Playoffs under way

Round robin play wraps up at tourney

Special to The Independent/Free Press

The Georgetown International Bantam Tournament is almost complete. Some 67 teams opened the event but it's down to a select few as playoff action began.

As round-robin play wound up Friday morning, the Georgetown Bodanis Raiders were the only local contingent still in contention at the 35th annual Georgetown International Bantam Hockey Tournament.

The Raiders opened up tournament play Thursday evening with a solid 4-0 shutout over D division opponents Almaguin.

With two goals each in the first and final period, Georgetown turned in big efforts at both ends of the ice.

Leading the way was team captain Trevor Rich, who recorded a hat-trick and collected MVP honors. Meanwhile, netminder Dave Clarke was the team's defensive anchor with his flawless performance between the pipes.

Also scoring was Danny Cabral while assists went to Sean Hardcastle, Ian Cartwright, Judd Richardson, Jesse Ward, Joe Goodhew and Geoff Bahr.

Georgetown faced Napanee and Cumberland Friday afternoon and evening, after press deadline

The Georgetown Selects weren't quite as successful Thursday evening, as they were pounded 6-0 by the Gloucester Cougars.

Gloucester unloaded with four goals in the opening 10 minutes and cruised to victory the rest of the way, with solid puckhandling and a strong defensive unit.

The Selects got some solid goaltending out of Brad Kouyoumijian, who replaced Kevin Humeniski after Gloucester's fourth goal. However, the defence provided little assistance and were barely able to clear their own zone through the final frame.

Earning the shutout for Gloucester was Yann L'Esperance. Leading the offensive attack was Craig Pulham who notched a pair of goals and added one assist.

A total of 11 teams had qualified for playoff competition at press time.

Streetsville and Brampton advanced in A division's group 1, with two wins and one tie a piece.

Burlington took a points victory over Ajax and the York Toros in win group 1 in B division while three game winner Niagara Falls took the group 2 loop.

Taking group 3 with two wins and a draw was Newmarket while group four was not decided at press time.

Owen Sound and Parkdale claimed the first two playoff spots in C division, each having won all three round-robin tilts. Owen Sound won group 2 while Parkdale won group three.

Early D division contention had Cambridge taking group 3 and Hanover winning group 4. The local Acton Sabres looked like early favorites to win group 4, after two straight wins. However, an 8-2 loss to Hanover buried their hopes for the division title.

The E division top teams were Normanby and London while F division contenders had not been decided yet.
