Minor novice Hurricanes sweep three

The Halton Sentrex Minor Novice Hurricanes were down to the last six games of the league last week. Taking six points in the three games played so far is exactly the way coach Steve Bronizewski hoped to wind this season down.

On Feb. 16th the Hurricanes traveled to Chinguacousy downing them by a score of 3-1. Point getters for Halton were Matt Bronizewski 2 goals, Howie Martin 1 goal, Jay Sprague 2 assists, Tipher Lee 1 assist.

On Feb. 18 the Sentrex Hurricanes played Stoney Creek at North Wentworth Arena. All the Hurricanes played their best game this season, with great passing, tenacious checking and outstanding goaltending. Halton's point getters were Robert Sgarbossa 2 goals, Matt Bronizewski 1 goal, 2 assists, Jay Sprague and Bobby Smith both had 1 goal, 1 assist, Jonathon Southgate and Tyler Holmes had 1 goal each, single helpers went to Matt Lyons, Tipher Lee, Howie Martin, Dylan Stawarek and Trevor Pietz.

On Feb. 20 Halton matched up against Guelph defeating them by the score of 6-5. The first 2 periods the action was mostly in Halton's favour but the third period saw Guelph get some powerplay chances to bring the score within a goal. Halton's point getters were Tyler Holmes 2 goals, 1 assist, Matt Bronizewski 1 goal, 3 assists, Jay Sprague 1 goal, 2 assists, Jonathon Southgate and Trevor Pietz both had 1 goal and 1 helper, Howie Martin had 2 assists, Tipher Lee and Dylan Stawarek had 1 assist each. Minding the net were Kyle Russell and Bret Hirtle with impressive outings.

Minor atoms fall to top squads

The Halton AAA Minor Atom Hurricanes dropped a couple of tough losses to top teams this past two weeks, soing tough contests to Welland and Burlington.

In the first game the Hurricanes came out jamming in the early play and lead through the first period with a carryover of a two up tie into the last split second of the second against the powerhouse Welland squad.

Chad Brownlea centered a strong line with Mike Ley and Matt Clark putting intense pressure on the opposition net during a four minute powerplay.

Clark was rewarded with a goal assisted by Brownlea and Tyler Prue. Ryan Ellis put out a great effort over several double shift assignments and it paid off with an unassisted goal in the second. Matt Fielding played strong in net but the shots just kept coming as the game ended 6-2.

In the Burlington game the 'Canes led most of the game after total domination for the first half period.

Ryan McManus in goal made several sterling stops on close chances

Aaron Cowey rushed the net to support a couple of goals with nice assists. Goals Ellis, Gleed, Clark, added assists Ellis, Brownlea, Gleed.

The final score was 6-3 for Burlington with an empty netter and a late goal in the dying seconds of the contest.

Rebels swim off with Halton honors

It was a red letter day for GDHS swimmers last Wednesday in Etobicoke, as they turned in impressive results at the Halton Regional Championships.

Topping the list of first-place finishers for the Rebels was star swimmer Glen Oomen, who collected three gold medals and set two new Halton records at the event.

Oomen set new Halton bests in the senior boys' 100 metre freestyle (55.02 seconds) and the senior boys' 100m backstroke (104.28 seconds).

He also won the senior boys' 50m freestyle with a time of 25.1 seconds.

Fellow senior Kevin Taylor also collected three golds, one in the 100m Individual Medley, one in the 200m freestyle and one in the 200m freestyle relay, along with Matt Deruchie, Nick Jamotte and Matt Brain.

Taking first place finishes in the senior girls' 100m freestyle and 200m freestyle was Sabrina Bassett. She also claimed third place in the 50m freestyle.

Amanda Bonnell also took first place finishes in the junior girls' 100m free and 50m free. Nick Jamotte won the senior boys' 50m fly while Micah Zarnke won the senior boys' 100m breaststroke.

Along with a dozen gold medal showings, the Rebels had five seconds, six thirds, two fourths and six fifths.

Grey lifts Hornets to Acton Indoor soccer victory

Shannon Gray continued her strong play in junior girls indoor soccer action last weekend, scoring seven goals and lifting her Green Hornets to an 11-2 victory over the Blue Bears.

A five-goal performance by Meighan McIntyre saw the Lightning Bolts down the Blue Bears 7-1.

In senior girls competition, Francis Beans beat the Big Bad Smurfs 9-4 while the Smurfs edged out the Aqua Stingers 6-4.

The Blue Hurricanes won a 9-8 shootout over Green Grass in boys action, and then went on to down the Wild Rebels 1-0.

Adams nets 5 as Sky squad sinks Navy

The Georgetown Girls Indoor Soccer league is in full swing with teams battling for position atop the standings.

Tim Hortons under 10 league Sky's Jen Adams scores 5 while teammates Caitlin Connelly and Allison Wright each get a singleton to give their team a 7-3 victory over Navy.

Strikers for Navy this day were Shannon Hofing 2, and Michelle Hofing 1.

The second match proved closer as Brooke Cobb's 2 goals and Erin Wyga 1 to help their team past a determined Fucia squad 3-1.

Lone strikers for the Fucia team was Leah Emmerton.

Under 13 league

Purple was unable to stop Forest Green's Nicola Leishman this day as she lead her team with 6 goals to topple Purple 9-2.

Bethan Elliott 1 and Allyson Taylor 2 were the other contributors to this one sided affair. Sinead Irvine and Lindsay Sproule collected the singleton for the Purple side.

In the second game Sky took an early lead thanks to Melanie Adams but they were unable to contain Navy's Alanna Zelek as she got the equalizer and then added three more to give Navy a 4-1 win.

Under 19 league

Navy's Deanna Guignard connected early in the first half to give her team the lead, however Sky's Kim Moore followed with one of her own and then added three more to give her team the 4-2 win.

Jennifer Barclay provided the second goal for Navy.

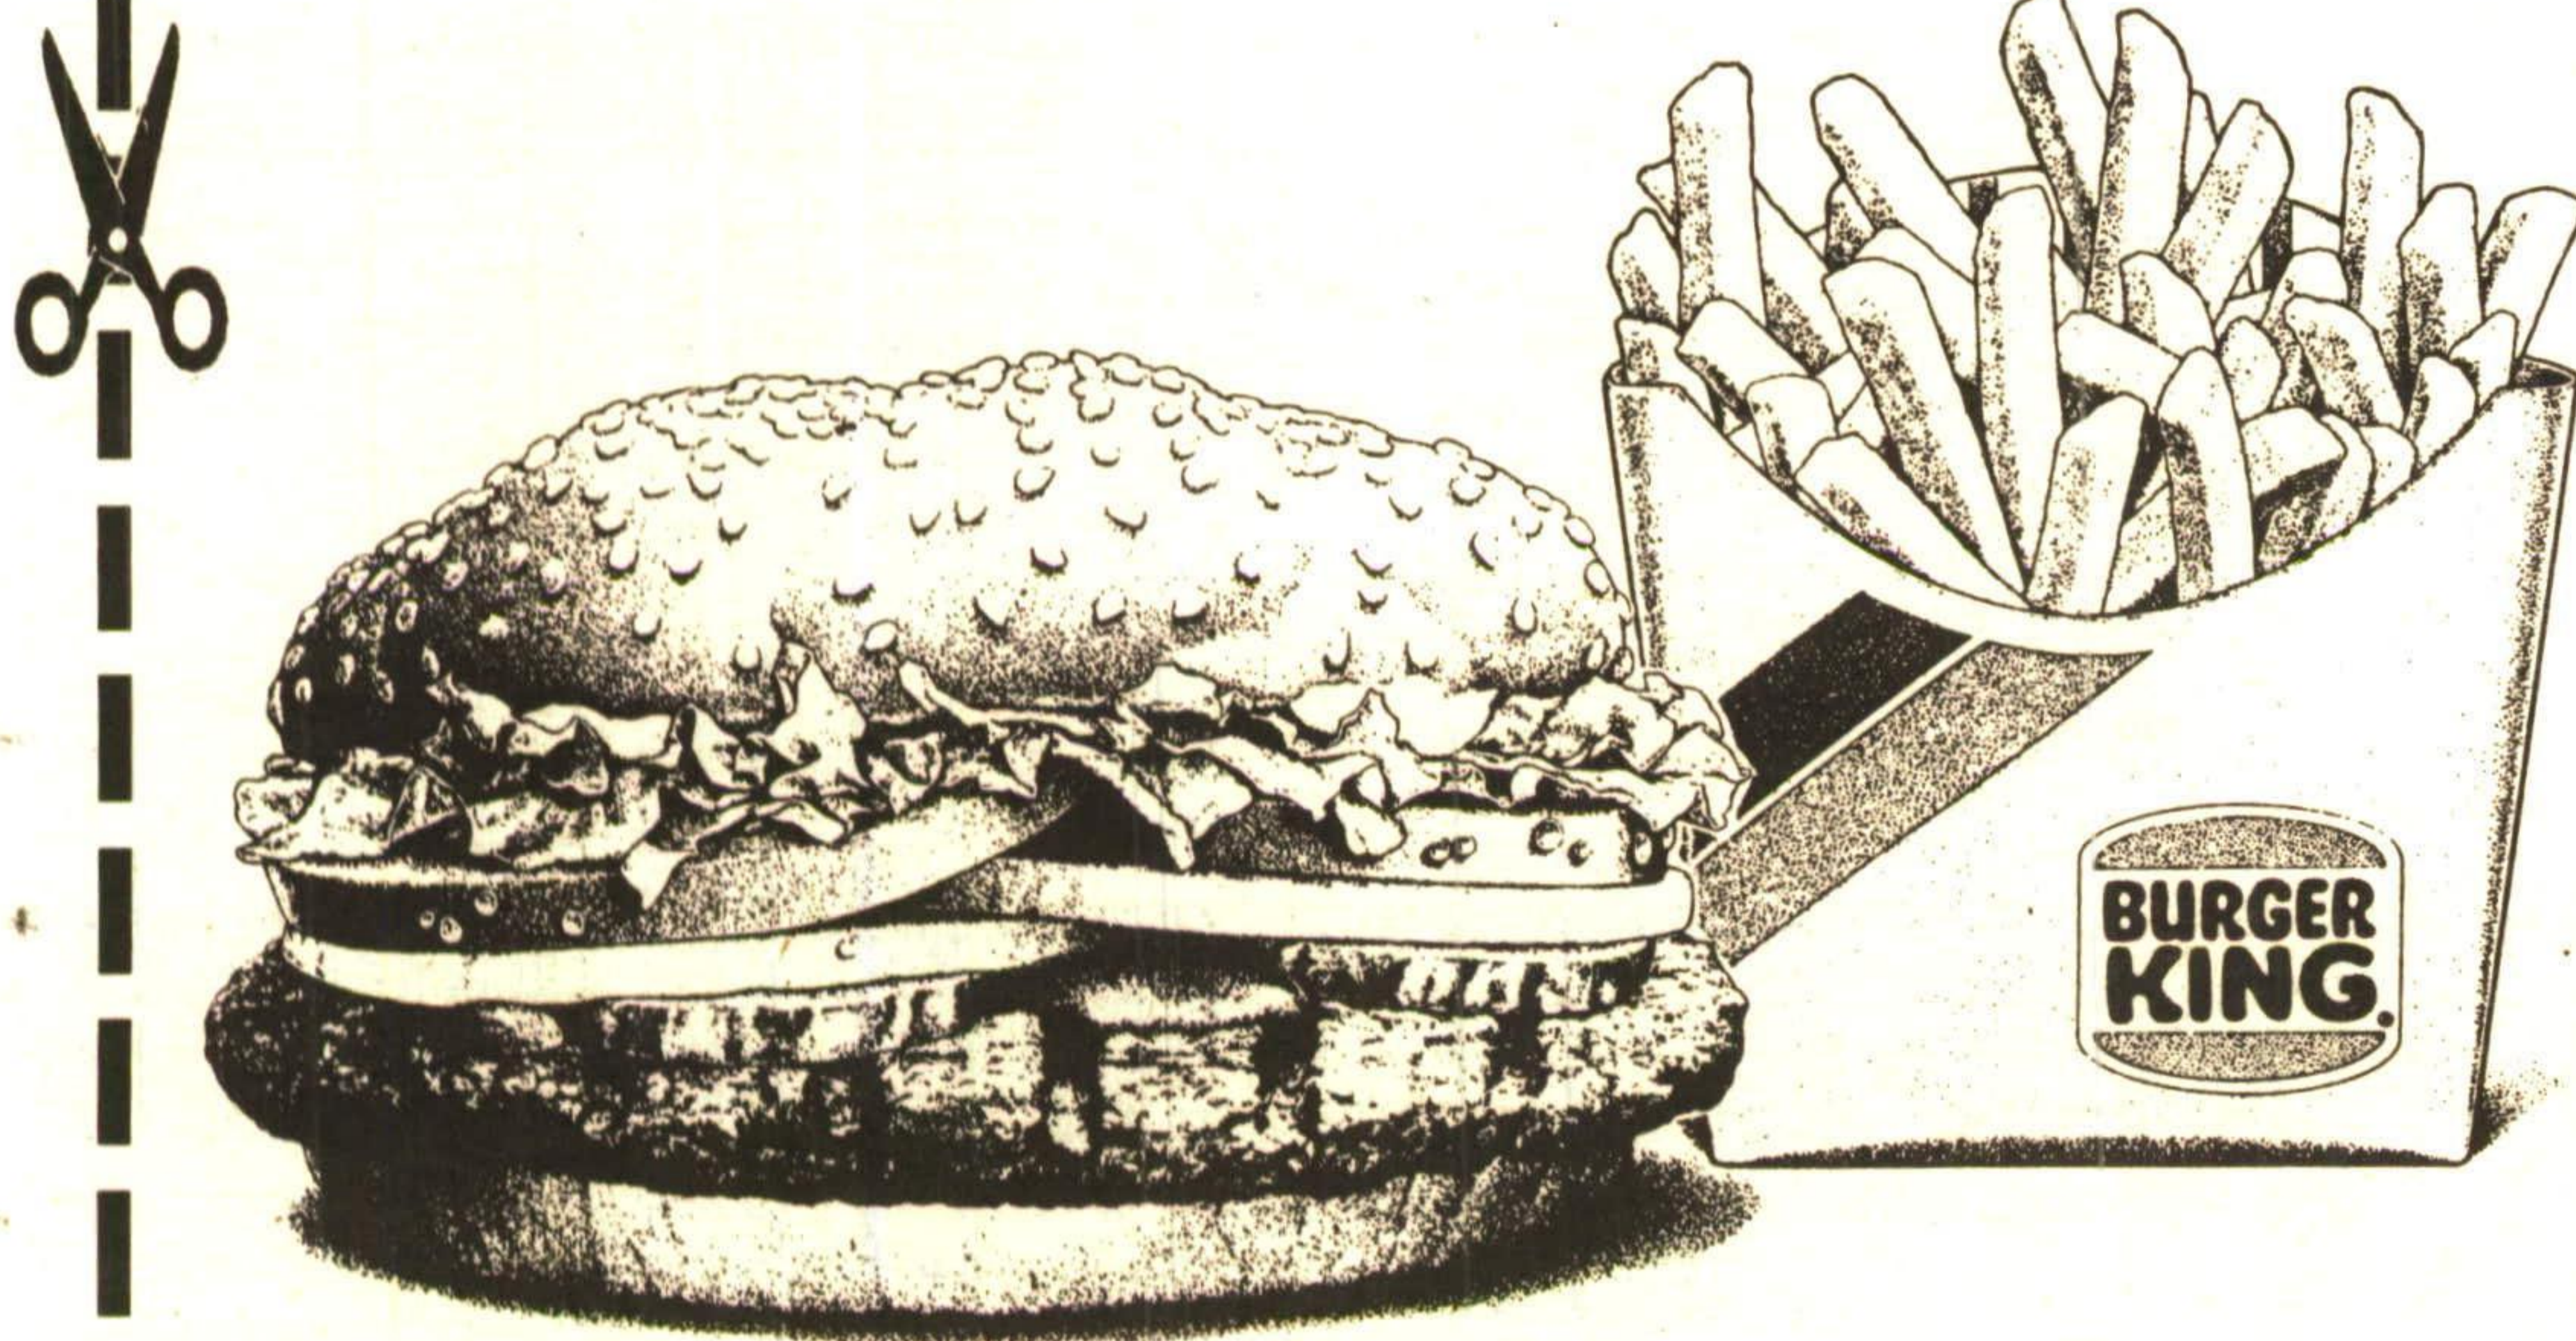

In the second game of the day, Stephanie Lefebvre blasted in 2 goals while teammates Danielle Castiglioni and Danielle Cary added singles to give the Forest Green team their first win of the season as they defeated Purple 4-1.

Arin Cook was the lone marker for the Purple side.
