Men Walking Against Male Violence here May 4

Statistics show that 62 per cent of all women murdered in Canada have died as a result of male violence in the home.

Those are the statistics that the organization, Men

Walking Against Male Violence, wants to overcome. It calls upon men to begin taking responsibility as individuals to end violence against women and children.

On May 4, Men Walking Against Male Violence invites men to join them as they walk from Georgetown District High School to Brampton — 16 kilometres. This is part of the 1995 Port Colborne to Orillia Walk. Men (women are also welcome) are encouraged to participate.

On Tuesday, May 2, Halton Family Services therapist, Peggy Smith will be a guest speaker a dinner held at St. John's United Church at 11 Guelph St. in Georgetown on Tuesday, May 2, at 6:30 pm. Tickets for the dinner, $10 each (proceeds shared with local women's shelter) and walkathon pledge forms are available by calling St. John's United Church at 877-2531.

Men Walking Against Male Violence solicits donations and sustainers from men only. They do not seek government funding.

Men Walking Against Male Violence is a project organized by men to protest violence against women and children. For more information call Carlo Fariello, 873-4110 or the St. John's United Church office at 877-2531.
