BLACK BELTS: Dan McNeil and Chris Rogers recently were awarded Black Belts in Jiu Jitsu -Submitted Photo

Acton Jiu Jitsu has two new Black Belts

Sensei Linda Bromley and members of Acton Jiu-Jitsu are proud to announce the club's newest black belts: Dan McNeil and Chris Rogers.

The Canadian Jiu-Jitsu Association held its 2004 black belt grading at the dojo of Sensei Linda Bromley, Acton Jiu-Jitsu, on May 9.

Sensei Bromley, a member of the examining board for Canadian black belts, attests to the intensity and difficulty of the test imposed upon Dan and Chris.

"They did amazingly well and I am proud to announce that they are promoted to the rank of "Shodan", Black Belt, First Degree," she said.

Sensei McNeil and Sensei Rogers are instructors at the Acton dojo and integral parts of the club.

Dan is a resident of Georgetown and has been attending Acton Jiu-Jitsu, along with his children Rory and Kayleigh, since Oct. 2, 2001. Dan came to the club already holding black belts in Karate and Judo and now is the proud holder of a Jiu-Jitsu black belt. He is the head instructor for the grappling program at Acton Jiu-Jitsu.

Chris is a resident of Rockwood and has been attending the club since Jan. 6, 2001. His first three months membership were a Christmas gift from his wife, Carol. He stayed.

Chris arrived with a strong background in Kung Fu which has served him well with his Jiu-Jitsu training. He has become the head instructor for the Sparring Program at Acton Jiu-Jitsu.

"Each of these gentlemen is a fine role model and example of excellence for our students, children and adults, to emulate," says Sensei Bromley.

Sensei Bromley was also tested at the May 9 grading and has been promoted to "Yodan" black belt 4th degree. Formal presentation of her new rank by the CJA will follow at a later date.

McDonald's Rookies take Milton 8-6

Acton McDonald's rookie team played hard and came out on the winning end of an 8-6 score against Milton 2, who made the contest close in the final inning, on May 26.

Team McDonald's is improving on a weekly basis with good coaching and great effort. In particular, the fielding of Justin Pankratz was spectacular at first with good catches for force outs in the first and second innings, and the duo of Jillian Mullin and Jake Corpe performed solidly at second with catches for force outs in the second, third and fifth innings. At bat, Jasson Lockyer led the way with two singles, and a triple. Mullin and Neil Campbell broke out of the mini slumps, each contributing singles.

Craig Borden was welcomed to the team for his first game and responded with a single.
