Thanks for helping the fire victims

Dear editor:

Re: Main St. Fire Victims

I would like to take this opportunity to say a "Great Big Thank You" to the many citizens of Halton Hills for their generous support of the fire victims.

The items that you donated were distributed to the people involved in the fire and they are very appreciative of your generosity. They received furniture, linen, clothing, appliances, as well as a sum of money from the Fire Victim's Fund, so they are well on the way to rebuilding their lives.

A special thank you to the Full Gospel

Business Men's Association for their generous support. Thank you to the people who anonymously donated to the fund.

Also I would like to thank the many churches and businesses in town for posting flyers; the response was unbelievable. Thanks also to the Georgetown Independent/Free Press for the media coverage; Penniesworth, who offered free clothing; Wastewise, who offered free items; and The Love In Christ Foodbank for their offer of food for the people. Thanks also to Betty Davis and Irene Hancock; without your support this endeavor would not have been possible.

Fire victims touched by the generosity

Dear editor:

I'm writing this letter for the people of Georgetown. You have touched our hearts deeply. The night we came home and it was gone because of a fire we were left empty. I'm not talking about materialistic things, I'm talking about what you feel inside. It's like someone reaching in and ripping out all your emotions, you have nothing left. You don't know what you'll do or where you'll go, and just when you think there's no light at the end of the tunnel, you suddenly have this great big family, helping you in any way they can and suddenly you're not so empty. It's nice to know that the town you've chosen to live in, sticks together and helps those in need and that's the key word "Together". So thank you Georgetown for all you've done. Thank you Georgetown for giving us a home and thank you for filling our hearts with love!

Yours truly,

Helen, Bill & Ashley

JUNE 7 CAMP DAY CANADA

On June 7, Tim Hortons all across Canada will be donating the proceeds from their coffee sales to the Tim Horton Children's Foundation.

In co-operation with local community groups, the Foundation enables kids from this community, who might not otherwise have the opportunity to go to camp, to attend one of four Tim Horton Children's Camps in Parry Sound, Ontario, Tatamagouche, Nova Scotia, Kananaskis Country, Alberta, and Quyon, Québec.

Please join us for coffee on June 7, and help give a deserving kid a summer to remember. Thank you.
