Willows and Hurley direct Globe's Pirates of Penzance

Rehearsals for Globe Productions' The Pirates of Penzance have been underway since February under the experienced guidance of Georgetown's Jacky Willows as artistic director and Acton resident Stephen Hurley as musical director.

Jacky is well known for her dedication to local theatre groups, having worked on over 30 shows over a 10-year period. Jacky has been an actor, producer and director and is especially known for her set designing. She recently won an Actco Award for Best Set Design for Globe's production of The Music Man last fall.

Stephen, in addition to teaching for the Peel Board of Education, has a great deal of experience in school and community theatre productions including the Dufferin Peel Players and Theatre Unlimited.

Pirates will be performed at the John Elliott Theatre on May 4-7 and May 10-13. Tickets are $12.50 ($11 for groups of 20 or more) and are available at Royal LePage, 170 Guelph St. in Georgetown.

Museum holds open house

On Tuesday, April 25, the Halton Region Museum Feasibility Study Steering Committee (HRMFSSC) will host a Public Open House at Milton Memorial Arena located at 77 Thompson Road South in Milton, 6-9 p.m. The Steering Committee will present its work-to-date at 7:30 p.m.

Open House visitors will learn about the study process and the committee's work-to-date, and will be invited to comment on the proposal to relocate the Halton Region Museum to the Sproat/Martin House in Livingston Park, Milton. Public comments, concerns and ideas will be incorporated into the study process.

The Sproat/Martin House located at 191 Margaret Street, overlooks the scenic Mill Pond in downtown Milton and is owned by the Town of Milton. The Halton Region Museum is currently located within Kelso Conservation Area.

For more information contact Councillor Colin Best, committee chair, at 878-3623 or Community Relations Sub-Committee chair, Sandy Martin at 878-0581.

METHOD OF PAYMENT VISA

Our office now accepts "VISA" for your convenience.

$Payment Plans$

Special payment plans can be arranged to suit your budget. We would be happy to help you arrange manageable monthly payments, either by cash, cheque or Visa.

$Dental Insurance$

Our services are covered under all dental insurance companies. If your not sure of your coverage, we would be happy to complete an estimate/pre-determination form for you. Because all policies are different. It's a good idea to send in an estimate, so that you know exactly what your coverage will be. We gladly process your forms as required free of charge.

$Social Assistance/Family Benefits Coverage$

If you qualify, a portion of your dentures will be covered, through the above programs. Call our office to find out the necessary steps needed to qualify.

$D.V.A. Taps Cards$

If you are a veteran, we accept D.V.A. Blue Cross "tap cards". Call our office for information.

$Taxes$

There are no taxes on dentures!

$About Our Fees$

We provide only premium quality denture products and service, therefore you will find only one "all inclusive fee". This fee includes any necessary follow ups for one year, and The Denture Clinic's one year GUARANTEE of quality services.

WE CARE ABOUT YOUR SMILE!
