

Springing into fun

There was lots to do at Robert Little School's Spring Carnival May 27. The Carnival featured pony rides, a silent auction, games, crafts, face painting and a house of horrors. Above, Elias Frechette, 6, and brother, Joe, 4, take turns throwing sponges at Elliott Buchanan, 14.

THE TORY COMMON SENSE REVOLUTION IS NOT CREDIBLE

One of Mike Harris's key advisers admits that the Tories made substantial errors, about $3 billion, in calculations.

"The Tory leader would need to slash spending by $9 billion. Instead of tossing out erroneous numbers, Harris should tell Ontarians exactly where he would make those massive cuts."

The Toronto Star, May 25, 1995

IT MEANS DESTRUCTION OF JOBS, CLOSING OF HOSPITALS AND INCREASES IN TUITION FEES.

LIBERAL ACTION PLAN

The Liberal Plan is credible. It is endorsed by leading economists, administrators and key business leaders. To investors it clearly signals WELCOME BACK TO ONTARIO.

WALT ELLIOT

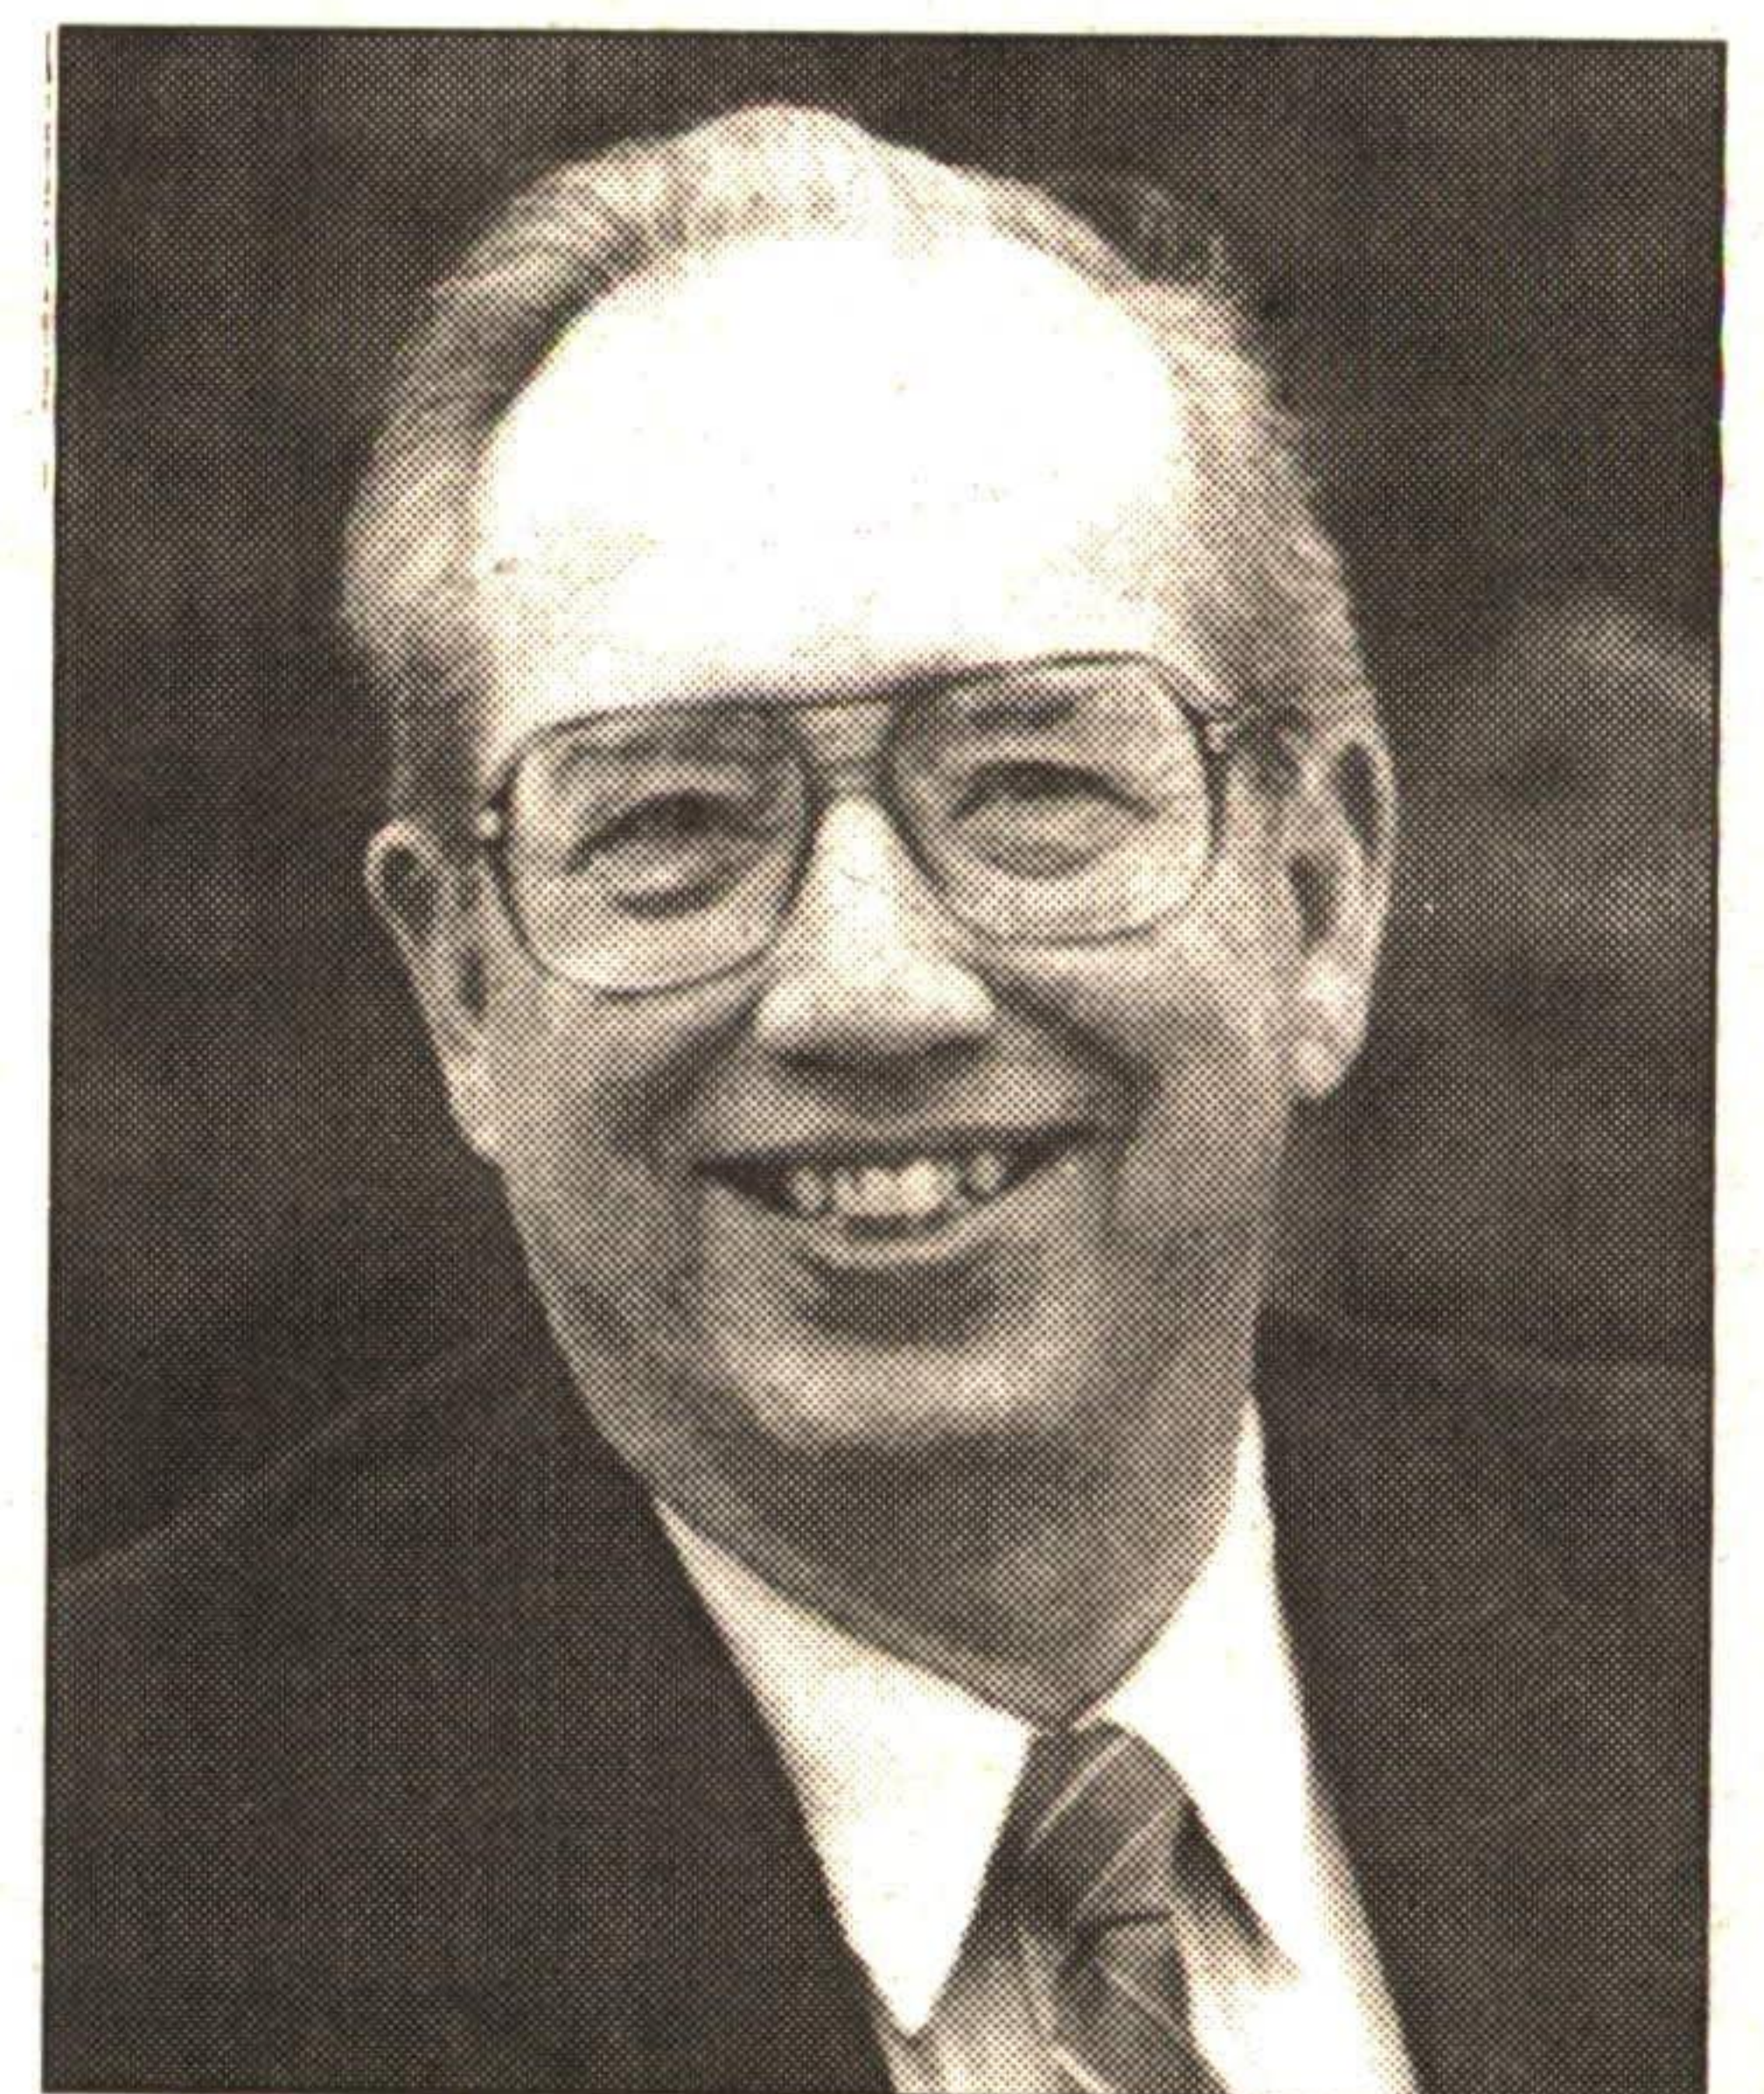

Walt is dedicated to getting Ontario working again. He is a man of integrity and compassion who will not cut and slash heartlessly. He is a man of vision who understands the challenges of these times.

Walt believes that government must create a climate which allows business to get on with the job of creating jobs. I know from personal experience that he will go to bat for local businesses.

*Steve Dawkins
President - The olde Hide House*

"During Walt's time at Queen's Park I found him to be approachable and sympathetic about our concerns. He understands the importance of good co-operation between municipal and provincial governments."

*Russ Miller
Former Mayor of Halton Hills*
