Raiders gain momentum as playoffs near

Minor Novice

The Georgetown McNally Construction Minor Novice Raiders are undefeated in 1995, grabbing 7 out of 8 points the first week of January.

The Raiders skated to a 2-2 draw with visiting Brantford on January 2. The first period remained scoreless with both teams playing extremely well. The second period belonged to Georgetown with scoring by Colin Lumb assisted by Timmy Walinga and Aaron Kirk and Mark Boycott assisted by Matt Velten and Shaun Dennie. It was Brantford's turn in the third period as they scored twice resulting in a tie.

The next night the Raiders traveled to Hespeler and won 2-1. The scoring was done in the third with Hespeler drawing first blood at 10:26. Walinga tied things up for the Raiders with help from Lumb and Kirk. The game winner was scored at 2:04 by Walinga.

The Raiders gained momentum as the week went on winning back to back games against Dundas on January 5 and 6. The first game was played at Memorial Arena and ended 4-1.

Dundas scored first but Velten tied the game at 7:30 of the second period, unassisted. The Raider turned up the heat in the third scoring three goals. Lumb scored the game winner at 8:49 assisted by Travis Bland. Boycott added two more for insurance with Walinga and Bland assisting.

On Friday night the Raiders weathered the storm and defeated host Dundas 3-2. Once again, Dundas scored first at 8:39 of the second but Dan Slihas quickly tied the game up at 7:11 with a great unassisted effort. Lumb put the Raiders ahead at 6:01 of the third after netting a rebound from the Dundas goalie. Velten and Slihas earned the helpers. Boycott made it 3-1 at 1:12 assisted by Peter Tregunna. Dundas was able to squeeze one by at :01 to end the game 3-2. Also contributing for the Minor Novice Raiders during this busy week were Kevin Field, Graham Knoepfli and Bradley Torres. Great goaltending by Chris McCulloch and Josh Hunt as usual.

Major novice

Loblaws Novice Raiders started the New Year off with a tough game against Dundas that ended in a 2-2 tie.

Georgetown's Gavin Aldridge scored the fist goal at 8:26 of the first period assisted by Daryl Veltman and Jordan Cole. Dundas came back and evened the score before the end of the period. Dundas scored again early in the second period. Georgetown kept playing hard and at 7:18 Bradley Norton scored the tying goal assisted by Steven Kogan and Kyle Kennery. No goals scored in the third period. Great playing by the whole team to start off 1995.

Novice II

The Georgetown Referees Association

Novice BB Raiders are becoming a force to be reckoned with!

The Raiders lost a 1-0 nail-biter to Milton recently, then the Raiders demonstrated solid work ethic and good team play as they were edged out 3-2 by a strong Fergus squad. Joel Hamilton whistled one past the goalie for Georgetown's first goal. Thomas Elinesky and Mike Zelek combined to feed Hamilton who popped in the second goal.

Alex Barkhouse and Sean Graham stood out on defense while Daniel Cammick continued his impressive play between the pipes.

Minor Atom

On January 6 the John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom Raiders participated in a "AA" tournament in Newmarket and fell just short of advancing to the semi-finals.

The Raiders were explosive in their first game of the tourney, shutting out Markham 7-0. Blake Corrin started things off for Georgetown at 3:31 of the first period assisted by Linemates Rusty Parsons and Billy McDonald. Andrew McGourty, Dan Walinga and Corrin did the damage in the second period adding another 3 goals. Assisting were Kevin Oulds, Corrin, Jeff Boyce (2), and McGourty. The Raiders didn't let up in the third scoring 3 more. Corrin completed a well-deserved hat-trick with help from McDonald. Matt Knoepfli was next in line assisted by Vince Burke. McDonald netted the 7th Georgetown goal with 1:36 remaining in the game. Corrin and Parsons combined for the assists. Donnie Lane claimed another shut-out between the pipes.

The next game had the Raiders against the powerful Scarborough Young Bruins who dominated the tournament. Although the Raiders were defeated 4-1, they played a great game and gave the Bruins a tough time. Brett Velten scored the lone goal after he took a pass from Walinga and beat the Scarborough defence-men and goaltender. Kevin Bokowski made some great stops in net to keep this game close.

In game 3 the Raiders lost a 1-0 heart-breaker to Owen Sound. Owen Sound took an early lead and although Georgetown played hard, they couldn't beat the netminder and narrowly missed advancing. Also contributing for the Raiders were Thomas Stokes, Scott Rostrup and Brent Beaumont.

Major Atom

The Georgetown PDS Raiders Raiders traveled to Burlington Thurs. Jan. 5 to hand the competition a resounding 6-0 defeat as Chris Henderson earned another shut out.

It was an excellent display of team and positional play with good passing, and, of course, great goal scoring. Raiders goals were scored by: Mansfield 2, Hotham, Pike, Busby and Fantegrossi with assists going to Busby, Durham, Field, Fantegrossi, McCulloch (2) for a final of 6-0.

Atom II

It was a rough start to the New Year for the Atom II Raiders. The Raiders squad suffered an 8-0 loss to Acton on Jan. 4. The Acton Sabres netted 3 quick goals in the first. The second period had Acton overpowering the Raiders to keep a steady pace and gain 5 more. The Raider squad picked up some steam in the third to keep the frame scoreless.

The BDO Atom II Raiders had a great showing in the Waterloo Tourney Jan. 7.

The Raiders first game had them matched against Stroud. Andrew Slihas was first on the scoreboard controlling the play form centre ice to skate through his opponents to rifle it in - unassisted.

The second period had Stroud taking the lead early in the frame netting goals at 9:49 and 7:08. Thomas Temple played solid to put the Raiders at a tie. Andy Burns made a fantastic pass to help Temple close the period at a 2-2 score.

Kyle Findlay played hard in the third to blast one by and put the Raiders ahead with Andy Burns netting the assist. Stroud manages to squeeze one by to increase the pressure for the Raiders at 5:37. Andy Burns rushed in to claim the game winner potting it in the top hand corner at 1:41. Raiders victorious 4-3. Burns showed a strong performance to claim MVP.
