A local group consisting of all religious denominations joined in the North American March for Jesus walk on May 27. Walk organizer Lorna Bell said the purpose of the walk was to glorify Jesus and stressed that it was not a publicity stunt. About 80 area residents joined in the walk which started at Cedarvale Park.

On display at Acton High School's science fair was student Stacey Moore's project on animal manure. The Grade 11 student weighed the food eaten by animals as well as the manure to find out the difference.
