

Halton Police seek thieves in Acton break-in

By SGT. ROD CLIFFE

Special to The Independent/Free Press

By Sgt Rod Cliffe a construction site in Acton was the location for a $3,500 theft in August.

Workers locked up a construction trailer on Queen Street at Wellington at 5:30 p.m. on August 25th. When they returned to work at 7 a.m. the following morning, they found the lock for the overhead door (at the rear of the trailer) had been removed.

Halton Police advise a red and chrome Honda Power generator (model EM3500), wrenches, hammers, shovels, and a pick-axe were stolen from the trailer. Investigators believe two people would be required to lift the generator.

The board of directors raises the money, decides on the amount of the rewards and actually pays the rewards.

INTELLIGENT INVESTING

CARY LEON

A UNIQUE INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITY

Recently, I have had many enquires from investors about a unique investment opportunity. The investment is called "Working Ventures Canadian Fund". This is how it works. New income tax legislation provides two 20% tax credits for investment in labour sponsored investment funds. Working Ventures Canadian Fund is Canada's first national labour sponsored investment fund, sponsored by the Canadian Federation of Labour.

Investors in working ventures can receive a 20% federal tax credit a 20% provincial tax credit and if purchased in a self directed RRSP they will also receive their normal RRSP tax deduction, maximum eligible investment in any one year is $5,000.

Your investment in working ventures will primarily be reinvested in promising growth-oriented businesses in your province. It is the small and medium-size business sector of the economy that has historically created the majority of Canada's new investment opportunities.

While saving taxes and contributing to economic growth are important, it is essential that your investment performs. Working Ventures objective is to produce the superior returns traditionally associated with investment in dynamic and growing businesses, while minimizing risk through prudent development and management of the fund.

Further information on Working Ventures Canadian Fund including a prospectus may be obtained by contacting the author.

Cary Leon & Mike Phillips are a full service financial advisors with First Marathon Securities and can be reached at 855-8266. Call today and inquire about the "NO-FEE" self directed RRSP.
