Continued from page 15 Rodda started, but got shaky and Desiray Ebbinge came to help out. Desiray pitched fabulous with 8 strikeouts. Plays were made by Karla McDougall, Katrina Harding, Courtney Brown, Ashley Stokman and Jasmin Jones. Karla McDougall even took a shot off her knee and it went over to Miranda on second, almost getting an eut. Karla was tough and shook it off. Good job, Karla! As for out bats, Ashley Stok-

man was on fire. She got a homer and two other hits after that. Katie Patchett got hit with a pitch her first at bat, but Katie came back determined and whacked the ball hard for a single. Courtney Brown also got a hit. Desiray Ebbinge got two doubles. Kristine Ferris and Miranda Rodda got on base as well. Amanda Battam and Jasmin Jones are both making great efforts and I'm sure, they will be getting homers before we know it.

Grasshopper Ball

Even with ominous clouds overhead, the Grasshoppers braved the elements and played ball Monday evening at Prospect Park. In the lone game, Chudleigh's beat Herbal Magic 8 - 3.

A combination of good hitting, like Michael Allain's triple in the second inning, and fielding, Robby Hopper's quick play at home to stop a run, helped lead Chudleigh's to victory.

RBI's for Chudleigh's came from Chante Burnett (3), Robby Hopper, Ian Early (2), Michael Allain, and Graham Jones.

RBI's for Herbal Magic came from Aron Mersereau, Joshua Whey, and Jessica Pond.

fantastic hitting with singles by Avery Chenier, Mitchell Lauzon and Matthew Diamante. RBIs earned by Logan Stamp with a single, Blake Goldring with a double and Nick Molinaro with a triple.

Errors proved costly when the Blue Jays earned 10 runs to take the lead by 2. Avery Chenier hit a single and advanced to third from a hit by little brother Evan. Reid Stitt made a tremendous hit to bring home the tying and go-ahead run to win the game for Acton Golf Centre 17-16.

In the third and final game of the week Acton Golf Centre defeated Acton Nellis Construction 15-11 when bats continued to produce hits. In the opening inning Kyle Crossman hit a double and advanced to 3rd from a single by Graham Collins. Avery Chenier singled to bring a runner home scoring the first run of the game. Blake Goldring also singled to bring a runner home. Great work by the infield held Nellis Construction scoreless.

Logan Stamp got the scoring started in the 2nd inning. Stamp singled and advanced on a double by teammate Reiley Constable.

Kyle Crossman doubled to right centre to drive in Stamp and Constable. Nellis Construction drove in 3 runs in the 2nd to make it a 3-2 ballgame in favour of Nellis.

Blake Goldring got the scoring started in the 3rd with a single and advanced to 3rd on a double by Matthew Diamante. Nick Molinaro hit his 3rd home run of the season scoring Goldring and Diamante. Nellis scored 5 runs to end the inning.

Golf Centre scored 5 runs in the 4th with a single by Kyle Crossman who advanced to 3rd on a double by Graham Collins. Avery Chenier with a single scored the runners adding 2 runs to the scoreboard. Mitchell Lauzon and Matthew Diamante both singled followed by Nick Molinaro who doubled to bring in 3 more runners.

Nellis scored 3 runs in the next two innings to make 12-11 ballgame.

The scoring in the final inning started with a single by Blake Goldring who then scored from a triple by Mitchell Lauzon. Lauzon was brought home on a single by Matthew Diamante. Nick Molinaro tripled to bring Diamante home and end the scoring for Golf Centre. Acton Golf Centre won 15-11.
