Girls under-11

In the girls under 11 league six games were played. Wendy's Classics and the Optimist Club played the first game. Brittany Rice was outstanding, playing in the forward position for the Wendy's Classic team to help them win 2-0. Jennifer Adams scored both the Wendy's goals. Optimist Susanne Leferink played a great game.
 Meats Galore and G. Morrow Soccer School had an exciting game, ending in a tie with no goals scored. Stephanie Clemanace and Fiona Campbell did a fantastic job in goal for the G. Morrow team.

The last game had State Farm and Paul Armstrong Insurance playing against one another. Stephanie Young of the Armstrong team, set up two of her team players well, allowing Holly Marshall and Shawn Flaxbard to score the two winning goals. Paul Armstrong's team won 2-0. Haley Baker did an outstanding job for the State Farm team.

Under-15 girls

Erin won their first victory of the season against the Georgetown #3 team with a 2-1 score. The score was tied 1 all in the first half after Georgetown forward Charlene Roche scored with a low ball through the Erin goalies' arms. Ten minutes from the end of the second half, Erin won with a direct penalty shot on the goalie as the result of a handball.

Georgetown team #2 won a decisive victory over Bolton #1 with forward Becky Leferink outrunning the opposition and kicking in all four goals. She was assisted by defence Deirdre Edwards and Allie Barclay who played well for the final score of 4-2.

A sudden timetable change saw Georgetown #3 scrambling to field 9 players against a stronger Caledon team. The score was 2-0 at half time. Thanks to June Roy for guest coaching.

Under 17 Girls

The Moradini Sales Bolton Bobcats were not purring as they played the Wheels Driver Training Georgetown team at Alcott. On the opening kick, in a brilliant move, Amanda DeVries ran the ball to the net assisted by Jenn Royce who kicked it in when the goalie came out to challenge. Bolton played with no substitutes and played well, although Amanda DeVries netted another one in the second half for Georgetown. Nikki Davies and Carolyn MacNeal were strong in midfield and defence. The shut out was stopped by Bolton's Melanie Kapogines who shot one past the keeper on a breakaway at the end of the game for a final score of 2-1.
