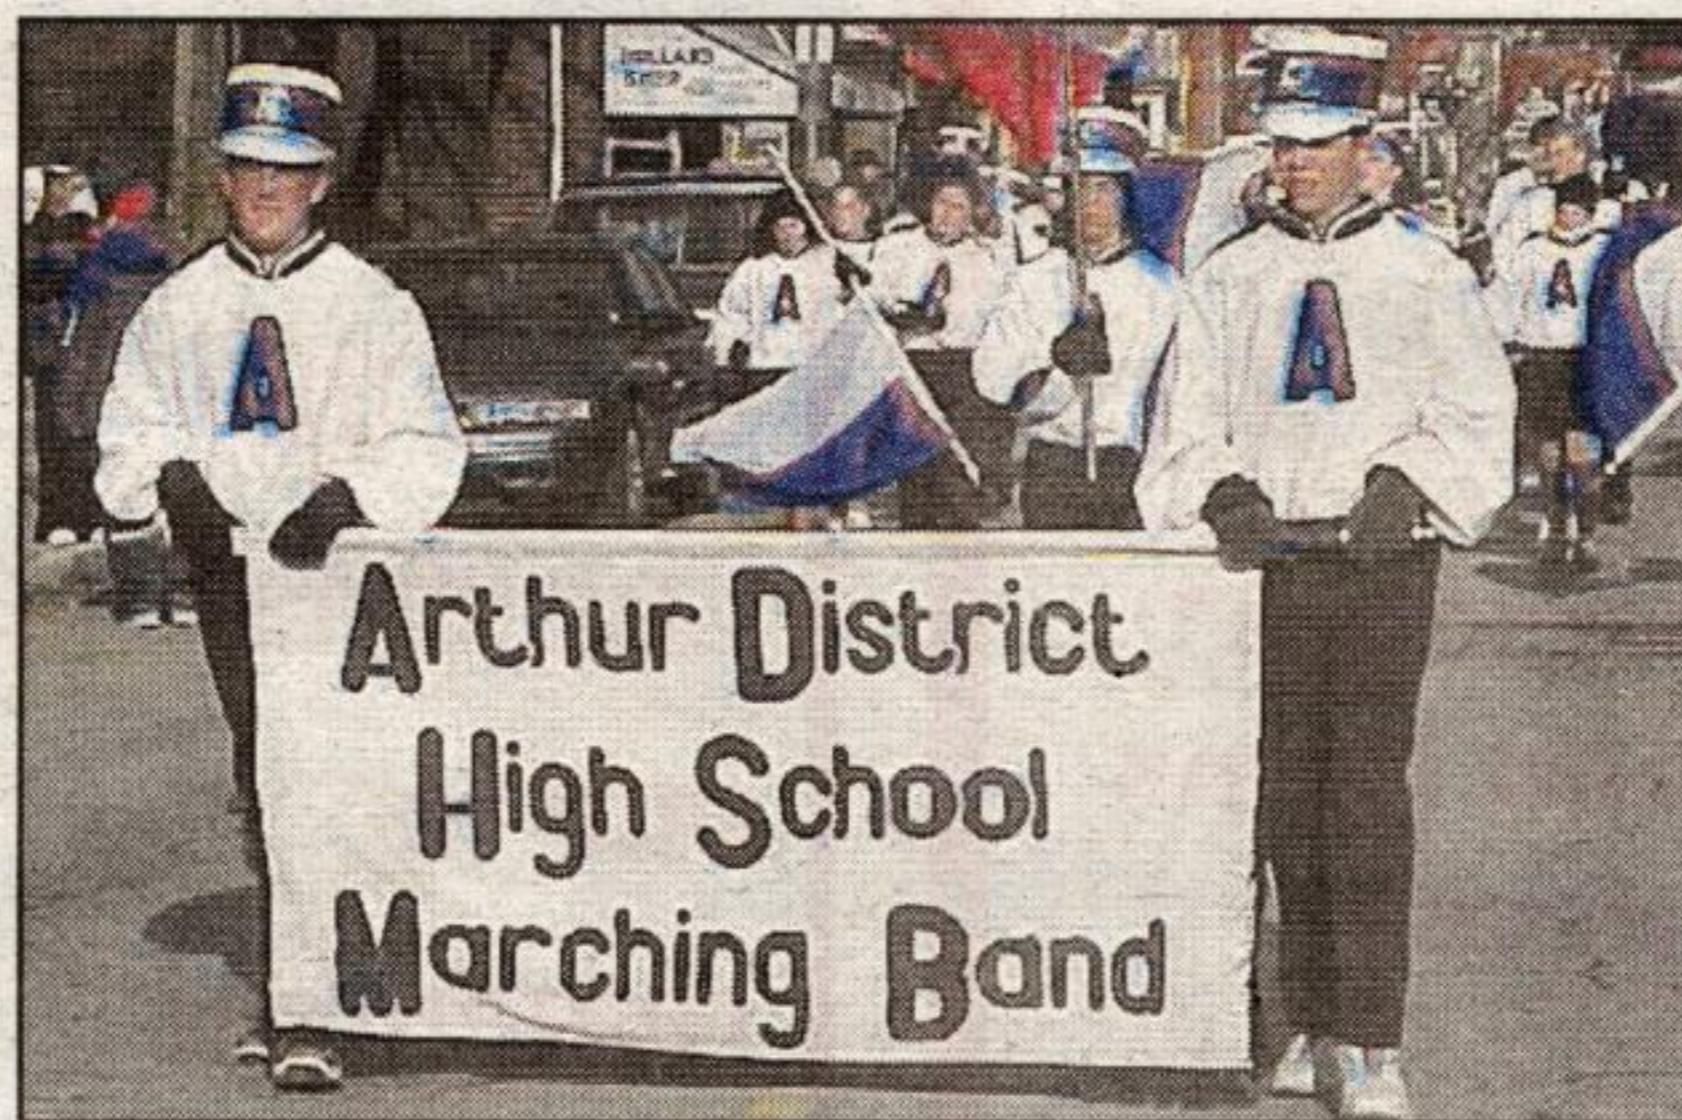

The Acton parade, hosted by Jack Carpenter and Dean Haughie, will air on Cogeco TV (Channel 14), on Nov. 19, 20, 23, 24, 27 and 28, Dec. 8, 9, 22 and 24 at 8 or 1 p.m.

Rockwood residents will be able to see their Festival of Lights parade on Dec. 14, 15, 22 or 24 during the same time slot.

Photos by
Ted and Angela Tyler

Two pipers piping

Acton Citizens' Band is always a delight

Guelph's Royalaires march in step