Ted's the voice of common sense

Dear editor:

This is in response to Ted Brown's article entitled I'm Tired of Maintaining a Politically Correct Viewpoint. I would like to thank him for properly putting into words something which I have felt for quite some time. I am often in favor of good change; but too often we change things and get rid of things for no good reason. I have never been much in favor of "political correctness"; but I have tolerated it up until now. As far as I'm concerned, they should leave the hymns and sacred texts of the Christian faith alone. After all, if I started changing someone else's religion because I didn't agree with it, what would the response be? Countless people would probably be outraged and would brand me a racist or a threat to the freedoms of religion and speech. And yet people have absolutely no problem with slashing and burning the texts of the Christian faith because they feel that someone might be upset.

I would say more, but I feel that Ted Brown summed up my feelings perfectly. If you want to know how I feel, read Mr. Brown's article.

I would like to express my thanks to Mr. Brown for his voice of common sense and wisdom in this crazy world of ours. Let's have more people like Ted Brown who aren't afraid to stand up for what he believes in and hold on to what little tradition we have left. Let's have some more common sense and sanity in this world, and less "political correctness."

We helped American youth get a B+

Dear Canadians:

Thank you for your mail. I used the information a lot in my presentation. I also enjoy opening the mail. I had fun learning about Ontario. I got a B+ on my presentation. I did not think I would get as much mail as I got. Thank you for sending such neat and interesting things.

I would also like to give a special thanks to the editor of The Georgetown Independent/Acton Free Press. Thanks.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

There will be a Community Performance of

The Play
"Touching"
April 11th, 1995
7:00 p.m.

Halton Region Auditorium
1151 Bronte Rd.
Oakville, Ontario
(Highway #25 and the Q.E.W.)

"Touching" was performed this past year. This is the last public performance during this spring tour. This tour is made possible through the generosity of the Halton Child Abuse Council, The Kiwanis Club, and the Ministry of Community and Social Services.

"Touching" is a marvellous play about the experiences that a 10 year old child (Alex) has while playing in a neighbourhood park. Alex receives some bad and confusing touches in the first half of the play and feels helpless to do anything about them. The play empowers children to make wise choices about their personal safety.

Transportation is available from Milton and Halton Hills.
For further information, call Rena Smith at 878-1288.
