

Rebels pin down gold at Montreal meet

Georgetown District High School's wrestling team continued their championship season last Saturday, January 28th, when they turned in an outstanding performance at a tournament in Montreal.

A total of 200 wrestlers from Ontario, Quebec, the North West Territories and New Brunswick competing at the tournament - with all 17 GDHS grapplers finishing in the top six spots.

Finishing first in the novice division were Jason Estevan and Robert Larose while Mike Egerton, Bill Stokes and Mitch Dodd won their weight classes in the open division.

Stewarttown's Mike Hall also made the trip up and scored gold in the peewee division.

Second place showings went to Topher Baker and Chris Hall in the novice competition and Danny Hope and Ken Armstrong in the open.

Sean Hardcastle (novice) and Jason Titus (open) turned in third place efforts. Bryan Foster (novice) and Brian Porter (open) wrestled to fourth place finishes.

Claiming fifths were John Burt (novice) and Nick Baker (open).

Matt Edwards placed sixth in the open division of the competition.

"They didn't have a team trophy, but if they did we certainly would have won it," said head coach Jim Hall.

Leading the way

Centennial and Stewarttown continue to lead the way in North Halton Girls Basketball play.

Both teams took a pair of wins to up their records to 5-1. Meanwhile, W.I. Dick is right on their heels with a 4-2 record.

McKenzie-Smith is playing .500 ball with a 3-3 record.

The Centennial boys are also in top spot, in a first-place tie with McKenzie-Smith - who each sport 5-1 records. Stewarttown is tied for third spot.

The Georgetown McNally Construction minor novice Raiders made the most of their trip to Windsor last weekend, earning championship honors in the tourney they attended. Tim Walinga's goal in overtime gave the Raiders a 1-0 win over Dundas.

Raiders claim tourney crown

The Georgetown McNally Construction Minor Novice Raiders made the most of the long drive to Windsor last weekend as they emerged victorious in tourney action.

The Raiders kept the spectators on the edges of their seats as Tim Walinga scored the tourney winner at 47 seconds of overtime giving Georgetown a 1-0 win over rival Dundas in the championship game.

The Raiders got off to a slow start in the event, losing to Dundas 2-1. They rebounded to post a 5-4 win over Belle River and then shut-out Cambridge 4-0 to fight their way back to the championship game.

Dan Sliasis scored in the 2-1 loss while Sliasis, Ryan Field (2), Mark Boycott and, Aaron Kirk netted the twine in the 5-4 win. Matt Velten and Field led the attack with a pair of goals each setting up the rematch with Dundas in the final.

Firefighters ousted in semi-final

Despite a solid performance at last weekend's Pickering Tournament, the Acton Firefighter Bantam Sabres were edged out in the semi-finals.

The Sabres were nipped 4-3 by Newmarket in the semis Sunday afternoon. Having lost a 4-2 decision to Acton earlier in the tournament, Newmarket managed a little revenge in eliminating the Sabres.

Brian McIntyre netted a pair in the semis while Sean Durkin potted the single.

In their win over Newmarket, Derrick McIntyre fired in two. Jon Routledge and Mark Faseruk picked up singles while Phil McIntyre collected three assists and Brian McIntyre had two.

Brian also tallied twice in Acton's 4-2 victory over St. Thomas, with teammates Routledge and Durkin drawing singles.

Acton's first win of the tournament came in a 6-2 verdict over Oshawa, thanks largely to a hat-trick by Phil. Derrick, Routledge, and Chris Yeatman drew singles.

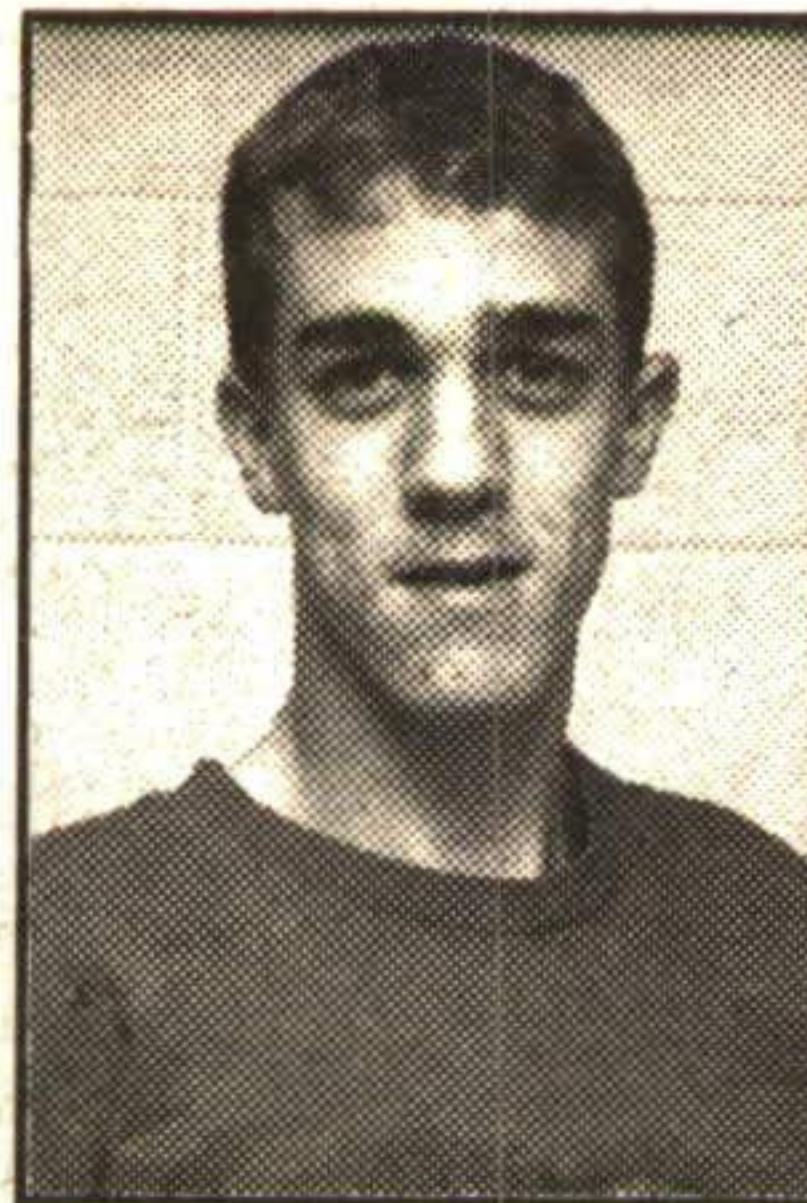

Durkin recorded three assists during this one.
