

Tough time for Gator bantams

The Georgetown Gray Tool Bantam Gators took part in the Milton Lacrosse Tournament this past weekend. Unfortunately, wins were hard to come by as the local squad dropped all four of its games.

Georgetown opened the tournament against Milton. With only eight players dressed, the Gators were easy pickings for the host side, losing 10-0. Ryan Inglis played well in goal.

The score was a little closer in Georgetown's next game, an 8-2 loss to Brantford. Ryan Carter and Pete Veltman scored for the Gators on assists from Matt Walinga, Dave Gibbons, Josh Travers and Simon Saulnier.

Huntsville was next up. Although the Gators showed improvement, they fell 7-4. Jason Armstrong paced the locals with two goals. Veltman and Bryan Studdard added singles. Assists were credited to Walinga, Brydon Butterworth, Carter, Gibbons and Veltman (2).

Georgetown then met Huntsville again in the consolation final. Despite fine performances from Inglis and Saulnier in goal, the Gators went down by a 6-3 score. Travers notched his first of the season. Greg Bidwell and Butterworth had the other Georgetown markers. John Tummords, Veltman and Carter had the assists.
