GMHA honors efforts

Georgetown Minor Hockey Association honored the efforts of several individuals at their Coaches Appreciation Dance last Saturday evening at Holy Cross Auditorium.

Special Awards

At top, GMHA president Hal Pells made a couple of special presentations. Gary Louth (right) was honored with the Joe Pentesco Memorial Trophy for his outstanding contribution to the organization. Louth served as house league vice-president this past season. Carson Mininch (left) received special recognition for his years of outstanding service. He is retiring as vice-president of rep hockey.

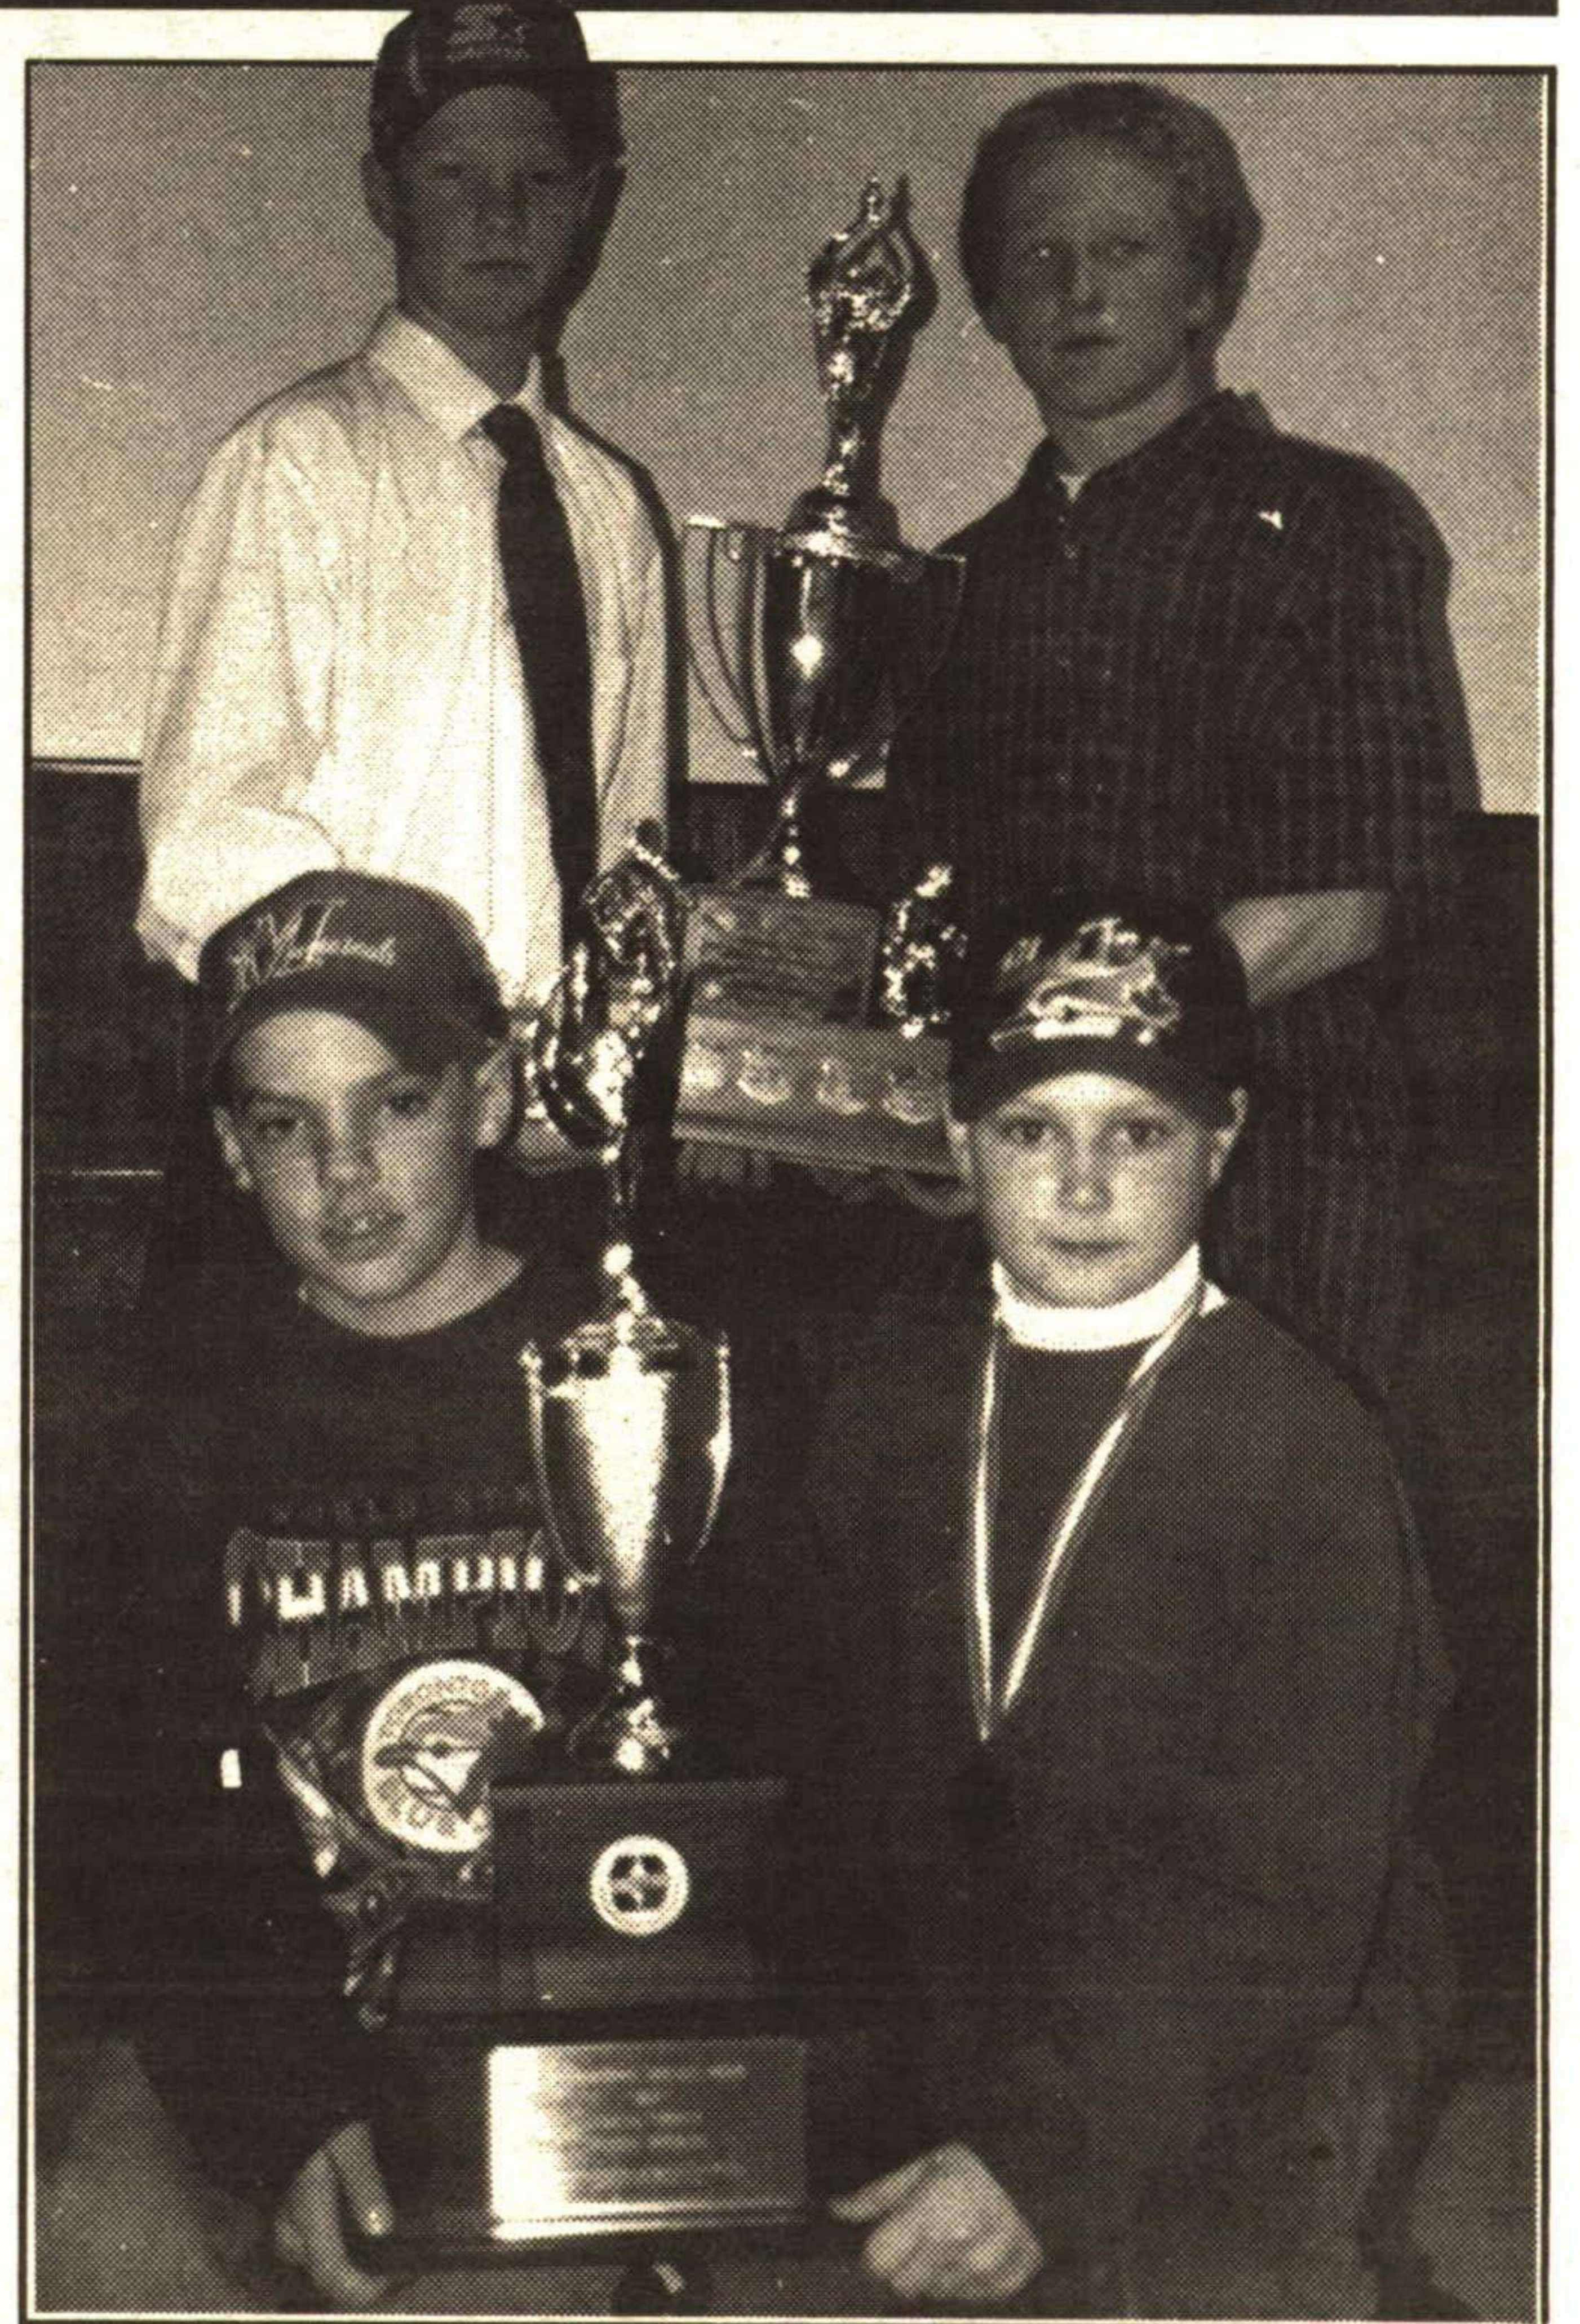

House League

The GMHA rewarded its top rep goalies at an awards evening Tuesday. Major peewees Tyler Pearce and Ryan Carter (back row) claimed the David Hulme Memorial Award for having the best goals against average among the senior teams. The junior award went to Kevin Bokowski and Donnie Lane of the minor atoms.

Andrew Craig earned the Jeremiah Fendley Award as most congenial member of the midget squad this season while Trevor Crane picked up the Paul Fendley Memorial Award as Most Valuable Player.
