Area artists exhibit work in Rockwood

Rockwood and area artists are surfacing from a winter's worth of creativity to display their all-new work at the Rockwood Creative Arts Group's first annual Outdoor Show & Sale called Art on Seven.

It will take place on Saturday and Sunday, May 27 and 28, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., on the lawns of Sandalphon Studio, 147 Alma Street, Rockwood — that's Highway 7, next to the Fire Hall. Come rain or shine, only a major downpour will cancel this event!

See paintings, sculptures, wood carvings, wooden toys, weavings, spinings, pottery and more. Don't miss this opportunity to browse and meet the artists and perhaps even pick up an original creation.

At least a dozen artists will be represented, including: Carole Black (watercolors and prints), Donna Diamond (sculpture), Martha Hoey-Weston (pottery), Rosalyn Insley (acrylics), Susan Johnson (watercolor portraits), Lori-Anne McDermid (photography), John and Maureen McLeod (watercolor and sculpture), Genevieve Nolan (funky stuff), Harold Rick (West Coast Native wood carver), Gail Root (watercolor), Ross and Wendy Durfey (weaving, baskets and functional wooden items).

Chorus sings
The Georgetown Children's Chorus presents a spring concert by their newly formed Performance Choir on May 26 at Knox Presbyterian Church, 7:30 p.m. Free admission.

Final concert
For its final concert of the 1994-95 season, the Brampton Symphony Orchestra plays on May 27 at 8 p.m. at the Heritage Theatre, Brampton. Join us for an evening of English favorites. For tickets, call (905) 874-2800 ($15 and $13 for seniors and students).
