Fichaud appointed superintendent

Trustees of the Halton Roman Catholic School Board, at the January 17, Special Meeting of the Board, approved the appointment of Brian Fichaud, Principal of Holy Rosary School, Burlington, as Superintendent of Education (English Language Section) with duties to commence March 13.

Fred Sweeney, Director Of Education, said "Mr. Fichaud's strong commitment to Catholic Education in Halton coupled with his extensive experience in leadership and administration at the school, system and provincial levels will enable him to complement our Senior administration team with his own positive and dynamic style. I welcome Brian to our senior administration team, and look forward to working with him in the fulfillment of the vision of Catholic education in Halton."

community and management expertise. He has served as a vice-principal at eight Board elementary schools from 1966-1995. Brian has been active within the Elementary panel during this time as President of the O.F.C.T.A. Unit in 1981, Secretary of the Teacher-Trustee Committee and Chair of the collective agreement bargaining committee to name a few. He has chaired over 20 System committees and demonstrated initiative and leadership in the Summer School program, as an instructor with O.I.S.E.'s Principal Certification course and the implementation of the Board's Strategic Plan.

Fichaud's background and contributions to the Board reflect his commitment to effecting positive change and making a real difference for the students, staff and Catholic community within Halton.

Brian, a former Milton resident, has lived in Burlington for the past 21 years and is a member of the Holy Rosary Roman Catholic Church in Burlington. He is married and has 2 children.

Colbran to receive Halton award

It has been announced that Carl Colbran, our Head of Guidance at GDHS, will be one of ten Halton teachers to receive the Halton Award for Creativity in Education.

Carl was nominated by members of his department for his leadership in the development of programs that help students to make informed and responsible choices.

Under Carl's leadership there has been an increased focus on preparing students for post-secondary education and future careers. As well, Grade 9 students have received valuable peer support through programs facilitated by the Guidance staff.

This is the third time in five years that a GDHS teachers has received this prestigious award.

Dog 'gone' it

This beagle was found wandering around the yard at Terra Glen Animal Hospital on the Tenth Line last week. The dog, a one-and-a-half year old intact male, was not wearing a collar and had no markings or tattoos. The owner of the dog is asked to call the clinic. If he is not claimed he will be available for adoption. Terra Glen's 24 hour phone number is 873-1354.
