Minor atoms down Stoney Creek in playoff action

Minor Atom

The first place Smith Division John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom Raiders defeated Stoney Creek in the first round of OMHA Playdowns.

The Raiders and Stoney Creek skated to a 1-1 draw in Game 1, playing 4 periods of tough hockey. Stoney Creek opened the scoring at 9:00 of the first period.

Kevin Oulds rifled one by the Stoney Creek netminder at 10:04 of the third frame to tie the game. Andrew McGourty earned the assist. With the game tied at tied at the end of regulation time, overtime began. Goaltending was excellent by Donnie Lane and his Stoney Creek opponent and both teams had to settle for 1 point each in this 4 point series.

The Raiders traveled to Stoney Creek for game two and claimed a 5-1 victory.

Rusty Parsons got things started for Georgetown at 6:44 of the first assisted by Vince Burke. Burke made a nice play to set up Oulds for the second goal at 2:36. The Raiders scored three times in the second period to put the game out of reach.

Dan Walinga netted two goals and McGourty bent the twine with a single marker. Matt Knoepfli, Thomas Stokes, Jeff Boyce and Oulds worked hard for the assists. Kevin Bokowski was solid in Georgetown net.

Game 3 was a nailbiter at Memorial Arena with the Raiders netting an empty-netter for a 3-2 overtime win. Stoney Creek needed a win to force game 4, so they pulled their goalie in the last minute of overtime.

Stoney Creek scored first at 6:49 of the first period. Knoepfli tied the game at :27 of the second when he deflected a shot from the point by Burke. Walinga also nabbed an assist.

Stoney Creek quickly took the lead again at 14:47 of the third. Stokes potted a rebound at 2:09 to force overtime.

Stokes scored in the empty net with 10 seconds remaining to secure a berth in the second round of OMHA playoffs, with help from Walinga.

Midget

The Georgetown Sunny Acre

Farms Midget regular season ended in Stoney Creek on Jan. 17 on a losing note. The Midget Rep team coached by Mike Sheutz and Tony Sheppard had a respectable season, though a losing one.

Veteran players included Andrew Craig, Trevor Crane, Dave Boere, Jaimie Bottomley, Marc Boucher, Steve Heinz, Kevin Lumb, Scott Truman, and Dave Welburn. First year players included Cory Coish, Eric Downey, Andy Jackman, Mark Misko, Steve Sheppard, Mike Silvello, and Shane Tompson. Alternate players included Steve Gibbons and Brian Martin.

This year's season was at times rough and tumble and at times classic hockey. Dave Boere and Dave Welburn led most attacks on the opposing nets. Marc Boucher provided excellent up front speed, bursting through many opponents with his skating skills. The team lacked a proven scorer, but all contributed to the goals. Andrew Craig and Steve Heinz splitting goaltending, kept goals against at most times low.

The season consisted on 28 regular games in the circuit of Woolwich, Owen Sound, Brantford, Flamboro, Stoney Creek, Guelph and Hespeler.

Highlights included the Meaford tournament. The team played good hockey with a tough overtime loss and the come from behind tie with Hespeler.

The late season bus trip to Owen Sound boosted the morale and team unity. The last Owen Sound game was especially rough, with many penalties, and a few fights, Georgetown losing 6-1.

Injuries were few with one exception, speedster Marc Boucher was knocked into the post from behind and damaged ligaments behind his knee. and will be out for some time. Rookies Mark Misko, Mike Silvello and Steve Sheppard were tried on a line. Team captain Kevin Lumb provided leadership to the defense players: Trevor Crane, Mark Misko, Shane Tompson, and Scott Truman. Forward lines were mixed and matched to find the best combinations.

The season in all was a learning experience for everyone. Coaches Mike Sheutz and Tony Sheppard kept the team in all games, even if down by a few goals.

Playoff rounds started Sun. Jan.

21 against Guelph. Georgetown lost the opener of the best of three series, but the Royal City crew had to work overtime to eliminate Georgetown in game two of the four point series.
