A farewell to Halton Hills

The following letter was filed with this newspaper for publication.

To the citizens of Halton Hills:

With great sadness I have tendered my resignation to the Halton Board of Education to be effective on May 31.

I have accepted the position of General Manager of the Yarmouth Development Corporation and will be taking up my duties on June 5. Fran and the boys will follow in late August.

As you can imagine, it is extremely difficult for us to make this decision. We have developed many lasting friendships over our years in town and will miss each and every one.

I especially want to thank my supporters over my many election campaigns, winning and losing, over the years. To my friends in Esquesing and Acton, I want to add that it has been my honor and my very great pleasure to have served you as school trustee, local and regional councillor.

We will miss Acton, but hope that any of you who may be travelling in Nova Scotia will look us up. My new office is on the main street in Yarmouth and if you are on the south shore of the province and you have to go through Yarmouth, please drop in.

Thank you for everything. We will miss you.

Dave and Fran Whiting

Wastewise appreciates its hardworking volunteers

Dear editor:

On occasion Wastewise looks a little like someone thrust a hand mixer through the roof and gave it a couple of quick whirs on high! Those occasions would be far more frequent were it not for the corps of volunteers that has become the backbone of the centre.

During 1994, volunteers spent a total of 4,303 hours working to provide and improve a much needed service to our community.

A very special thanks from Wastewise staff and management to: Shawn Wood, Dave Bowman,

Wetherby's celebration enjoyed

Dear editor:

What memories I have on the 50th anniversary of the ending of the war. No more war. No more hearing those terrible sounds of German planes on their way with bombs to drop on London 21 miles from where we lived.

The odd siren went off to let us know it's the end of that sound and wonder.

Today I went to Wetherby's in

Acton to celebrate the 50th. In fact had my picture with others on front of Coronation cut out.

It really was enjoyable speaking to people we had not met. Lots of us were from England or had been there during the war. No one told their story. Too sad to talk about.

Thank you Wetherby's for a wonderful afternoon. I will be back.

Kathleen (Molly) Crowhurst
