

Cousin Glen encourages his Georgetown cousins to prepare for Canada Day

Dear Cousin George:

I hear you only recently got my last letter — my, the postal service is slow up them parts. Lucky for us we got Norman, the mail man and those Hancocks looking after the rural routes! No mail ever gets lost down this way.

That Canada Day committee has everything pretty well organized by this date. The theme will be Canada Remembers and we're hoping to get different streets putting a float into the parade. The parade starts at noon, so you'd best be in your parade viewing spot long afore that time. Traffic gets heavy you know — imagine we have a day with heavy traffic.

But it don't pay to be too organized. Angie Fowler went and invited all the dignitaries, before the election call! Who knows who'll be on the stage come July 1st! Be sure to git down to the stage right after the parade for "O Canada" and that free birthday cake. This year's Citizen of the Year, Shirley Ingles will be passing on the title to a new person about that time.

But don't eat too much of that there cake. Lots of groups are hoping to raise funds by selling food. St. Alban's will be there of course, as will the Glen Minor Ball people. Optimists, the Open Door, Seniors Association and the Halton-Awareness Council will all be offering mighty tempting tidbits.

Those Town Hall folks have a whole line-up of entertainment, including highland and native dancing. It should be a great afternoon. There are games and a play centre for the kids. That egg toss is always a favourite of mine. Gord saves up a whole mess of eggs to throw around — what a mess!

That Mark Rowe fella will be doing his hysterical tour again this year, but I hear it's gonna be a Haysterical tour around the village.

Well Saturday, July 1st should be another great day down in the Glen.

Your Cousin,
Glen
