Seven Year-old-Selects

The Georgetown Re/Max Seven-Year-Old Selects hosted the Vaughan Rangers last week and put forth a gallant effort as four regulars were missing from the line up. The Raiders lost 10-0.

Chris Louth playing his first full games of the season and played well in a losing effort. Chris found how good Vaughan really well and how well some of their better players (Matt Hoffman 4 goals, Jeff Clark-Crumpton 2 goals) can shoot the puck.

On Feb. 19, the Raiders traveled to Chinguacousy to play the Blues and came home 9-3 losers.

Scoring for Georgetown were Ryan Kemshead (2) and Anthony Murphy. Receiving assists were Blake Hamilton, Deron Cousens and Anthony Murphy.

On Feb. 26, the Raiders played host to Burlington. Another strong effort went for not as Burlington skated away with a 5-2 victory.

Scoring for Georgetown were Anthony Murphy and Kelly Quinn (first of the season). Assists went to Justin Nobel, Blake Hamilton and Anthony Murphy.

Up next for the Raiders is a tournament in Dundas. They play Dundas, Caledon and Bowmanville. The Raiders also play the last regular season game today (Sunday) at home to Burlington at 4 p.m. Memorial.

Novice BB

When the Georgetown Novice BB Raiders met Acton in Tri-County playoffs, the Raiders were no-shows early and quickly fell behind 4-0.

The Raiders got their wake-up call in the second period and then dominated the play.

Jimmy Presant began the comeback and popped the first goal with Alex Barkhouse and Matt Chisholme earning the assists. Thomas Elinesky narrowed the gap to 4-2 after an impressive coast to coast unassisted effort. Joel Hamilton brought the Raiders to within one before Acton put it away on a late short-handed goal resulting in a 5-3 final score.

In the rematch, despite being outplayed the poised Acton team held the hard-working Raiders to a 1-1 tie.

Jimmy Presant and Mike Zelek peppered the net with shots, but it wasn't until late in the game that Joel Hamilton fed Matt Chisholme who made no mistake and finally put one past the solid Acton goalie.

Nick McLaughlin and Lucas Arnold played well defensively while Daniel Cammick played his role in a goaltenders' duel with an impressive outing between the pipes.

Major Novice

The Georgetown Loblaws Novice Raiders started their Tri-County playoffs Feb. 25 against Guelph, winning the contest 7-2.

The Raiders outplayed Guelph from the opening face off, scoring five straight goals before Guelph got on the scoreboard in the third period.

With help from strong defense, Georgetown killed off two penalties while two men short and managed to get a short-handed goal as well. Scoring for the Raiders were Kyle Termini (2), Jordan Cole S.H.G., Matt Gruenwald, Brad Norton (2) and Ryan Hirtle. Drawing assists were Gavin Aldridge, Cole, Norton, Steve Kogan, Darryl and Veltman and Termini.

On March 4, the Raiders were back at Memorial to host Hespeler. This was a fast paced, exciting game that see-sawed back and forth, ending in a 5-5 tie.

Matt Hiltz started the scoring as he tucked the puck behind the Hespeler goalie on a nice two-way pass from Darryl Veltman and Ryan Hirtle. Hespeler tied the game up in the second period and went ahead 3-1 as Georgetown fell asleep. Gavin Aldridge scored early in the third period, as Marcus Sargent kept the puck in the zone and Matt Gruenwald picked up the loose puck and fed a perfect pass to Aldridge.

Hespeler continued to pressure Georgetown and scored twice more. Kyle Termini's goal midway through the third period from Matt Tales and Ryan Hirtle, followed by Jordan Cole's fourth short-handed goal of the season from Aldridge, kept the Raiders in the game. Hirtle scored the final and tying goal with two minutes left, assisted by Hiltz and Termini.

Atom BB

The BDO Atom II Raiders traveled to Fergus March 4 continuing their Tri-County playoff run.

With Carson Mininch taking over the coaching duties for this game, the Raider squad came out strong and played a solid first period to keep it scoreless.

Dustin McKnight and Greg Tales held tight early in the second to dig it out of the corner and get it out to Kyle Findley who popped it in 40 seconds into the frame.

Fergus was quick to halt the Raider lead and tie the period at 8:33 and overtake the lead at 6:27. Fergus gained two more to close the period at 3-1.

The third period has Fergus coming on strong to nab three more to claim the victory. Thanks to Carson for supporting the team when needed.

On March 5 had the Raiders on home ice in a competition with Oakville Rangers. Once again the Raiders came on strong for the first frame to keep the score at zero.

The second period had the Rangers potting three quick goals to claim a solid lead.

Greg Tales brings the Raiders a little closer notching their lone goal at 12:40. Matt Lebranche and Kris Moore worked hard to claim the assists.

With the Raiders playing many short-handed shifts the Rangers took control of the game claiming five more to take home the victory.

Raiders netminder David Ainsworth was solid between the pipes coming up with some great saves throughout the match.

P. Pigden was the first place winner in the Atom II Raider Raffle. She received two tickets for gold, rail seats at Maple Leaf Gardens to witness the match between the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Detroit Red Wings. Second prize of a $50 gift certificate from MVP Sports was claimed by M. Jellen. Third prize, a dinner for two, compliments of Charlie Fitzwhiskey's was claimed by Ryan Booth.

The Atom II Raiders would like to thank the those who made the tickets available, MVP Sports, Charlie Fitzwhiseys and all who purchased tickets to support their fundraiser.

Major Atom

The Georgetown PDS Raiders are on their way to the OMHA finals after putting Milton away three games to one in the semi-finals. In game one of the series, on Feb. 28, the Raiders had it all over Milton with a score of 8-1.

Graham McCulloch had quite a game with five. Other goals were notched by Mansfield unassisted, Pike and Hotham, with assists going to Roffel, Fantegrossi and Snow.

Chris Henderson was strong staring down the opposition in the net.

Game two was not only an offensive battle but also a defensive effort by the Raiders, particularly by Black and Mansfield.

Black scored the lone Raider goal of the first period assisted by Snow.

The second period saw the Raiders rally to come from behind and score four goals. Busby netted two goals, McCulloch and Field pocketing the remaining two with the help of Fantegrossi, Field, McCulloch and Black. McCulloch had some blistering shots and Black stared down three opposing players to protect the net.

Garvey, the Raider netminder, had his work cut out for him but handled it with ease.

Game three was a heartbreaker for the Raiders as they hoped to finish the series in three straight. Milton had other ideas however as they came from behind to win in overtime 8-5.

This game had non-stop action all the way to the last 44 seconds of the third period when Milton tied the Raiders 5-5.

Raider goals were scored by Fantegrossi, Busby, Field, Snow and McCulloch assisted by Field, Fantegrossi, Hotham and Busby.

It was a long day on Sunday, March 5, as the Raiders waited to face Milton for the fourth game of the series.

It was worth waiting for, though, as the Raiders showed a supreme team effort for a well earned 8-4 win.

All the players were focused totally on the task at hand and worked hard to claim the victory in this one.

Busby netted a hattrick both in goals and assists. McCulloch pocketed two goals, one assist, Pike scored one goal and two assists, Fantegrossi one goal, two assists, Kyle Hotham slipped one in the net, while Ryan Field had two assists. Chris Henderson was between the pipes.

Great games were also played by Alex Durham, Kyle McIlvenna, Kevin Binsell, Brad Snow, Nick Black, Tim Mansfield, Dan Roffel and Joe Garvey waiting in the wings.

Major Peeewe

The Georgetown Charlie Fitzwhiskey Peeewe Raiders traveled to Oakville's Glen Abbey Arena for their second Tri-County playoff game last Friday. After a one hour delay waiting for referees the game got underway with Georgetown in control.

The first period produced an impressive goal by Ryan Bobor assisted by Jason Hayes and Derek Mitchell.

Again in the second period Georgetown applied pressure with another goal by Josh Travers, assists going to Ryan Bobor and Brian Studdard.

Going into the third period 2-0 goaltender Ryan Carter stayed sharp as did the players racking up two more goals, Ryan Bobor's second goal of the night assisted by Brian Studdard, and Jason Campbell's goal unassisted. The final score was 4-0 in Georgetown's favor.
