AHS athletes excel at Kingston track, field meet

Four members of the Acton High School track and field team attended the 31st Queen's University Alumni Meet in Kingston on Saturday, April 30 where 53 high schools were represented by 1200 athletes.

Acton's athletes all placed in the top eight in the seven events despite another day of brutal weather and Kaitlyn Andrews also earned the Outstanding Female Field Athlete award.

In the Midget Competition: Matt Bigg placed 6th in the 800 metres at 2 minutes 22.82 seconds and also tied for 6th in the 1500 metres at 4 minutes 48 seconds.

In Junior Competition: Dan Kearns earned a 4th place finish in the Shot Put with a heave of 12.13 metres. Dan also earned an 8th place finish in the Discus with a throw of 34.30 metres. Jaimi Fellows placed 7th in the High Jump making 1.45 metres.

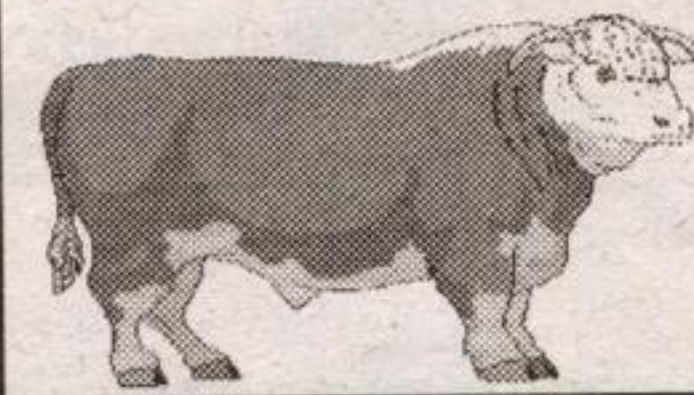

In Senior Competition: Kaitlyn Andrews earned two gold medals - one in the Discus (36.75 metres) and the other in the Shot Put (12.58 metres). These performances also earned Kaitlyn the Courtright Award as the Outstanding Female Field Athlete of the meet.

The next meet for the Acton athletes is at the Cardinal Carter Invitational at Centennial Stadium, Etobicoke, on May 6 and May 7.

Aqua Ducks swim to many medals

Jennifer Kroezen and TJ Waldie blew off some feathers at a Scarborough Swim Club Invitational. Both swimmers missed the High Point awards for their respective age group by one point.

Coach Gerry Ockenden commented that both Jennifer and TJ were so close, however it just was not going to happen that weekend. These types of lessons are not soon forgotten; next time they race they will remember this meet. All was not lost; they managed to fly past their competitors for a collection of five gold, four silver, and one bronze medal and as always, the most important thing was, according to Ockenden, they dropped their times.
