

Thousands line parade route to greet Santa on Saturday!

Photos by Ted and Angela Tyler

Santa Claus waves to the children lining the parade route.

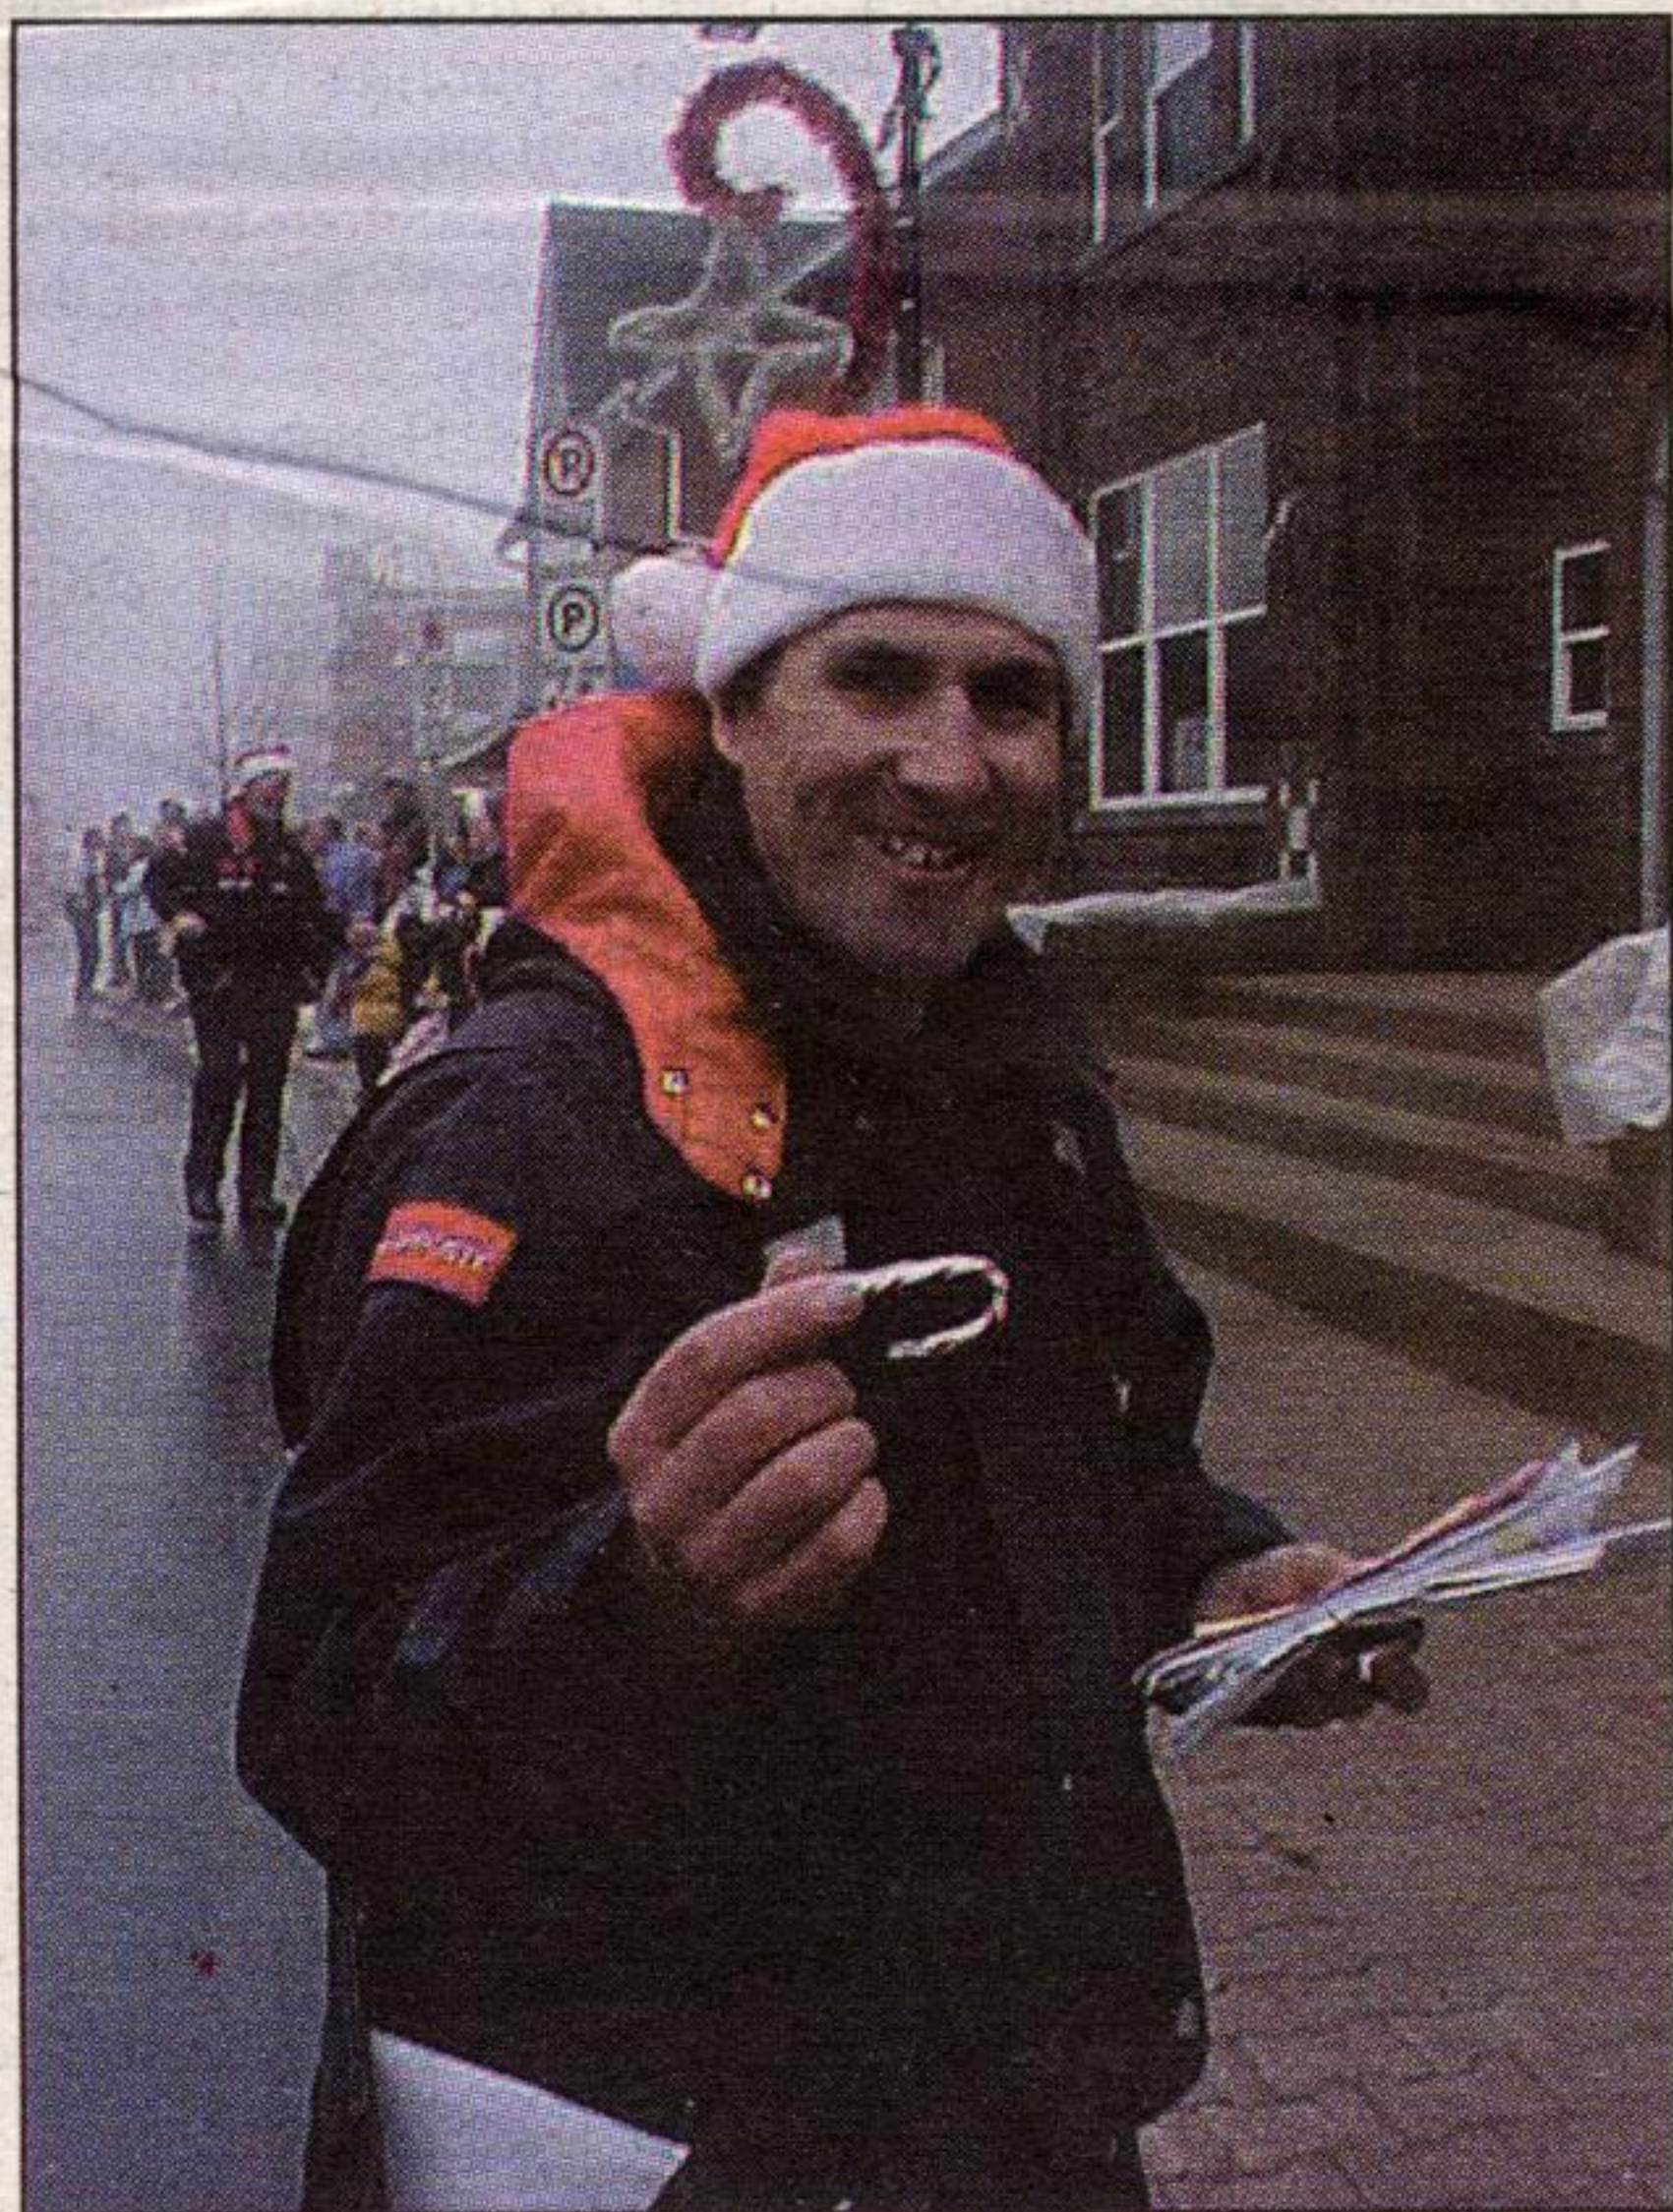

Rain gear was needed for this year instead of snow boots.

It was foggy... but parade was a big HIT!

Georgetown pipe band fills the streets with song.

Postman George Henderson collects letters to Santa from the children.

Princess Fiona joins Little Robert from Robert Little School.

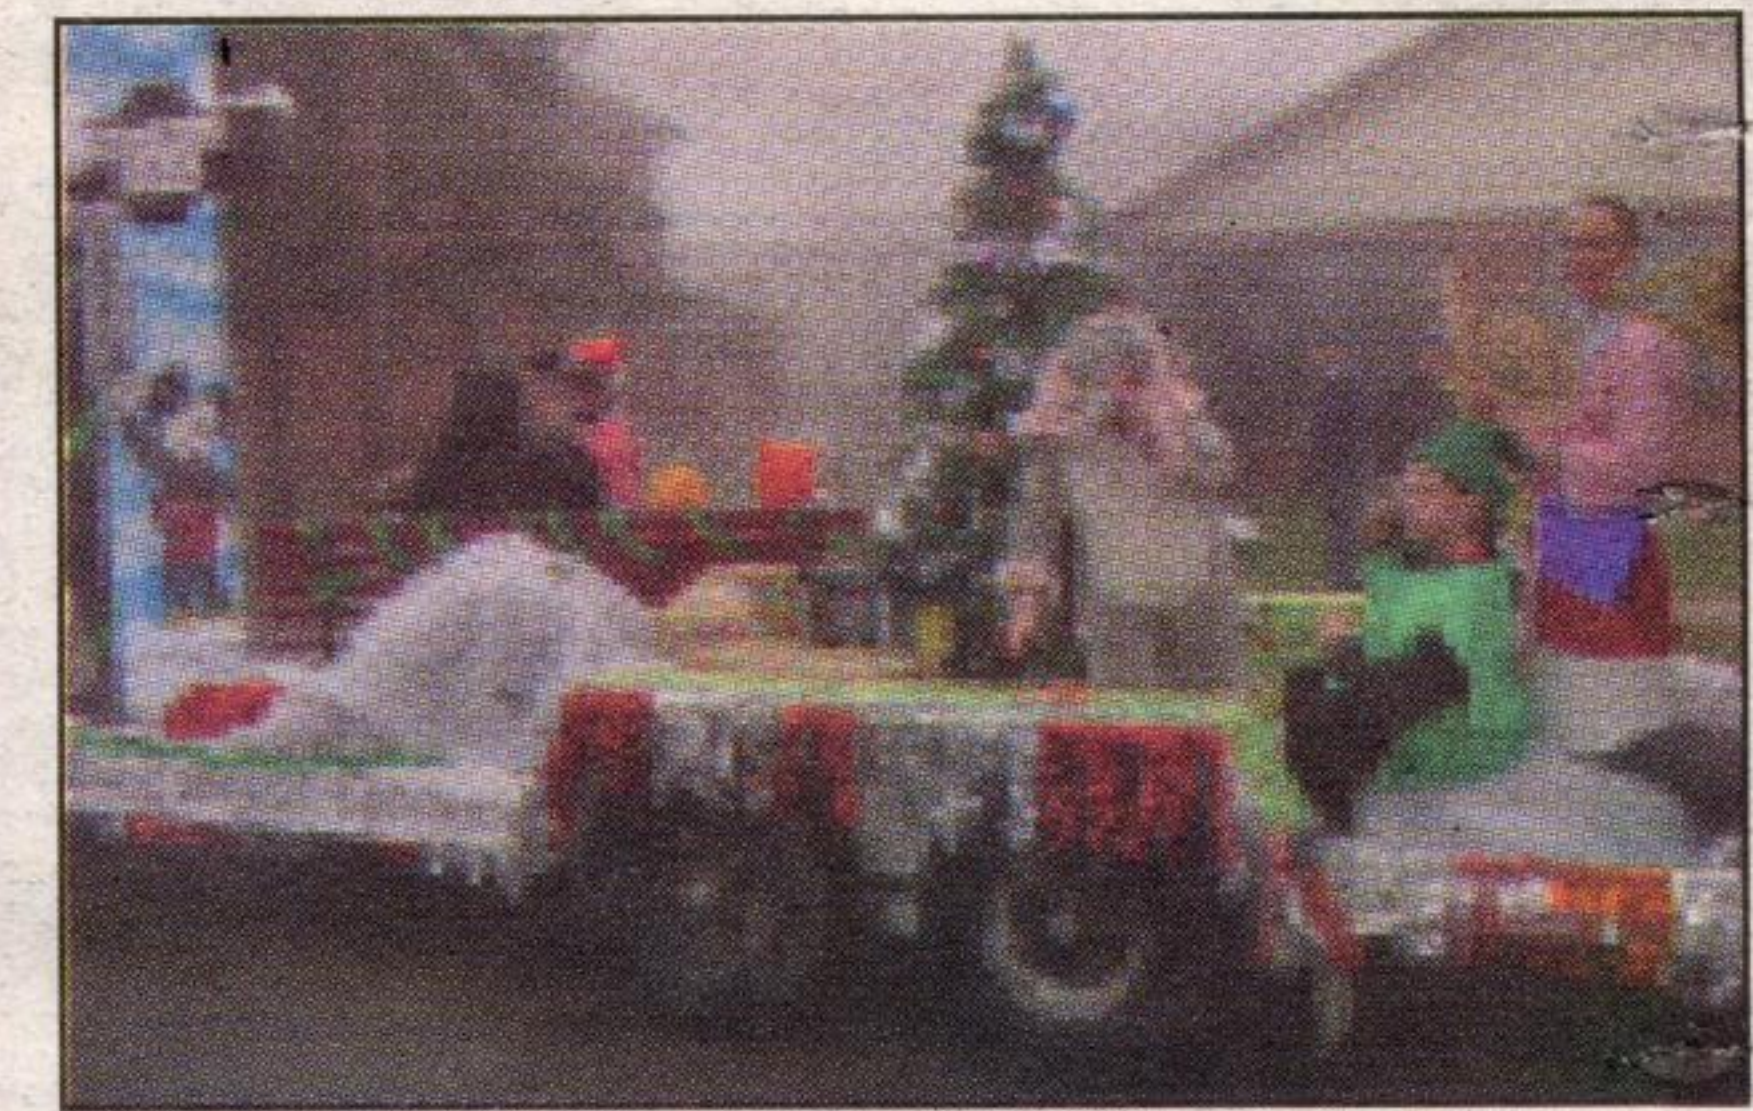

Merrily, merrily, merrily....

Like toy soldiers, the Royallaires alumni lead Santa Claus.

Shriners bring their military like jeeps

Floats of all shapes and sizes participated this year.
