Cancer volunteers

Do have three or four hours that you would be willing to give to a good cause? The Acton Branch of the Cancer Society is preparing for the annual campaign which takes place in April. Volunteers are need for various areas of Acton. If you could visit 10-15 homes to collect donations, call Liz Bailey at 853-0585.

Literacy Guild training

North Halton Literacy Guild will be holding a tutor training session on the evening of April 5, and all day Saturday, April 8. Participants must attend on both dates. Although we need tutors from all areas, we especially need them in the Acton area. Attendance will be limited. If you are interested, ASAP, contact the Guild office at 873-2200.

Rural Women's Shelter

The Rural Women's Shelter Program will be sponsoring a support group for women who are, or have been in abusive relationships. Women interested in learning more about this group are invited to call Jean Shannon or Gloria Ramirez at 833-9696. All calls will be handled confidentially.

Blitz Night

Tuesday, April 4 is the Acton unit of the Cancer Society's Blitz Night at Trinity United Church. Campaign '95 will begin with a chili dinner at 5:30 p.m. Volunteers can then canvass for a few hours and then return for dessert and coffee. All those who attend Blitz Night will have a chance to win a prize from TimBri Restaurant!
