1995 WINTER/SPRING PROGRAMS

WILDERNESS SURVIVAL IN WINTER

Sunday, January 29, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Cost: $10.00 per person

Suitable for adults and children (8 years and older)

This outdoor workshop will teach you some valuable survival skills. In winter, the greatest challenge for all living creatures is to stay warm. You will learn how to construct different snow shelters, make fires, and learn emergency first aid. Map and compass training will round out a very busy day.

THE BIRDS OF WINTER

Sunday, February 12, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Cost: $5.00 per adult and $3.00 per child

Suitable for adults and children (8 years and older)

Accompany a staff member on a winter hike around the forested Conservation Area property. We'll check out the local winter bird population and discover some survival tactics used by these feathered friends to survive the bitter cold. Binoculars will be provided, if needed.

In 1995, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority is presenting a series of Sunday programs at Terra Cotta Conservation Area. The programs are either full day or half day events and most are suitable for both children and adults; appropriate age levels are listed in the program descriptions. A few programs are offered on both Saturday and Sunday. All programs start from the Visitor Centre in the Terra Cotta Conservation Area. For information, call (905) 670-1615, ext. 264 or 1-800-668-5557, ext. 264.
