Mayor appeals for helps for Raymond Getty's family

Halton Hills Mayor Rick Bonnette is appealing to local citizens and businesses for donations to help the Getty family of Acton pay for their son's funeral.

Bonnette said Halton Hills and particularly Acton, are "gripped in sadness" following the tragic murder of 15-year old Raymond Getty, who died of a gunshot wound to chest last Wednesday while visiting a Danville Avenue house.

At council on Monday, Bonnette offered condolences to the family of the slain boy; a family Bonnette said faces serious financial constraints.

"I appeal to the community- if anyone has a few extra dollars, and I know it's a very difficult time after the holidays to have any spare money-but if you do, I ask that you please donate to the Raymond Getty trust fund," Bonnette said.

Donations can be made at Scotia Bank, using transit number 70102 and account 0188522.

Ernest Arsenault, a former Getty neighbour who set up the trust fund, is overwhelming with the response from a caring community.

"It is touching that so many people care," Arsenault said on Tuesday, adding that more than $1,200 was deposited in the trust fund in the first 24 hours, and tellers at the Mill Street Scotiabank branch were "very busy" taking donations on Monday.

Arsenault said knowing the family's tough financial situation, and not able to pay for the funeral himself, he thought the least he could do was arrange for donations. On December 17, Manny's Roadhouse on Mill Street is hosting a benefit for the Getty family.

With a minimum donation of $10 at the door, the event will feature live entertainment from Heavy Inc., a band that is donating its time.

"We're going to donate some money ourselves," said Nick Propopapas, father of restaurant owner, Manny Propopapas.

Nick Propopapas said he remembers serving Raymond Getty breakfast at his former Four Seasons' Restaurant, and that his mother and stepfather frequent Manny's.

"We are a family business that wants to help another family," Nick Propopapas said.

Manny Propopapas said downtown businesses have donated items for door and raffle prizes, and they are looking for additional donations and volunteers.

Benefit tickets are available at Manny's or by calling Tina Marshall at 853-5891.
