Prominent artists to judge Town's April Juried Art Exhibition

This year's John Sommer Juried Art Exhibition will take place at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre Gallery in conjunction with Halton Hills Arts Week.

The jurors for this year's exhibition are Jonathan Smith, who holds an M.F.A. from the University of Chicago, and is currently the curator of the Burlington Art Centre; Lila Lewis Irving, a prominent Canadian artist, a member of the Ontario Society of Artists, the Canadian Society of Painters in Water Colour, and the Colour and Form Society, and Andrew Benyei, an accomplished Canadian sculptor, a member of the Ontario Society of Artists, the Society of Canadian Artists, and the Sculptor's Society of Canada.

Arts Week is delighted to welcome these talented artists to Halton Hills.

This year, entrants must pre-register their work. Entry forms are available at the office in the Cultural Centre, 9 Church Street, at the Williams Mill Gallery, at the Acton Library, or online at haltonhillsartsweek.com. The completed entry forms should be either mailed or dropped off to Williams Mill Gallery, 515 Main Street, Glen Williams, ON, L7G 3S9, by Sunday, April 10. The Gallery is open Wednesday through Sunday, noon to 5 pm.

Art work must be delivered to the Halton Hills Cultural Centre on Monday, April 18, between 8:30 am and noon. The entry fee remains the same as last year, $10 per piece, maximum 3 pieces-$25 (non-refundable).

Craft and artworks can be in any two or three dimensional media, painting, sculpture, photography, glass, ceramic, fibre, hand-pulled prints. Work must be original (no kits or patterns) and completed within the past year. Two dimensional work must be framed, ready to hang, with eyelets and wire affixed.

Participants must be residents of or have studios in Halton Hills, or be members of Halton Hills organizations.

The exhibition will run from April 19 until May 8. The opening reception will take place on Thursday evening, April 21, from 7 to 9p.m.

Last year about 80 artists submitted work, with almost 200 individual pieces entered. Organizers look forward this year to another successful juried exhibition.

BRANCH No. 197 LEGION NEWS By James Hayes P.R.O.

Comrades:
The date of the March general meeting has been changed to Monday, March 21 at 8p.m., due to the conflict with March break.

Last Wednesday evening the Branch presented awards to the successful students in last November's Remembrance Day Contest.

Gus Jeffrey was joined by his many friends for a farewell social at the Branch on Monday evening. Gus and his wife Donna are moving to the Grand Bend area to live, and we wish them well.

For the last 30 years Gus was a very active member of 197, holding executive positions including Branch President.

Coming events:
The Spring Ham Roll is on Saturday, March 19. Come down and win your Easter dinner.

Yours in comradeship.
