

Georgetown bowlers off to provincials

Georgetown bowlers set another tournament mark. In the Zone championships of the "Dairy Queen" Kids and Golden Age National Championships, two local Georgetown teams fought for the win, with one of these teams of the young and young at heart tourney capturing the championship by coming from behind. After the first game, the local team of Amy Lynn Inscoc, Sara Scuralli, Joan Archibald, Mary Beal with coach-chaperone Debbie Hole were tops with plus 74 and the second Georgetown team in third with a plus 52 while Welland No. 2 in second with a plus 69. After the second game, Hamilton moved into first with a plus 159, Georgetown No. 1 slipped to second with a plus 130 and Georgetown No. 2 still in third with a plus 111. However, after the final game, Hamilton dropped to third with plus 137; Georgetown No. 1 dropped to fourth place with a plus 128, Welland No. 2 jumped back into second position with a plus 161 while Georgetown No. 2 vaulted into first place with a plus 182. The Acton contingent of Kylie Kruk, Amanda Johnson, Betty Bousfield, Kathleen Kulk, with coach-chaperone Barb Dance also competed. The Georgetown Pacer team of Sonia Moreland, Heather Foster, Marie Stansell, Joan Staple, and coach-chaperone Dave Moreland whose score of plus 50 had them in fifth standing. Others competing in the tourney were Uxbridge, Markham, Scarborough, Welland, Brampton, Hamilton and Georgetown. The Zone Champs are Stephanie Palichuk, Amanda Hole, Mabel Hives, Freddie Goudy with coach-chaperone Carolyn Lane. These zone champs will now head to the Provincial Championships to be held in Wallaceburg, Feb. 18 and 19, with eyes on a trip to the National Championships in Surrey, British Columbia.

Split decisions

The Halton Sentrex Minor Novice Hurricanes lost on the road, and won at home last week. The Hurricanes traveled to Brampton on Jan. 21 and despite outshooting the Maroons in the third fell to a 3-1 decision. Halton's lone goal scorer was Dylan Stawarek, assisted by Robert Sgarbossa. On Monday, Chinguacousy fell to the Hurricanes 4-2 in Milton. Matt Bronizewski (2), Robert Sgarbossa and Jonathon Southgate scored for Halton while Trevor Pletz, Dylan Stawarek (2), Jason Vieira (2), Tyler Holmes and Jay Sprague earned assists.

Streak snapped

The Acton Firefighter Bantam Sabres had their three-game unbeaten streak snapped Saturday night with a 10-2 pounding by New Hamburg in pre-playoff exhibition action. Jon Routledge scored both goals for Acton while Phil McIntyre, Derrick McIntyre and Nick Van Egmond drew assists.

Tight race

A tight race is heating up in North Halton girls basketball action, as Centennial, Stewarttown and W.I. Dick all sport 3-1 records for a three-way tie for first place. W.I. Dick beat Sam Sherratt 49-24 and Centennial 28-26 (in overtime) last week, while Centennial got past McKenzie-Smith 39-26 and Stewarttown scored a 30-8 victory over Brookville and a 41-24 win over Sherratt.

In other girls' action, the 2-2 McKenzie-Smith Mustangs beat winless Brookville 47-13.

In boys' action, the Mustangs lead the pack with a perfect 4-0 showing, after beating Centennial 40-32 and Brookville 46-32. Centennial took down W.I. Dick 64-44 to stay just one game off the leaders while Stewarttown caught up with Sherratt for third after two straight wins last week.

W.I. Dick is 1-3 and the Brookville boys are also winless.

Taking aim!

Acton Precision Millwright Midget Sabres forward Jason Pemberton tries unsuccessfully to put one through the five-hole on the Fergus netminder during opening round action in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoffs.

Acton won the opening game of the best-of-five handily, scoring an 11-3 win. Game two is slated for the Acton Community Centre on Monday night. For complete Tri-county Hockey League standings see page 10.

Halton novices move up AAA ladder

The Halton Flux Cored Novice Hurricanes have moved into second place recently, winning two of three games in local hockey play.

Most recently, the 'Canes claimed a 2-0 shutout over Brampton - their first win against the club this season.

Scoring were John Moxham and Adam Kemp while assists went to Peter Schultz, Danny Syvret and Andy Alarie.

A great team effort by Halton helped them score a lopsided 7-1 verdict over Burlington, with Derek Greaves leading the way with a hat-trick and one assist.

Alarie tallied twice while teammates Jeff Pazner and Tyler Czuba picked up singles. Kemp collected three assists while Todd Gilmore and Syvret had two helpers each.

The 'Canes also took a 1-0 loss to Streetsville recently. Despite outshooting their opponents 36-6, Halton fell to Streetsville for the first time in two years.

Hurricanes end slump

The Halton Leaver Mushroom Hurricane Midgets have rebounded in recent league and tournament play and have hopefully ended a mid-season slump.

Following three straight losses the crew Halton ended its winless skid with a 6-6 tie against rival Burlington. Scoring for Halton was by Tom Baynton 2, Kyle Martin, Janjevich, Jeff Haydar and Steve Roy, with assists from Roy 2, Janjevich 2, Baynton and Trevor Kuhn.

In the Peterborough Tournament the team played its best games of late.

The first game against Burlington went 3-2 in Halton's favour. Garry McNiven, Haydar and Kuhn scored for Halton with assists by Haydar, Loader, Baynton and Roy. Halton came out on the short end of a 3-2 score against Welland in their second contest. The Canes goals were scored by McPhail and Loader with assists from Baynton and Roy.

Next the Canes played excellent hockey against Brockville, prevailing 4-1 on scores by Roy 2, Loader and McNiven. Kuhn 2, McPhail, Curtis Carr and Loaders picked up the assists.

The victory allowed them to advance to the quarter finals against York Simcoe. The opposition skated to a 5-0 victory while outshooting Halton 38 to 10.

Following the tournament the Canes continued with some excellent skating and play making and trounced Brampton 7-1.

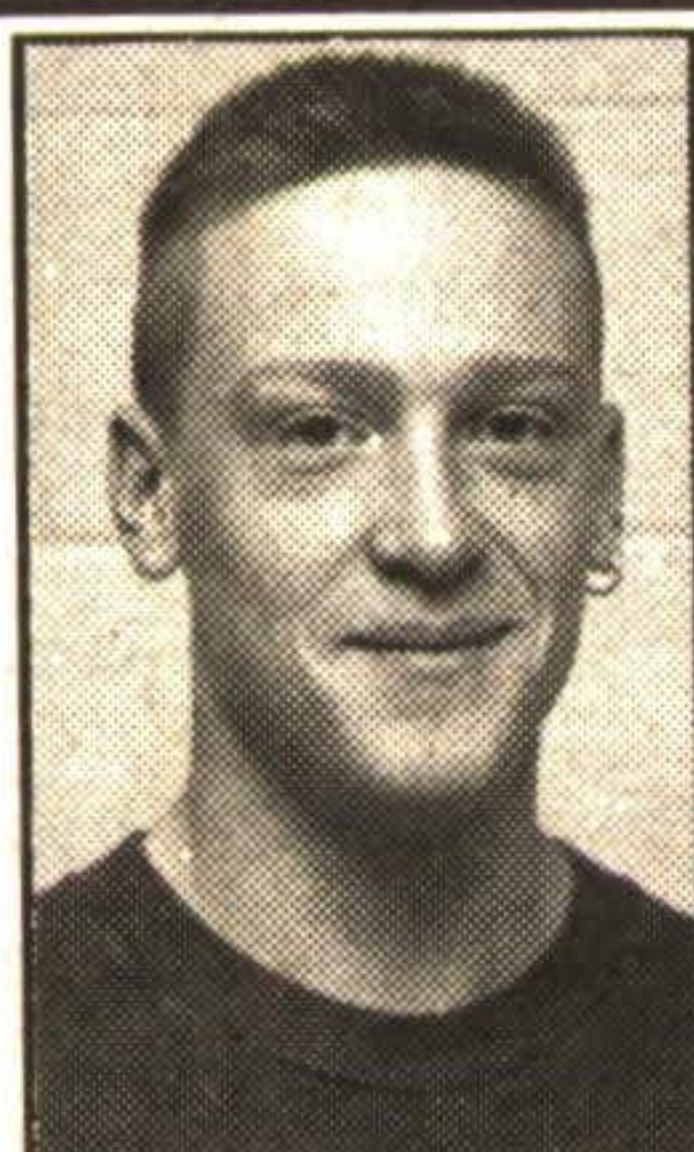

The Halton scoring onslaught was provided by Baynton 2, McNiven 2, Martin 2, David Sa and Janjevich with assists going to Roy 3, Janjevich 2, Kuhn 2, Sa, Haydar, McPhail and Baynton.

The win puts Halton in third in league standings.
