Seniors group keep groovin' this spring

Heavens to Betsy, I guess I'd better get busy — someone asked my son, the other day, if I was still alive, they hadn't seen any recent write-ups.

Yes siree! I'm still a couple of steps ahead of that darn Phil — though it's a great foot-race at times.

I can't recall where I left off on this year's B&B trips. I'm sure I must have mentioned the ever popular Beaver Show, the great day at the Irish Scream, (complete with a very delicious meal).

Then came the Lawrence Welk Show at Roy Thompson Hall. (I guess you realize by now — I love musicals.) We had the good fortune to be eyeball to eyeball with the performers — D. Row — right in the middle of the stage.

Henry Curesta, hasn't missed a beat. He has got to be the very best there is on the clarinet. Anacani is still as beautiful as ever, and Ronda improved with age in the singing department. Then there was Arthur Duncan!! Oh, man — he may have snow on his head, but he sure has fire in his feet. He danced for ages, and he is still as talented as ever with those flying feet. He also has a very pleasing solo voice. Usually on the Welk Show, he was featured in the chorus, so it was a pleasant surprise when he sang several solos.

Of course Tom

Foren, the very popular accordionist of the Welk Show. That man has personality plus. Joyce and I came upon him in one of the shops downstairs in the Inn, and we enjoyed a very nice visit with him, reminiscing on the time, I featured the year round.

In May we were off for a day in Brantford featuring Peter Appleyard and his Quartets, The Twilites, and the 11-piece band, Mo Vint and His Mo Train among other things.

May 28 found some of us at the Roger Whitaker show. Everyone knows what a great performance he can put on.

The Geritol Follies on June 15 topped off our current year. I don't have to tell you, what a popular show this is; had to purchase the tickets away last November.

Our closing dinner, on the 27th catered by the Ladies of Knox, will I'm sure be a delicious as it always is.

Have a nice summer, no place on earth can compare with the great country we live in, so make use of it.

Belles and Beaus

NAN WHEELER

(Heatherington) the handsome devil, won the hearts of all the senior ladies especially, those sitting in the front row. He not only came down from the stage to sing to them — he also kissed several including, one of our gang. I'm sure Jenny's heart did a fly-over.

The Welk Show for 1996 has been open for reservations for almost two months already — so you can see how popular it is.

The Tommy show was quite a hit, very good acting, a good story line, but a little too loud for my liking.

Then we were off to Frankensmith, Michigan for a couple of days. We stayed at the Bavarian Inn and enjoyed a dandy show, featuring Myron met him on the aeroplane with Bobby and Sissy and some others of the orchestra on our way to California. He is, so "down to earth" to talk to.

No where on earth can you find chicken dinners like in Frankensmith. I had three in two days. Of course we enjoyed the ever popular Xmas displays,
