Motor vehicle accidents

Your police service investigates numerous motor vehicle collisions every year.

If you become involved in a motor vehicle collision, please remember the following guidelines:

If no one is injured, the damage is minor and there is no damage to highway property, safely remove the vehicles from the roadway. This can prevent further collisions and it allows other motorists to be on their way.

If the total damage to all vehicles is less than $1000, no one is injured and there is no damage to highway property, then the accident is considered non-reportable. The police do not have to be notified.

You should exchange driver's names, addresses and drivers license numbers. Also exchange the name, address and license plate numbers of the vehicle owners.

Lastly, exchange insurance company and policy information.

If anyone is hurt (even a minor injury), total damage is over $1,000 or there is damage to highway property (signs, guardrails etc.), then the accident must be reported to the police.

If at the accident scene you are concerned for your safety or frightened of the other driver (road rage) drive directly to the nearest police station or immediately dial 911.

If you suspect the other driver is impaired or you witness an accident and you suspect one of the drivers may be impaired, call the police right away. Try to stay on the line and provide information to assist the police.

If you are unsure or in doubt, call the police and report the incident.

Dublin WI hears report on FWIO Oshawa Convention

BY Kathleen V. Alder

The June Meeting of Dublin Women's Institute was held at the R.R. 1, Sixth Line, Acton home of Edna Nellis. Roll Call - "What pleases or annoys you about our Branch Meetings" was answered by 12 members.

Maisie Lasby, District Director, gave a report on the final Annual Meeting of Halton District held on May 24 at Country Heritage Park, and reminded everyone of the upcoming first Annual meeting of the newly-formed Wellington/Halton District to be held at Rockmosa on Jun 29, 2004.

Jane Baynton gave a report on the F.W.I.O. Convention recently held at Durham College in Oshawa. The next FWIO Convention will be held in London, Ontario in 2006 and the theme will be 'Together Everyone Achieves More' - TEAM.

Jeanie Kidd expressed her thanks for the beautiful hanging basket she had received on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

In line with the theme for our meetings, Jane Baynton gave a very interesting talk on the history of the Erland Lee Homestead and its place in the formation of the Women's Institute.

As is our custom, our regular July meeting is replaced with a social evening, and plans were made for dinner and theatre on July 15. We look forward to as many members as possible attending.

Lunch was served by our hostess, Edna Nellis, assisted by Chris McMillan. Courtesies were given by Sharon Anderson.

The next regular meeting will be on Wednesday, August 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Chris McMillan - R.R. 1 - 6440 25 Sideroad, Acton. Any ladies who would like to join us would be very welcome. Information can be obtained from Kathleen Alder (President) 856-9353 or Jean McLean (Secretary) 856-9598.

BRANCH No. 197 LEGION NEWS
By James Hayes P.R.O.

The Branch mourns the passing of our comrade Bill Taylor. A 40-year member of Branch 197, Bill was an active member for most of those years. He truly exemplified the term service, and was always ready when there was work to be done around the Branch. A legion tribute was held at the Blue Springs Funeral home on July 1.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Joan and her family at this distressing time.

"At the going down of the Sun and in the morning We will remember them."

Maintenance Chairman Larry McAfee expresses his sincere thanks to Shawn and Ron of Ron's Mobile Wash, also to Lyle Preuter, Keith and Dave Andrews for their splendid work in sprucing up our airplane. Well done.

Events at the Branch
Tonight, July 8, is 40 cent Wing Night, 6 p.m. until sold out; also pizza and Caesar salad. Come on down and help make this a weekly event.

Saturday, July 10, the 48th Highlanders and Lorne Scots are having a picnic at the Branch. Legion members' children and grandchildren under 12 years are welcome to participate in any children's activities, games, food, etc. This starts at 1 p.m.

Sports:
We are being represented in Port Dover at the District Golf on July 17 by Dave Thompson, Jeff Scott, Jules Russiani and Jack Van Kesteran. Good luck guys.
