Pie eating contest, other entertainment highlight of this year's festival

August may signal the end of summer to many, but to Actonians August is the time to pull out all the stops to celebrate the huge downtown street party, that's absolutely free - The Leathertown Festival!

This year, the 13th annual festival promises to provide lots of live entertainment, shopping galore, all kinds of neat stuff for the kiddies, great food and a chance to just come out and enjoy the community.

Take a look at some of the events that are planned: the main stage at Mill and Main has a complete line-up of entertainment all day long including our very own Acton Citizens'

Band and the Beirido Brothers. The Kids' Stage at the Alexanian Carpets parking lot will be entertained by The Dance Inn and The Ben Show just to name a few. And strollers through the downtown will be serenaded by a whole variety of Buskers, to suit all ages.

If you've got children who boast good appetites, you may want to bring them down to the Second Annual Pie Eating contest held in the Kids Zone at 4:10 pm. And the winners receive, what else - more food! Pizzas will be awarded to first, second and third place winners in each of the three age categories (5-7 years, 8-10 years, 11-13 years).

There's also a chance to show off a favourite pet at the Pets on Parade at the Kid's Zone. Pets, on a leash, can be awarded a prize for the Best Trick, Biggest, Smallest and Cutest and the Best Costume. The festivities start at 11 am - no exotic pets please.

There are six blocks of fun and festivities from 11 to 5, so plan to spend the day in your hometown downtown on Sunday August 8.

See you there!
