Adding on

Phil and Marg Jones of J. S. Jones and Son Funeral Home Ltd. greeted visitors recently as they held an open house at the newly completed Trafalgar Room, a family and reception centre at the funeral home's Trafalgar Road location. The 1,750 sq. foot addition will be used as a lounge and meeting place for families visiting the funeral home, as well as a reception hall for use following a funeral, or to provide a forum for grief support programs for the public. In addition, it is planned to be used by families, service groups or organizations as a meeting room.

Bouquets of colorful white and elegance carnations decorated the Baptist Church for the marriage of Joan Marie Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hammond, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hammond, also of Acton.

The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. G. S. Gammon, former pastor now of Thornbury, and the Rev. A. H. McKenzie of Acton. G. Skirrow sang the Lord's Prayer and Bless This House accompanied by the organist C. Landsborough.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a traditional long white gown of nylon taffeta, empire style with heavy laced daisies on the cuffs and a slightly flared hem line and a train flowing from the back of her shoulders to a headdress of French illusion tulle fell to her waist. Her free flowing veil of stephanotis and orchids. She carried a white Bible bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was the bride's sister Judith May Gordon and the bridesmaid also was the bride's sister, Linda Dianne Gordon. They wore full length white tuxedos with long sleeves and chiffon dresses with velvet in pelligon red with velvet bodices. Their veils were of nylon net with matching velvet headpieces. They carried cascades of elegance carnations and ivy.

The groomsmen were the groom's best friend John DeBlauw and the usher was Floyd Edward Hammond, cousin of the groom. They all wore white tuxedos with elegance carnation boutonnières. Willard Halladay, brother-in-law of the groom, helped with the ushering.

At the reception hall in the church the bride's mother received her guests in a dress of gold crimpline and gold beige accessories. Her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid and hyacinth bells.

The groom's mother assisted wearing a dress of cerise crepe with white accessories. Her corsage was a gardenia and hyacinth bells.

Leaving on the honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, California, the bride wore a wineberry and white dress and soft orlon pile coat. Her corsage was a red carnation.

Guests were present from Toronto, Welland, Paris, Springfield, London, Kitchener, Thornbury, Fergus, Alliston and Burlington.

Prior to their marriage Mrs. L. Duby held a shower with the church held a miscellaneous family shower was given at the home of the groom's sister Mrs. C. Ferrier. The young people's group held a presentation in honor of the bride. Upon arriving home the couple will reside in Acton.
