Peacekeepers' reputation must be preserved

The following letter to MP Julian Reed was filed with this newspaper for publication.
 Dear Mr. Reed:
 Subject: military behavior

While watching the news this morning, I was appalled to witness deplorable behavior by a group of young soldiers. I am talking about the home video of hazing involving consumption of vomit and feces by drunken recruits.

This is disgusting and sub-human behavior. Drunkenness is not a defence for this type of behavior. What is the military teaching our young people?

Canada's Peacekeepers used to be respected. However, after seeing this video and the incident involving the beating death of the Somali youth, I don't see how Canada can be taken seriously, let alone be respected.

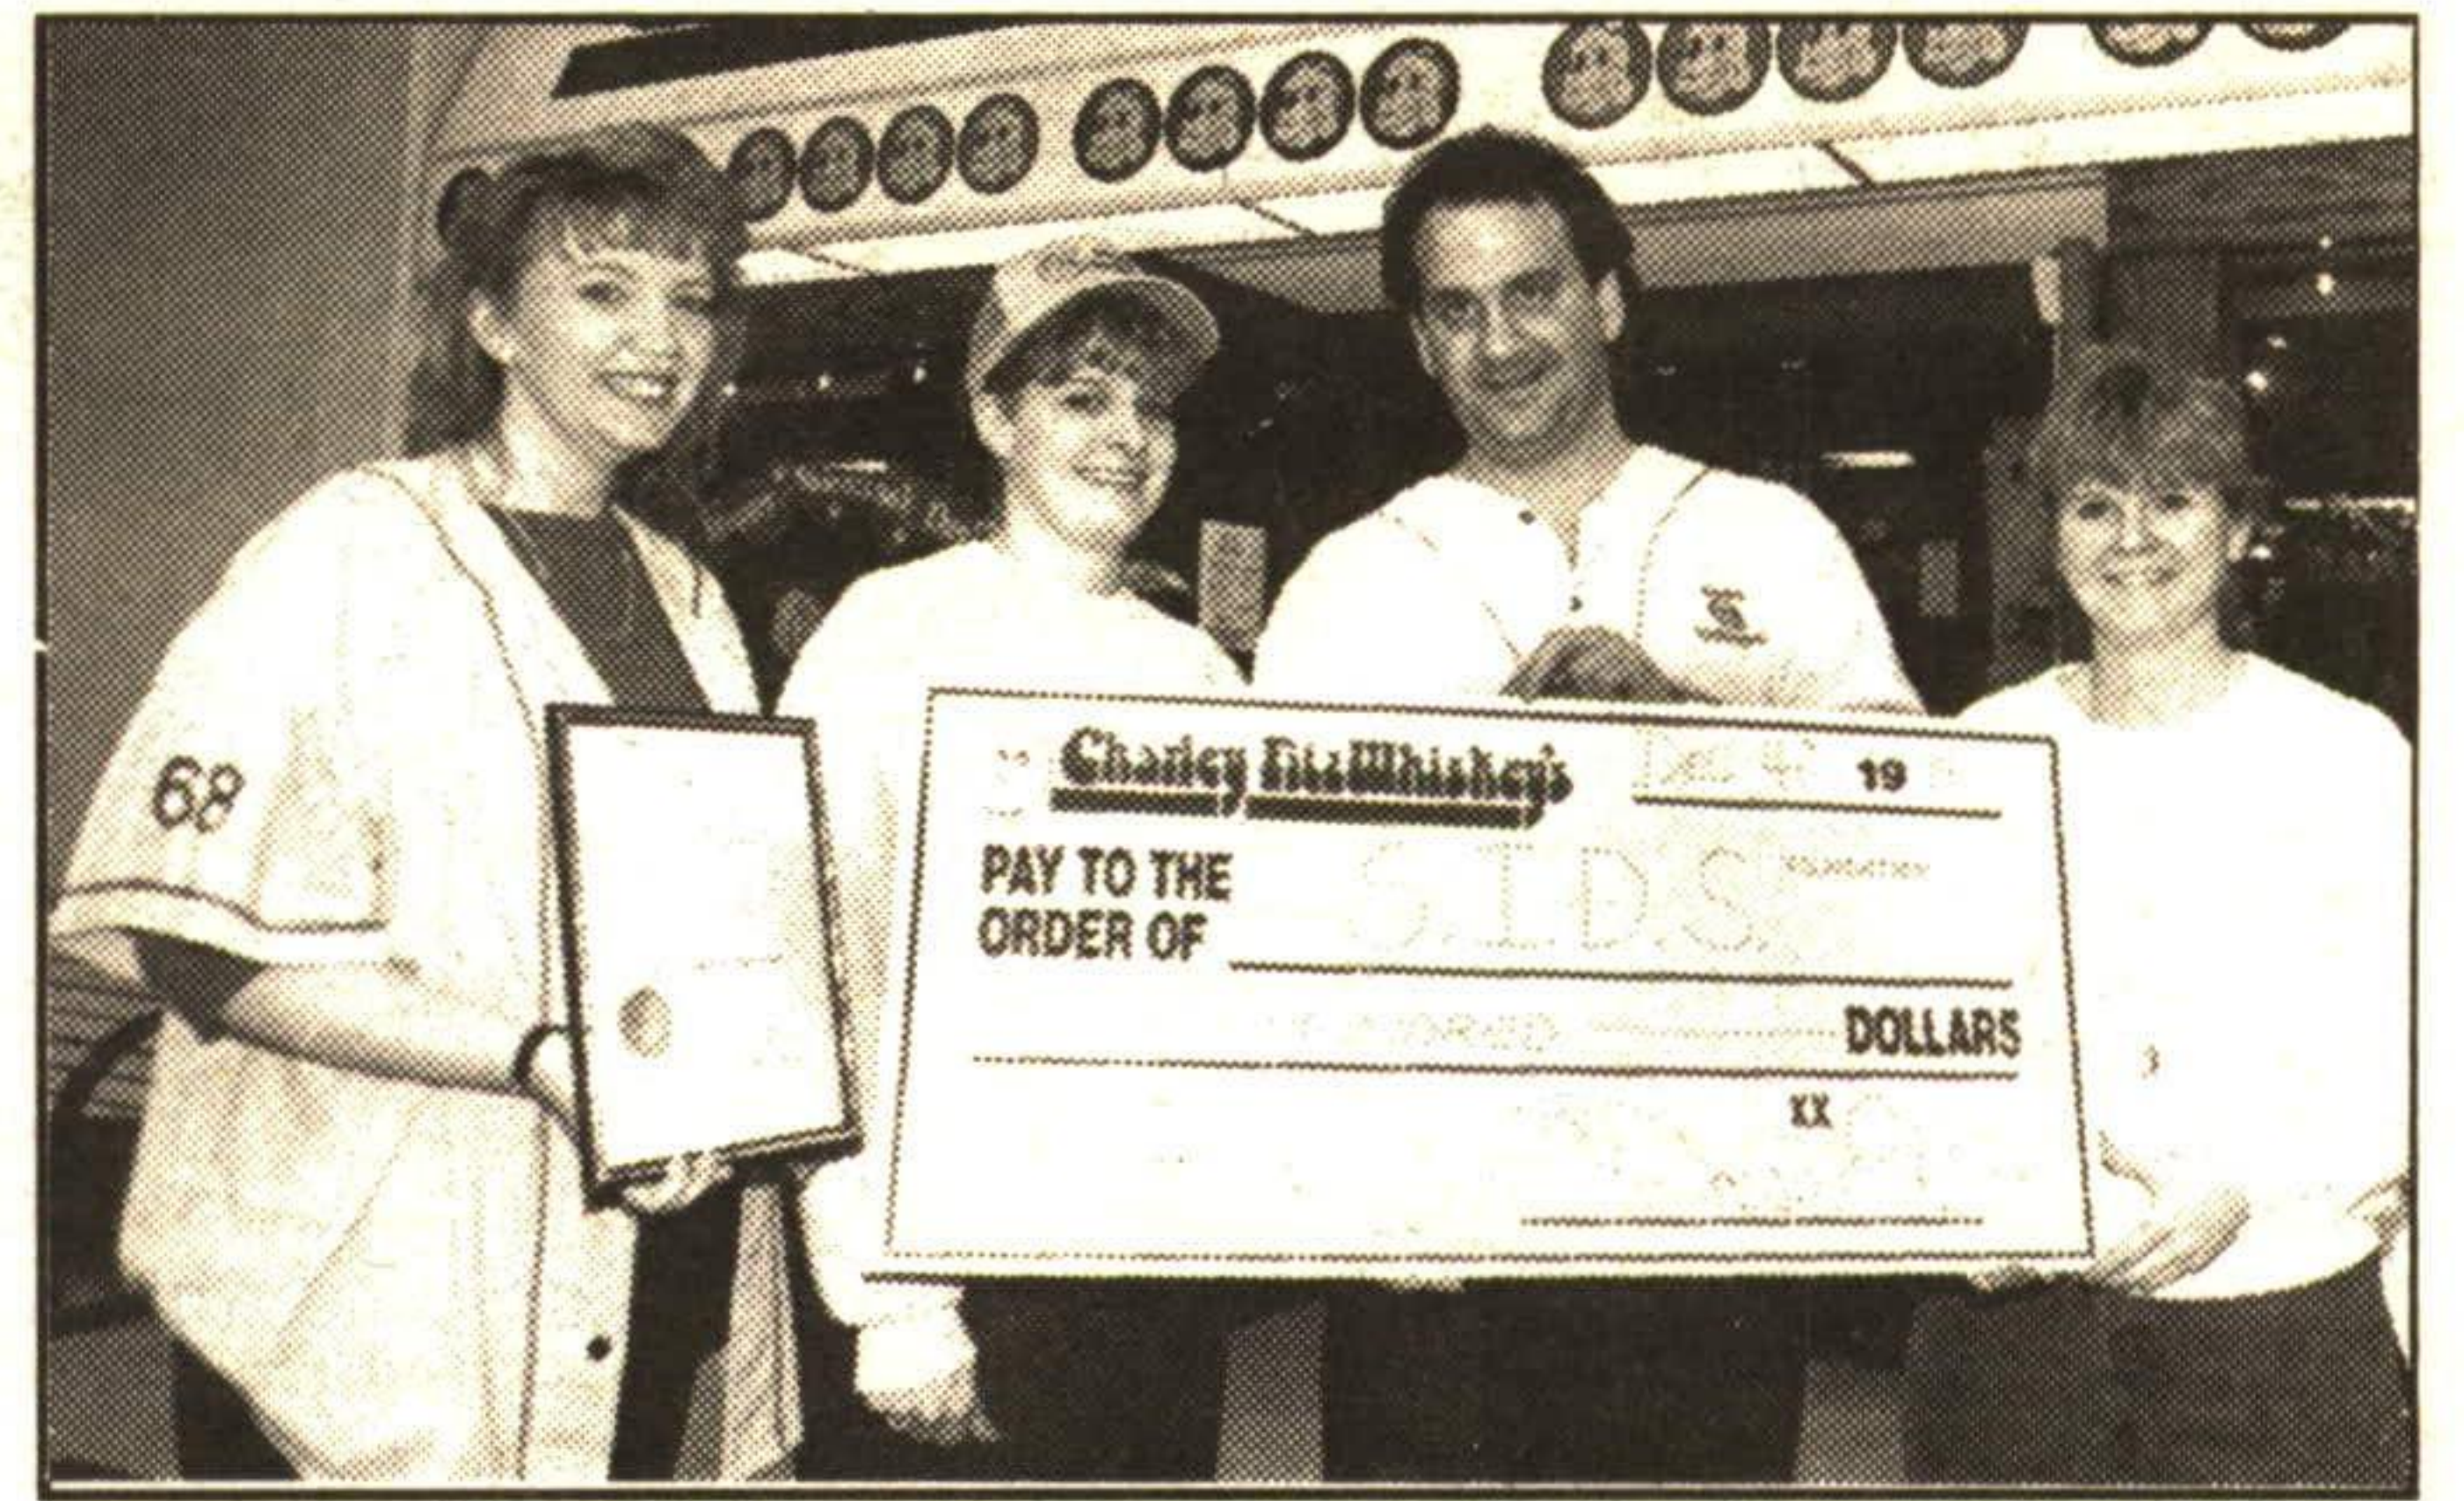

The military should represent Canada's finest, however, if this is Canada's finest I would hate to see Canada's worst.

I understand there is to be an inquiry into this matter. Let's hope this will not be another waste of taxpayers' money.

We must take a stand and let the world know this is not the true Canada and try to preserve the Canadian Peacekeeper reputation as much as possible. This can be accomplished by prosecuting the people responsible for the indignities suffered by the young men in this video and make an example out of them.

I trust appropriate steps will be taken to keep animals like these from representing Canada.

The Canadian Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation recently received a cheque for $2,200 from the staff and management of Charley Fitzwhiskey's Tap and Eatery in the mall. The funds were raised by holding a Breakfast with Santa Claus. On hand for the presentation were (from left) employees Tammy Switzer and Joanna Quinn, owner Dave Eisen and Karen Moore, fundraising coordinator for the Toronto chapter of the SIDS Foundation.

Students compile smokers survey

Dear editor:

We were hoping that you could help us with our project. Our project is called Smokers.

We are going to ask everybody that smokes in Georgetown: why they smoke?; what is the reason for smoking?; and, how many people in their family smoke that live in Georgetown?

The only problem is that we can't call everyone to ask these questions.

That's why we wrote this

A good deed is recognized

Dear editor:

Many thanks to the person who left no name after handing in the money which I inadvertently left in the CIBC autoteller following a letter because we were hoping that you could help us by putting this questionnaire in the newspaper.

Dear Smokers of Georgetown:

Why do you smoke?

What is the reason for it?

Please put your answers down and the number of Georgetown people that smoke in your family and send it to 34 Metcalfe Crt. Georgetown ON L7G 4N9.

momentary distraction.

That honest deed really made my day.

Thanks also to the manager and staff for their kind attention.

CHANGES WITH PROLONGED DENTURE WEAR

The denture is the most abused prosthetic aid to our well being. They are mixed up with old sets, worn ill matched, broken and stuck together incorrectly, worn in two or three pieces, flushed down toilets, lost at sea, thrown at immovable objects, eaten by dogs, stamped on and used for whittling by retirees!

The emergence on the scene in the recent years of the "Denture Therapist" has meant a closer and a more individual concept of patient-professional relationship. With this individual attention, fewer dentures will finish up in the bottom drawer.

PROPER FIT

At the first sign of ill-fitting dentures you should have them checked. If your denture is loose and falls down it could be a number of things. Your gums may have shrunk. Your bite may have changed. A denture that doesn't touch or "come together" correctly when biting may become dislodged. (Filling your dentures with gels or quick set plastic to secure them is a temporary solution that could give you a permanent problem). If your dentures are not fitting or not looking as good as they should, give our office a call for a no charge check-up/consultation.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR SMILE!
