

ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

By ENA GIBSON

I apologize for listing Faye Pink by her maiden name, Dawkins in last week's article. That's what comes of being an Actonian for so long. Sorry, Faye.

Our weekly 50/50 draw was not won last week so the jackpot is growing. Get your Toonie in and sign your name for a chance this week.

Bid Euchre had three mooners last week. They were Jean Jackson, Francis Hogenbirk and Shirley Hunter.

Please come out to our interior decorating show on Tuesday, March 30 at 1:30 pm. For $2 you can learn about your decorating styles and the latest tips to enhance your home. Refreshments and door prizes are included.

Then, the next day, Wednesday, Mar. 31, enjoy a trip to Casino Rama and we hope Lady Luck smiles on you.

There is still room for more Carpet Bowling participants on Monday afternoons so come out and enjoy the fun.

Are you interested in playing Bridge or a work out with Tai Chi? Check with the Centre for more information on these worthy activities.

The beautiful Easter Egg centre piece is being enjoyed by all who visit the Centre. If you would like to have it in your home, make sure you buy a ticket for the draw on Fri., April 2. Tickets are $1 or 3 for $2.

Our St. Patrick's Day Dinner had a good turnout and thanks to all who braved the terrible storm to enjoy the food. We're sorry the entertainment was cancelled but hope you enjoyed Dave's singing! The winners of the draws were Bob Bruce, Elinor

Dodds, Lloyd Broostad and the 50/50 draw was won by Ena Gibson. Tickets are now available for our Easter dinner on Tues., April 6 and our Drama Club is practicing hard to present some skits for our entertainment. Buy your tickets soon and don't be disappointed.

Our next Birthday Tea will be held on Tuesday, April 13 at 2 p.m. and all members with birthdays in April are invited to bring a friend and enjoy cake and ice cream at the Centre.

Our card nights are on the third Wednesday of each month, starting at 7:15 p.m. and have been very successful. For $3, enjoy an evening of cards with refreshments and prizes. The next two will be on April 21 and May 19.

Everyone is getting geared up for our GST (Goods, Services, Talents) Auction on Saturday, April 17. When you register from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. you will receive a small gift and lunch may be purchased during the Auction. While we still will accept donations, we wish to thank Acton Home Hardware, Bob and Margaret MacKinnon, Acton Veterinary Clinic, Halton Hills Furniture, Paintin' Friends, Country Reflections, Acton Monument (Ian Pasmore) and Originals for their donations and support.

On April 27, we are having a visit from Gary Barton, Pharmacist, who will be available to answer questions regarding various medications, health problems, alternative medicines, etc. Come at 1:30 p.m. and for $2, get your queries answered.

At the Centre, we have information for trips to Stratford

(Guys and Dolls), Niagara Parks, Georgian Bay, Orillia, and Toronto (The Producers)

If you are interested in knowing more, please contact the Centre at 853-5951.

What Sureties need to know

FAILURE TO OBEY A COURT ORDER

If the accused person fails to appear in court or breaks any other term of the bail order, the accused person may be charged with another criminal offence.

If the person is found guilty if breaching the court order, the Crown may ask the court to make you pay the money you committed as a surety. A hearing will be scheduled. You and the accused person will be given at least 10 days notice of the date and place of the hearing.

The hearing is called estreatment. It will give you an opportunity to explain why you should not lose your money.

The judge may order that you pay all, part, or none of your money. Further legal action may be taken against you to collect the amount owing.

CASH DEPOSITS

In some cases, in addition to the surety's pledge to pay a specified amount of money, the accused will be required to deposit a sum of money to the court.

Where there has been a deposit of cash by the accused person, or by the surety on behalf of the accused and the case is over, that money is returned to the accused person and not to the surety.

YOUR LIVER WILL THANK YOU

DETOXIFY WITH MILK THISTLE

In a perfect world, the liver would be able to perform its myriad roles without much help. In today's world, however, we are constantly exposed to a range of toxins that can over-work the liver, impede its function and in extreme cases damage it. Pollution, drugs, cigarette smoke and even moderate amounts of alcohol can all contribute to strain or damage the liver. Diets high in fat and sugar, not to mention high stress levels, also tax this vital organ. Milk thistle is an herb whose active ingredient - silymarin, protects liver cells from harmful chemicals and alcohol. Milk Thistle is known to help treat a range of complaints, from relatively simple digestive problems to severe conditions such as hepatitis, cirrhosis and poisoning. Fortunately there are natural ways to help cleanse the liver of toxins and revitalize it. It acts as an anti-oxidant, mopping up harmful free radicals that can build up in the body as a result of stress and exposure to toxins.
