CONSTABLE GEORGE'S CORNER

With Village Constable Garry George

Responsibilities

All to soon the year 2004 is coming to a close. This is a time of year when many people are out visiting, with relatives and friends. Everyone wants to enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I therefore ask that; If you choose to drink alcohol... act responsibility.

DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE

- *To avoid temptation, leave your car at home.
- *Take a taxi, use a designated driver or make arrangements to stay overnight.
- *Homeowner's... You are civilly responsible for all your guests.
- *If someone has been drinking, leaves your home and is involved in an accident, the homeowner can be sued.
- *If you believe someone is driving while impaired, call the police.

DO NOT DRINK AND DRIVE

Act responsibly in everything you do, especially where alcohol is involved. Lets make it a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year for all to enjoy.

On behalf of everyone at Halton Regional Police Service, I wish to thank the "Secret Santa" who, for the second year, has dropped off a bag of Teddy Bears at the Village Constable Office. The Teddy Bears will be distributed by officers, to children involved in stressful situations.

Once again, thank you for your heartfelt donation.
Constable Garry George
