Halton Showcase

On April 12 over 1,000 Halton students from grades 4 to OAC will participate in Showcase '95, a musical concert to be held at 7:30 p.m. at Hamilton Place and will involve 32 elementary and secondary schools from across Halton, including local schools. Tickets (adults $8, seniors and students $5) are available at the door or by calling 878-8451, ext. 3323.

Ron Hunt working on his 96th GLT play

Ninety-six and aiming for 100! When he directs the upcoming comedy, It Runs In The Family, it will be the 96th play that Ron Hunt has worked on for Georgetown Little Theatre, either as an actor, director, set designer/constructor, to name but a few of the many hats that Ron wears for this group.

Ron has received two Thea Awards from the Association of Community Theatres (ACT-CO) for set design and for special effects, and is also the recipient of the Halton Hills Arts Alive plaque for Outstanding Contributions in the area of the Performing Arts.

A familiar face around town for the last 40 years, Ron's involvement with theatre is extensive and varied. He participated in eight Rotary shows, which culminated in being a founding member of the original Globe Productions.

He has also worked with Brampton Musical Society, Peel Pantomime Players and Milton Players as an actor, director and choreographer.

Ron's latest venture is to direct the Ray Cooney comedy, It Runs In The Family, which will be at the John Elliott Theatre April 21, 22, 26, 27, 28, 29.

A limited number of tickets are available, so call the Box Office (877-3700) today in order to avoid disappointment. VISA accepted.

The Big Chill Dance to feature Lowdown June 3

The 8th annual Big Chill Dance featuring Lowdown's 60's beach party musical style is set to make the official arrival of summer on June 3 - 18 days early - at Georgetown Memorial Arena.

The dance which sports a reunion party atmosphere is a traditionally sold out event so get your tickets early. Each year the following sports groups cooperate to put on this mega-event: Georgetown Minor Hockey, Men's Flag Football, Georgetown Raiders, Ladies Power-Puff Baseball, Georgetown Baseball Association, Georgetown Gymnastics.

Contact any executive member of these organizations for ticket availability. The Big Chill Committee has worked hard to maintain the ticket price at $15.

Each year the committee develops a decoration theme - 1995 is "the Raptors." As usual souvenir T-shirts will be available.

Don't miss this event, call for your tickets now.

SUNDAY FAMILY PROGRAMS AT TERRA COTTA CONSERVATION AREA

1995 WINTER/SPRING PROGRAMS

M & M DAY (Myth and Magic: Mothers and May)
Sunday, April 30, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.
Cost: $5.00 per adult and $3.00 per child
Suitable for adults and children (6 years and up)
May Day was traditionally considered to be the first day of Spring. Treat your Mom to an early springtime amble through the grounds of our Conservation Area. Join our staff Naturalist and discover the folklore and myths associated with this season. Many plants have been used as love charms, fertility enhancers, or soothing medicines. Enjoy our guided walk and a slide show.

WILDERNESS NAVIGATION
Sunday, May 7, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Cost: $10.00 per person
Suitable for adults and children (10 years and older)
You can "get there from here" by using a few tried and true techniques. Spend some time with our instructor at Terra Cotta and learn the tricks to reading a topographical map and using a compass.

In 1995, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority is presenting a series of Sunday programs at Terra Cotta Conservation Area. The programs are either full day or half day events and most are suitable for both children and adults; appropriate age levels are listed in the program descriptions. A few programs are offered on both Saturday and Sunday. All programs start from the Visitor Centre in the Terra Cotta Conservation Area. For information or to register call ... (905) 877-9650 Ext. 22.
