Wednesday morning, retired businessman, Neil Charette, received a phone call from his son Rob that he thought was a joke or a prank call. Rob, after being bombarded with calls from friends, called his dad to inform him he had just one-million dollars in the Princess Margaret Foundation Lottery which proceeds goes to cancer research. Many area residents have won in this lottery, including Neil, who last year won over $100. Wednesday morning, City TV's, Breakfast Television announced the early bird winners. The lottery in its conclusion will have over 21,000 winners. As soon as Neil's name was announced, Rob and his sister, Giselle Tremblay's phones were swamped with calls. Neil had asked his entire family, including his other son, picking up his cheque at 2 p.m. favourite number is now 093729

Raymond who lives in that afternoon in Toronto.No which is the ticket that brought Brampton, to accompany him in doubt, the retired entrepreneur's him his new found fortune.
