SHOPLIFTING

Shoplifting is Theft and a Criminal Offence.

Selection 334 of the Criminal Code of Canada, deals with the offence of theft.

If you are charged and convicted of a theft; For an item valued in excess of $5,000. The penalty can be up to 10 years in jail. For an item valued at less than $5,000. The penalty can be up to 2 years in jail.

Section 494 of the Criminal Code of Canada provides that a store owner or authorized agent, can arrest without warrant any person found committing, a Criminal Offence in relation to the store property.

Simply put, if the store owner or agent finds you stealing you can be arrested and turned over to the police for prosecution.

It doesn't matter if the item is worth $1.00 or $1,000.00.

Theft is theft

Many people are not aware of the serious consequences of a theft and the impact it can have, on the victims and their own lives.

When items are stolen, the store owner must pass along the increased costs to all the honest, paying customers.

There are costs to all involved in installing and maintaining theft deterrent technologies, like video cameras and store security personnel. There are costs involved for policing and prosecution of the offender.

Theft costs consumers millions of dollars on an annual basis.

TO BE CONTINUED, NEXT WEEK.

DECORATION DAY: Legion members Joyce Buchanan, left, and Julie Conroy plant Geraniums Sunday morning at Fairview Cemetery as part of the Royal Canadian Legion's Decoration day which this year fell on the 60th anniversary of D-Day. Veterans' and Legion members' graves all had plantings.

LEGION NEWS BRANCH No. 197

By James Hayes
Public Relations Officer

Comrades:

President George O'Donnell has asked me to thank all the members, family and friends who turned out last Sunday to help plant the flowers on the veterans' graves at Fairview Cemetery. A special thank you to the Branch Ladies Auxiliary, and the ladies of the IODE.

Recent visitors to the Branch will have noticed the D-Day posters in the club room; these were the work of students at St. Alban's Church School. To them we give our sincere thanks.

At last Monday's general meeting Helen VanOpstal was the lucky winner of a free membership in 2005.

The Provincial Service Officer will be visiting our area on Wednesday, July 21. Persons requesting an interview please contact Branch 197 Service Officer Dave Crook to set up an appointment.

COMING EVENTS.

June 25, 2004: Initiation Night, new members will be contacted by membership chairman John Wagg. This is the final and most important part of becoming a member of the Legion.

Saturday, June 26: On the patio from 2:00-6:00 pm music and entertainment by Joe Tucker and his Down East Country Band. There will be a bar-b-q with hot dogs and hamburgers.

SPORTS.

The Thursday night Horse-shoes has started up for the summer season, come on down for a social game starting at 6:30 pm. Contact Keith Andrews for details.

The Zone golf will be held at Acton Meadows on June 19. With reception back at Branch 197, help is still required on the course and back at the Branch.

IODE NEWS

By Elinor Wagner Dodds

Our annual pot-luck picnic was held at the home of Helen Jocque with 11 members present. Everyone enjoyed the good food and camaraderie. President Ernestine Foster opened our meeting with the prayer for the Order and the Flag Salute.

Joyce Sprowl and Helen Jocque reported on the 84th Provincial Annual meeting they attended in Niagara Falls in April.

Decoration Day is June 6 and IODE is placing flowers on graves of deceased members. This is in conjunction with the Acton Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

Final plans were made for our Giant Yard Sale to be held June 12 at the Home of Helen Jocque - corner of Highway 25 and Regional Road 12, one mile south of Acton. This is one of our major fund raisers for the year. There will be bargains galore; BBQ hot dogs and hamburgers; hot and cold drinks; and a fish bowl for the kids. There will be something for everyone to buy. We have a rain date of June 19 but we are thinking positively for the 12th.

Our next meeting will be Sept. 7. We are looking forward to a pleasant summer and wish the same for the community.
