- e) Players who wish to try out for AMHA Rep Hockey teams must be registered before they can be allowed onto the ice for tryouts in April. Players who are not registered either due to incomplete information or non payment of fees will not be allowed on the ice until such time as they have completed the registration process.

*The amount of the final instalment may be altered. The Tri-County League is contemplating removing the collection of Play Off Gate Fees. If Gate Fees are eliminated then the loss in Gate Fee revenue must be added on to the Registration Fee (approximately $50). A reduction in Registration Fees of up to $50 may also occur depending upon the success of summer Fund Raising efforts. The higher AMHA 2004-2005 Registration Fees are due to the significantly lower than budgeted revenues from Fund Raising events for the past two years. This year, Registration Fees will cover the majority of operational expenses.

Peewees claim Young Canada consolation Crown in Goderich

By Chuck Tysoe

Forward Dylan Creasey's shorthanded first period breakaway goal stood up as the winner Monday night, as the Tanners defeated host Goderich 7-0 to take the Consolation Championships in the 55th Young Canada Peewee tournament.

Tanners left their jump in the bag Sunday morning, opening the single elimination with a shocking 8-4 loss to Mt. Forest Despite swarming the 'Forest net early and often, the Tanners feel behind 3-2 moments into the second period and were never close thereafter, defensively soft and unable to break through Mt. Forest's lanky (and often lucky) netminder.

Relegated to the consolation round, the Tanners marched through to the final 7-2 over St. Thomas and 4-3 over Mitchell (Birthplace of Montreal Canadien's legendary and tragic Howie Morenz). And in the final they were flying back their quick-passing crowd pleasing, flowing game. Jessy KcKeon and Liam Robertson put the game out of reach, benefiting from several man-advantaged situations.

Scott Weber, a real catalyst over the tournament, unleashed his big time shot to make it 6-0, and with seconds remaining defenceman Scott Hoffland finished the back end of a 2 to 1 with for a richly deserved first goal of the season. Joss Warren earned the shutout with the defence corps of Hoffland, Alex Wenzel, David Elop. David Tysoe and Taylor McNabb holding Goderich to under ten shots.

Wenzel showed courage after taking a nasty hit in the second, playing a solid third period after an ice pack. Playing in Robertson's spot enabled the slick skating defender to move top the wing and contribute a number of goals over the tourney. None was more vital that the third versus Mitchell, finishing off a great rush from Tysoe and putting Tanners ahead for good in the tooth-and-nail semi final.

Joss Warren was terrific in goal and defence and forwards blocked many shots as Mitchell desperately fight to the buzzer. Bradley Kri contributed immensely with his play on the boards. Brandy McCarthy made a spectacular play to set up the second goal. Brandon Masini con-

Soccer Club wraps up Season

This is a busy time of the year for the Acton Soccer Club, which just wrapped up a most successful indoor soccer season at Hitherfield School gymnasium

Once again, in the Under-10 division, the parents were well and truly pasted by the players, with special notes for goal-scoring to Tommy Lupinacci, Mikey Watson, Mikaela Nascimento, and the perennially high-scoring Trevor Livingston. Defensive stability was provided by Matthew Roberts, Rachel Dobbs and Davin Peck.

In the Under-14 Division, the players ended the season in style, and ended championship day with a pot-luck lunch.

Adult indoor ended with a round robin tournament and final. The Red team won all the round-robin matches to reach the championship final against the somewhat lucky but high-energy White team. Despite the fact that a couple of the White players should really have retired many years ago, White had substitutes available and took advantage of Red's tiredness to win the final 9-4. Starring for the White team were Gil and Joe Douglas and Eric Corman.

With indoor complete, the outdoor season approaches. Registration is now nearly complete, and several age groups are completely full.

Under-5 has expanded from 48 players to 80 players in two years, and Under-9 has gone from 100 to 140 in the same time. Under-5 and Under-12 are completely full, with growing waiting lists, while there are a few spaces left in Under-7, Under-9, Under-16 boys and Under-18 girls.

The only age groups where there is a danger of not being able to field a team are the Under-18 boys and Under-22 girls, where more people must register quickly to keep the season alive in these age groups.

Registration and the waiting lists are being handled through Acton's Time Out Sports, (519) 853 9597. If you have any other questions about soccer in Acton, check out www.actonsoccer.org.
