Canadian championship

LPGA Tour regular and defending champion Nancy Harvey has confirmed her entry into the Sawmill Creek Wines CPGA Women's Championship. The national championship will be held at Blue Springs Golf Club July 25-26.

Harvey, a native of Saskatchewan, won her first CPGA title last year when the tournament was held at the Aurora Highlands Golf Club.

Beat goes on

The Glen Williams Waud Ware bantam girls softball team's beat goes on. The Glen girls reeled off three consecutive wins recently, pounding Puslinch 17-14, bashing Brookville 12-6 and rocking Rockwood 15-13. Andrea Diaczok, Jen Armstrong and Michelle Taylor homered in the Brookville beating, Rebecca Osborne did the same in the Rockwood rout.

First league win

The McMillan's Frozen Veggies and First Stop Copy Centre U14 reps finally got their first win in the south Region Soccer League downing Iolton 5-3.

After falling behind 2-0 David King and Joel Petkoff went to work. King tapped home a Petkoff feed for the first, then cross and put Acton on the board. King then used his head to put in a Petkoff corner kick tying the score at 2. Petkoff took advantage of a free kick to give Acton a 3-2 half time lead.

Bolton tied in up in the second half before Jason Mota gave Acton in the lead for good on a penalty kick. Determined David King completed the hat trick from Mota for a 5-3 final.

New cycling association

All those interested in the forming of the Halton Off-Road Bicycling Association are invited to a meeting at the Kelso Conservation Area Ski Chalet on Tuesday, June 27, 7 p.m. The association's main goal will be to promote and support off-road cycling in and around the Kelso and Hilton Falls conservation areas.

Three straight

Limehouse M&M Pro Sport Midgets traveled to Harriston in what turned out to be a high scoring Intercounty Softball league game. Harriston started quickly, going up 9-0 after two. Limehouse rallied to tie things in the fourth but when the dust settled Harriston was on top 16-13. The Limehouse attack was lead by Carrie Schenk with two triples driving in three runs. Sheri Buker with 4 hits, 1 RBI, Mary Ann Brown 2 hits, 3 RBIs and Stacy West 1 hit, 2 RBIs.

Two nights later Limehouse hosted Mount Forest in a low scoring game that featured fine pitching by both teams. Mount Forest scored two runs in the first and one in the third to edge the hometown squad 3-0. Limehouse pitcher Robin Zander allowed only four hits while striking out seven.

Taking aim!

Val Caruso takes careful aim as she bowls during a tournament at the Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club on Edith St. last Saturday. John Shaw and Betty Whelan keep a close eye on the proceedings. Some 14 teams, including Legion and Optimist Club members, took part in the event to help raise funds for the Child Amputees of Canada.

Acton claims crown

Acton's Moulin Publishing under 12 rep team traveled to Milton this past weekend to play in the Milton Friendship Soccer Tournament.

Acton won their first game against Mississauga Croatian Soccer Club (MCSC), by a score of 1-0.

Brian Field scored the lone goal and Mike Vanden Hoek got the shut out. A strong game was played by Steve Barends and Mark Chumley.

In game 2 Acton managed to squeak out a 2-2 tie in a hard fought game against Caledon. Acton's goals were scored by John Yundland and Josh Bowen (on a penalty kick). Greg Corman, Nate Williamson, John Field and Sam Pursoo played very well for Acton.

Acton played a strong 3rd game, beating Milton by a score of 5-0. Goals were scored by Dan Pursoo, Darren Banks, Joel Savard, Bob Periera and John Field. J.D. Hatch and Nate Bowen also played a strong game. Mike Vanden Hoek recorded his second shut out of the tournament.

This win put Acton into the championship game on Sunday afternoon against Mississauga (MCSC).

The final game was exciting right up to the final whistle, with Acton coming out on top by a score of 3-2. Scoring for Acton was John Field with 2 and Greg Corman with one.

Brian Field was chosen the most sportsmanlike player.

Eagles improve league-leading record

Georgetown Major Mosquito Eagles improved their league-leading record to 9-1 with two wins last week.

On June 11, Georgetown downed Burlington White 6-4. The Eagles broke out to a 4-0 lead in the top of the second. Burlington managed to knot the score at four in the bottom of the fourth, but the Eagles responded with two in the top of the sixth for the win. Nigel Britto was dominant on the Georgetown mound, striking out 10 in four innings of work. Alex Foster provided the offense by going 2-for-3 at the plate.

The two teams met in a return engagement June 13. This time it was Burlington White prevailing 7-5. The big inning turned out to be the Burlington fourth. With Georgetown leading 3-2, the visitors exploded for four runs. The Eagles would make it 6-5, but Burlington sealed the win with an insurance run in the sixth. Bradley Whittaker was tagged with the pitching loss. However, Whittaker did manage some offensive punch, going 2-for-2.

Georgetown rebounded nicely the next day, pummeling Burlington Orange 13-6. The Eagles broke the game open early by scoring three runs in both the first and the second. Vince Burke had a terrific pitching performance, retiring 12 straight after allowing the first two batters he faced to reach base. Foster (3/4), Brent Beaumont and Jeff Boyce led the offensive charge.

In addition to regular season play, the Major Mosquito Eagles ventured to Flesherton to take part in a tournament. Unfortunately for the locals, a loss in their opening game meant they had to settle for the consolation title.

The loss came against Collingwood by a 3-1 score. Whittaker starred for Georgetown in a great pitching duel. The only Eagles run came off the bat of Jay Lawrence, who homered in the first.

Georgetown came back to defeat Port Elgin 13-8 in its second game. The game was never in doubt as the Eagles opened up a 12-0 lead after two-and-a-half innings. Jordan Scurrall and Michael Mossop each went 2-for-2. Out on the mound, Dustin Weger fanned 10 Port Elgin hitters.

In its final game, Georgetown handed Kincardine a 12-9 loss. Once again, the Eagles seized control early, leading 9-2 after three innings of play. Rusty Parsons had a big hand in the offensive onslaught, going 3-for-4. Andrew McGourty went 2-for-3. Britto took the win with a seven strike-out performance. Weger entered the game in relief to record the save. He struck out the side in the final inning.
