Police/Fire Report

Chimney fire
Flames were shooting out of the chimney at a Hill Street residence when Acton firefighters arrived at the scene at 6:55 on Monday night. The flames were quickly extinguished, and the homeowners advised not to use the chimney again without having it inspected.

Accident help
Acton firefighters helped paramedics extricate a person injured in a single-vehicle accident just after 7 p.m. last Thursday on Highway 25, just south of 10 Side Road. No other details are available.

Kitchen smoke
Acton firefighters were called out, but returned to the station before getting to a residence on 25 Side Road, west of Highway 25, just after 8 p.m. last Thursday when they learned the alarm was false. It had been triggered by smoke from cooking in the kitchen.
