Seven-Year-Old Selects continue to show improvement

Seven-Year-Old Selects

On Sunday Feb. 12 the Georgetown Remax Seven-Year-Old Selects hosted Chinguacousy whom they had not seen since October. Georgetown really wanted to show them how much they had improved.

The Selects came out flying as they have been doing of late from the opening face off and it paid off in a goal by Anthony Murphy from Justin Nobel at 57 seconds.

Chinguacousy scored two goals midway through the period. But, before the end of the period Anthony Murphy scored again from Ryan Williams with 33 seconds left in the period.

The second period was scoreless both goalies came up with big saves. Chinguacousy scored at 1:30 of the third to take the lead 3-2. Georgetown peppered their goalie for the rest of period but couldn't come up with equalizer.

On Sat. Feb. 4, the Selects played Oakville and it was another one of those games that the local crew forget to show up for, losing 11-0.

On Sun. Feb. 5, the Selects played Burlington in this game they were vastly improved. Georgetown scored the first goal, Justin Noble from Ryan Williams and Anthony Murphy. Then they allowed Burlington to score six unanswered goals.

Novice BB

The Georgetown Novice BB Raiders continued their fine play with a victory over Milton to take a two game advantage in the best of seven OMHA series.

The Raiders drew first blood as Mike Zelek whistled one to the top shelf after being set up by Joel MacDonald. Zelek then returned the favour setting up MacDonald for Georgetown's second goal. Strong work in the corner by tenacious Patrick Finn resulted in a pass to Joel Hamilton who rifled one past the startled goalie.

Milton responded with a lone goal for a 3-1 final score.

Matthew Chisholme, Jimmy Presant and Adam Arnold all had strong games while Nick McLaughlin and Alex Barkhouse sparkled on defense.

The third game of the play off series resulted in a 2-0 loss for the Raiders in closely contested match.

The teams played scoreless for two periods until Milton finally capitalized late in the game. Despite a strong effort by the Raiders, especially James Mountford, Derek Naylor and Jessie Sparkes, the breaks just did not go Georgetown's way.

Minor Novice

After defeating Brantford in three straight games, the McNally Construction Minor Novice Raiders are on a roll as they opened their series with Hespeler with a resounding 8-0 victory.

Joshua Hunt and Chris McCulloch enjoyed the shut-out as they both played outstanding in the Georgetown net. Timmy Walinga scored two quick unassisted goals at 7:47 and 7:31 of the first period to set the tone of the game.

Kevin Field also scored twice in the period to give the Raiders a 4-0 lead at then end of the first. Mark Boycott assisted on the fourth goal.

The second period was evenly matched with no scoring due to some great offence, defence and goaltending. Scoring in the third for the Raiders were Field 2, Boycott and Walinga. Colin Lumb, Matt Velten and Travis Bland assisted.

Minor Atom

The John Henderson Pro Shop Minor Atom Raiders have advanced yet another round after defeating Milton in three straight games in OMHA playdowns.

Game one was played at Memorial Arena on February 7. Kevin Oulds put the Raiders on the scoreboard at 7:35 of the second period with help from linemate Thomas Stokes. Milton tied the game at 1:14 so the teams were even going into the third. Danny Walinga scored the game winner at 4:35 assisted by Vince Burke and Blake Corrin.

Milton pulled their goaltender for the extra attacker, but it was Andrew McGourty who scored in the empty Milton net. Donnie Lane was between the pipes for the 3-1 victory.

The Raiders downed Milton 6-1 in game two on February 11.

McGourty got things going for the Raiders at 4:55 of the first frame assisted by Oulds. Billy McDonald was next in line at :53 with help from Walinga. Milton managed to sneak one by the Raiders at :28 but it was all Raiders in the second and third. Brett Velten tied up the opposition in front of the net and allowed Corrin to walk in and score twice in the second. Brent Beaumont grabbed an assist.

Walinga and Oulds scored in the third with Matt Knoepfli, McDonald and McGourty garnering assists. Scott Rostrup and Rusty Parsons played solid on defence.

Kevin Bokowski manned the net allowing only one goal and a then posted a 3-0 shut out in Game Three to help the Raiders take the series.

The first period remained scoreless with Milton fighting to stay alive. Knoepfli scored the winner at 5:53 of the second frame assisted by Walinga and McDonald. Beaumont added some insurance at 13:55 of the third with help from Corrin and Burke. Jeff Boyce scored an unassisted goal at 5:22 while the Raiders were shorthanded.

Major Atom

It was a disappointing loss for the Georgetown PDS Major Atom Raiders Saturday afternoon as they hosted Orangeville in quarter final play, watching a lead slip away as they fell 6-4 in overtime

After 2 1/2 periods of solid play and leading 4-2 the wheels fell of the Raider machine.

Regardless of the loss, the Raiders played some excellent hockey. Chris Henderson was solid in net as he faced some pretty tough shots. The Raider penalty killing squad was put in force and Ryan Field was working full tilt defensively. Georgetown goals were scored by Fantegrossi, Busby 2, McCulloch with assists going to Snow, McCulloch, Black, Field and Durham.

The Raiders rallied to even the series with an identical 6-4 win in game two. For details of this game see next week's GMHA Scoreboard pages.

Major Novices

The Georgetown Loblaws Major Novice played Burlington on home ice Feb. 7 winning 9-0. Scoring for Georgetown was Steven Kogan 2, Jordan Cole 2, Ryan Hirtle, Gavin Aldridge, Kyle Termini, Bradley Norton and Matthew Gruenwald with one apiece. Assists went to Bradley Norton 3, Matt Hiltz 2, Jordan Cole, Ryan Hirtle and Gavin Aldridge with one apiece.

On Feb. 10 the Raiders traveled to Burlington to oust them from the OMHA playdowns by winning 8-1.

The Raiders came out determined to win by scoring their first goal at 7:25 of the first period with an unassisted goal by Bradley Norton. Burlington tied things up at 4:21. Before end of period Jordan Armstrong picked up on pass from Jordan Cole and Matthew Gruenwald to give Georgetown the lead. At 5:30 of the second period Steven Kogan scored assisted by Jordan Armstrong and Bradley Norton. Jordan Cole put an unassisted one between the pipes at 3:53.

In the third, the Raiders were stronger than ever with goals going to Steven Kogan, Jordan Cole, Matt Hiltz, and Kyle Termini. Assists went to Jordan Armstrong 2, Ryan Hirtle 2, Bradley Norton, Kyle Termini and Matt Hiltz with one apiece. Great playing this series by the whole team.

Beef It Up Winners

1st Prize Side of Beef, Maggie Hobbs/Michael Knowles; 2nd Prize Hind of

Charlie Fitzwhiskey's Major Pee wee Raiders advanced to the quarter final round of the OMHA "AA" playdowns by defeating St. Catharines 5-3 in the final game of a best of five series.

They now meet Orangeville (currently tied 1-1)

The locals were sluggish in the first frame, allowing St. Kitts to dominate the period and outshoot them 11-5. The only score came on a St. Kitt's power play at 2:53. The period's shining light was Ryan Carter who turned back 10 shots and kept the Raiders in the contest.

Early in the second period Georgetown minor Pee wee star, Peter Veltman put the home side ahead 2-1 with two pretty goals both assisted by Brian Stuttur and Matt Hotham. Two minutes later Josh Travers put the Fitz's Raiders up by two by converting a Hotham pass after a St. Kitt's miscue in their own zone.

St. Catharines scored their second goal at the 9:00 mark to bring them within one but with only 41 seconds remaining in the second period Captain Matt Hotham won the draw deep in the visitor's end and smoothly tucked it behind the opponents netminder.

After a between-periods rest and a fresh ice surface, St. Catharines came out strong to start the third period scoring with only 17 seconds gone to bring the game back to a one goal contest. Ryan Carter did some of his best work to keep the visitor's from the Garden City off the score board.

The insurance marker and final goal came with 4:00 minutes remaining when Ryan Bobar let a blistering drive go just over centre one so quick, the St. Kitt's goaler is still looking for it.
