Rangers nip Raiders

While pushing the Rangers to the wire Wednesday night, the Georgetown Raiders dropped a 5-4 decision in Royal York.

The Raiders were missing five players, including Jim Hibbert, Andy Pazaver, Dave Cooper, Bill Rennie and Marek Babic, yet turned in one of their better efforts in the past few weeks.

"We were missing a lot of players, so there wasn't a cohesive unit. However, I thought the guys played fairly well and Geoffrey (Beauparlant) looked much sharper in net. His concentration seemed to be better," said head coach Jules Russiani.

Brad Cripps, Scott Kelly, Will Pomp and Greg Martin tallied for Georgetown while captain Dave Bouskill collected three assists.

Stewarttown first

Stewarttown has pulled ahead of Centennial for first place in North Halton Girls Volleyball, following a 37-14 win over Centennial last week.

Stewarttown is now 6-1 while Centennial is 5-2. McKenzie-Smith and W.I. Dick are tied for third with 4-3 records while Sam Sherratt and Brookville round out the rest of the league.

Centennial and McKenzie-Smith are both 6-1 and tied for first in boys play, with 4-3 Sam Sherratt in third. Stewarttown is 3-4 and in fourth while W.I. Dick and Brookville sit fifth and sixth.

Drop series

After winning the opening game of their OMHA playdowns the Acton Firefighter Bantams fell on hard times, dropping three straight, to be eliminated from post-season play.

After claiming game one 7-5, the Acton crew dropped decisions of 6-2, 4-3 and 7-3.

Bob Brooks and Derrick McIntyre lit the lamp for the Firefighters in game two with Derek Lockerbie, Ryan Valente, and Phil McIntyre assisting.

Fergus claimed the series lead with a 4-3 win in game three.

Phil McIntyre scored twice in a losing effort while Matt Williams netted the other. Nick VanEgmond, Brooks, Williams and Sean Durkin assisted.

In the series clincher Acton marksmen were Derrick McIntyre with a pair and Jon Routledge. Durkin assisted on all three markers while Van Egmond and Williams helped on singles.

Acton will now await league playoffs.

It might be the middle of winter but that hasn't stopped local soccer players from suiting up. The action has been fast and furious around several area gyms as players keep in shape by playing in the indoor leagues.
