How to capture all your wedding memories

One of the most frequently heard complaints uttered by the more than 2.5 million couples who get married each year is, "Things happened so quickly I hardly even remember my own wedding!" That's why photography is so important.

Next to the bride and groom, the most important person at the wedding is often the photographer. To help ensure wedding memories are recorded for years to come, Eastman Kodak Company offers the following tips:

- Going to the Chapel — Some of the best memories happen even before "the big day." The bride trying on veils, the flower girl rehearsing her part, the groom at his bachelor party. To make sure these spontaneous moments are recorded, delegate attendants as official record keepers. Arm them with Kodak Fun Saver 35 single-use cameras and let them snap away.

- Bridal Shower Blues — Sure, the bridal shower is fun, but what's a girl to do when it's time to send out thank-you notes and she can't remember which guest gave which crystal wine decanter? As each gift is opened, have the maid of honor snap a shot of the bride with the gift and the guest who gave it. The benefits: no gift confusion; it's easier than writing everything down; and with a quick note scrawled on the back, the photos serve as great thank-you cards.

- Get the Guests Involved — One of today's biggest wedding trends is for brides to place single-use cameras on tables, inviting guests to capture candid moments. Kodak recently introduced the Kodak Fun Saver wedding party pack containing five single-use cameras. Each camera is designed with elegant, floral and lace graphics and has 12 exposures.

- Work With Your Photographer — Even the best professional wedding photographers can't record the memories unless you work with them. Before the hectic big day, plan to meet with your photographer to discuss the style of photos you want, who is important to photograph, etc.

- Let Your Photographer Have Fun! — Of course you'll want posed wedding portraits, but give your photographer the flexibility and encouragement to have fun experimenting with candid situations. So often, these shots conjure up the best and funniest memories of the wedding.

- The Honeymoon Doesn't Have to End — Make your wedding day live on by using photos creatively. There are dozens of great ways to use the pictures guests took with single-use cameras. Consider using these candid shots as thank-you notes, for scrapbooks, home decorating, etc. Additionally, friends and family will love receiving framed enlargements of special wedding photos that include them.

New bridesmaids' strides....

Attendants' dresses are more fashion-conscious than ever before. Many designers are modeling their creations after ready-to-wear and evening wear fashions, increasing their wear-again potential.

Bride's magazine reports some of the newest trends:

- Sister styles — maid-of-honor's and bridesmaids' dresses that are complementary but not identical.
- Voluminous skirts — especially those made of tulle.

- Evening wear elegance — ballgown skirts, sheaths, long-over-short combinations.

- Lipstick colors for evening — pink, red, fuchsia, purple and other passionate shades abound. Color is definitely back.

- Black — as an accent or mixed with another color and navy for evening drama.

- Flattering fabrics that float, swing or drape. Choose from taffeta, satin organza, chiffon, crepe, linen, stretch tulle.
